

INHARMONIOUS DEMOCRACY.

HAVE A LIVELY COMMITTEE MEETING.

Decided to Elect Delegates at a Primary Election—Old Committee Secedes.

The Democratic City Central Committee held a meeting last night at the Windsor Hotel that was very lively—in the first part of it, at least.

R. O. Cravens presided and desired the Secretary, Isadore Alexander, to call the roll.

Committeeman D. J. Mannix said that before that was done he wished to make a statement. He said that Mr. Alexander had, some time after the election, stated to him that several members of the committee were no longer residents of the city and they should be dropped from the committee and others elected to fill the vacancies.

Mr. Mannix said he had stood by Alexander when he said he had cut loose from the other parties and would do no more such work as he had been doing. But there had been too much of such work as this, and he felt that the committee could not afford to retain a member against whom such a charge had been made, and should take some action.

Mr. Alexander hotly denied that any such conversation had ever passed between himself and Radonich, or that he had ever made any such offer. He helped reorganize the party five years ago, and had worked hard for its success ever since. The changes in the committee, he said, were suggested by Mr. Mannix and would never have been made but for him.

Chairman Cravens said he knew nothing of matters spoken of by the two gentlemen. He had understood from C. T. Hughes that he had resigned from the committee, but at the urgent solicitation of many friends in the party, and after consideration of the matter, he had consented to go on the committee to try and effect harmony, heal up the factional fights and to get up a ticket that would receive at least as many votes as there were in the convention. He was elected Chairman of the committee after being elected a member of it. The question arose of Messrs. Brophy and Carroll being outside of the city, and Messrs. Black and Murphy were elected to fill the vacancies that were declared. He had acted in good faith to try to harmonize the

THE PHILIPPINE WAR.

MANLY LETTER FROM AN IOWA VOLUNTEER.

The Men Are Disgusted by the Fire in the Rear at Home.

(From the Iowa State Register.) SAN FERNANDO (P. I.), June 30.—Ed. "Register": The arrival of ten days' mail to the boys at the front is an occasion to be remembered. After digesting the missives from friends and loved ones at home, we immediately post up on the current events of the past which is at least one month behind your time.

We are exceedingly grieved over the thought that some of our friends are adding the enemy by trying to belittle our President and his administration which has so successfully terminated the war with Spain, bringing honor to our flag and life and liberty to millions of the oppressed in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands.

Who wishes to take Dewey from the pedestal upon which the world has placed him? He has done more for the world than our navy will do and dare in any time and under any circumstance. This same Dewey has given us a new charge to keep 8,000,000 of people who were taxed beyond endurance—a tax from $1.50 to $25 per head—on all natives over 18 years of age was collected and every one holding a receipt or personal certificate for less than $300 must render fifteen days' labor to the Government or pay an additional $7.50 in cash. Those holding "cedula personals," or certificates for over $3.50 must pay $1.50 additional in lieu of work. Did a native wish to kill his hog or buffalo for meat, he must get permission and pay for the privilege. Had he a house or a coconut tree, he paid taxes on it. Did he wish to press out a little coconut oil, he must have a license which cost money. Taxes were collected on every move and turn he took, and no mercy was shown to a delinquent. His property was confiscated and sold and if not enough money was realized from the sale the unfortunate was consigned to a prison or deported.

General J. G. Martine went to the Bayonet evening to witness the demonstration there last night. David Potts Stewart and Albert Schapp have returned from a pleasant tour in Sierra Valley. Mrs. C. Kaufman and son, Bernie, are visiting San Francisco, and are stopping at the Hotel Granada. Mrs. J. Bauguler and Miss Bertie E. Rode have gone to San Francisco to attend the soldiers' celebration. Miss Temple Conner, who has been visiting San Francisco and other points on the coast in the past month, arrived home yesterday. County School Superintendent B. F. Howard and wife, accompanied by Miss Emily Thompson, have returned from a delightful sojourn at Deer Park, near Lake Tahoe. Rev. R. M. Stevenson, formerly pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, but now of Madison, Ind., is in the city for a few days visiting his old friends and parishioners.

Articles of Incorporation. Articles of incorporation were yesterday filed with the Secretary of State as follows: Dublin Gold Mining Company, Place of business, Hollister, San Benito County. Directors—F. W. Shields, Grass Valley; L. A. Spinelli, San Jose; L. W. Jefferson, J. M. Button and J. J. Croxon, Hollister. Capital stock, $50,000; subscribed $10,175. Harmony Iron Company. Formed to explore for and mine iron ore, etc. Place of business, Eden Vale, Santa Clara County. Directors—M. H. Chenoweth, E. A. Hayes, J. O. Hayes, M. B. Hayes, C. L. Hayes, W. P. Lyon, Jr., and E. C. Lyon, all of Eden Vale. Capital stock, $1,000,000; all subscribed. Domestic Water Company of Fallbrook. Place of business, Fallbrook, San Diego County. Directors—M. H. Barrett, J. C. Waring, Albert Ross, M. M. Moulton and J. C. Watkins, all of Fallbrook. Capital stock, $25,000; subscribed $2,500. Scenic Display Company. Place of business, San Francisco. Directors—J. W. Fawkes, Jr., E. C. Fawkes, C. E. Snook and L. S. Church, Oakland; S. C. Tompkinson, San Francisco, and H. L. Rattenberry, Frutvate. Capital stock, $100,000; subscribed $10,000. Portuguese Excursion To-Morrow. At 7:30 o'clock to-morrow morning the steamer that is to carry the members of the United States Portuguese Society to Freeport, on their picnic excursion, will leave the foot of N street. The picnic will be held on the Yolo side of the river, and there will be a variety of games and many prizes awarded. Refreshments in abundance can be had on the grounds. The steamer is a large and commodious one, and there will be on board a fine band of music.

Red Men Fraternize. Last evening the officers and members of Winabigo Tribe, No. 94, I. O. R. M., called in a body on Red Jacket Tribe, No. 28, at Red Men's Hall, on Fifth street. W. B. De Costa welcomed the visitors in behalf of Red Jacket Tribe, No. 28. The evening was spent in speechmaking, after which a general smoker was held, with music and other features.

The Mongolian Fiend. Tom Hong, the Chinaman arrested on Thursday for criminally assaulting a little girl on Fifth street, is now held on a charge of that character filed yesterday by Special Officer Ray. Officials of the Children's Society say they have who call themselves Americans, doing so. How patriotic it sounds: "Down with the administration." "They would get their dues if the Americans are beaten." Some of those calamities were fast enough in urging us to war. Let them stay by us to the end, since no one can say when a war commences, where it will end. These islands are ours now to make the most of. I claim it is a good bargain financially, and will prove mutually beneficial to both Americans and Filipinos. We will give them a liberal form of government, advance civilization, free schools, superior agricultural implements, protection to life and property, railroads, highways, telegraph and cable communication, and ten times more money than they ever had in their lives before, and the protection of the best flag the sun has shone upon. We will gain an immense traffic, but it will be small in comparison to the trade we will gain in the present, whose imports exceed 1,500,000,000 annually, which must surely increase as the years go by. We have a commanding position to this trade, being only two days' sailing from it. This bargain, like others our Government has made, rethinks to our credit. No one thinks for a moment that the Louisiana purchase was a bad one. The acquisition of Florida is not denounced and the purchase of Alaska proved a good thing, and just as certain and as sure will the purchase of the Philippine Islands prove a good bargain. The Indians ruled by their chiefs were not consulted in any of those purchases and this latter purchase is just as justifiable.

When the Filipinos show a capacity to govern themselves, then, and then only, should we give them an opportunity. No one in this country thinks they are capable of that now. The American Indian was just as capable of maintaining a good government on horseback as the Filipino is here on a steed of smaller size. But let us let the question of the disposition of the islands rest until this insurrection is ended, as we can not do otherwise honorably. When the proper time comes for the discussion of the disposition of the islands, I have no doubt it will be settled right by the majority of the Americans, and I am willing to abide by that decision, but at present let us uphold the present administration. Very respectfully, THO. DANGERFIELD, Q. M. Sergt., Co. B, 1st Vol. Inf.

PERSONAL MENTION. David Wasserman has gone to San Francisco for a few days. Dr. F. H. Kestler is spending a few days in San Francisco. J. S. Burgess and wife of Oak Park are visiting in San Francisco. Mrs. A. B. Guthrie has returned from a pleasant sojourn at Pacific Grove. Mr. and Mrs. N. Zemansky and daughter, Mollie, are in San Francisco. Miss Winnifred Hoof of Illinois is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Richardson. Secretary Brainerd F. Smith of the Folsom Prison was in the city yesterday. Mrs. M. T. Coker is visiting friends in Newcastle and will remain till the 1st of September. General J. G. Martine went to the Bayonet evening to witness the demonstration there last night. David Potts Stewart and Albert Schapp have returned from a pleasant tour in Sierra Valley. Mrs. C. RECKLESS RIDING. Cyclists Why Pay No Heed to the Ordinances. If the police would arrest the wild wheelers who make race courses of the streets both day and night the wild creatures might learn a little decency. One of these madmen came down K street as if the devil himself were after him with a red hot pitchfork, and the only regret is such was not the case and that the wild rider was not overtaken by his Satanic majesty. At Seventh street he crashed into the wheel of a citizen who was riding slowly across the street, caused him a bad fall and injured his wheel.

This same Dewey has given us a new charge to keep 8,000,000 of people who were taxed beyond endurance—a tax from $1.50 to $25 per head—on all natives over 18 years of age was collected and every one holding a receipt or personal certificate for less than $300 must render fifteen days' labor to the Government or pay an additional $7.50 in cash. Those holding "cedula personals," or certificates for over $3.50 must pay $1.50 additional in lieu of work. Did a native wish to kill his hog or buffalo for meat, he must get permission and pay for the privilege. Had he a house or a coconut tree, he paid taxes on it. Did he wish to press out a little coconut oil, he must have a license which cost money. Taxes were collected on every move and turn he took, and no mercy was shown to a delinquent. His property was confiscated and sold and if not enough money was realized from the sale the unfortunate was consigned to a prison or deported.

De Costa welcomed the visitors in behalf of Red Jacket Tribe, No. 28. The evening was spent in speechmaking, after which a general smoker was held, with music and other features.

The Mongolian Fiend. Tom Hong, the Chinaman arrested on Thursday for criminally assaulting a little girl on Fifth street, is now held on a charge of that character filed yesterday by Special Officer Ray. Officials of the Children's Society say they have who call themselves Americans, doing so. How patriotic it sounds: "Down with the administration." "They would get their dues if the Americans are beaten." Some of those calamities were fast enough in urging us to war. Let them stay by us to the end, since no one can say when a war commences, where it will end. These islands are ours now to make the most of. I claim it is a good bargain financially, and will prove mutually beneficial to both Americans and Filipinos. We will give them a liberal form of government, advance civilization, free schools, superior agricultural implements, protection to life and property, railroads, highways, telegraph and cable communication, and ten times more money than they ever had in their lives before, and the protection of the best flag the sun has shone upon. We will gain an immense traffic, but it will be small in comparison to the trade we will gain in the present, whose imports exceed 1,500,000,000 annually, which must surely increase as the years go by. We have a commanding position to this trade, being only two days' sailing from it. This bargain, like others our Government has made, rethinks to our credit. No one thinks for a moment that the Louisiana purchase was a bad one. The acquisition of Florida is not denounced and the purchase of Alaska proved a good thing, and just as certain and as sure will the purchase of the Philippine Islands prove a good bargain. The Indians ruled by their chiefs were not consulted in any of those purchases and this latter purchase is just as justifiable.

When the Filipinos show a capacity to govern themselves, then, and then only, should we give them an opportunity. No one in this country thinks they are capable of that now. The American Indian was just as capable of maintaining a good government on horseback as the Filipino is here on a steed of smaller size. But let us let the question of the disposition of the islands rest until this insurrection is ended, as we can not do otherwise honorably. When the proper time comes for the discussion of the disposition of the islands, I have no doubt it will be settled right by the majority of the Americans, and I am willing to abide by that decision, but at present let us uphold the present administration. Very respectfully, THO. DANGERFIELD, Q. M. Sergt., Co. B, 1st Vol. Inf.

RECKLESS RIDING. Cyclists Why Pay No Heed to the Ordinances. If the police would arrest the wild wheelers who make race courses of the streets both day and night the wild creatures might learn a little decency. One of these madmen came down K street as if the devil himself were after him with a red hot pitchfork, and the only regret is such was not the case and that the wild rider was not overtaken by his Satanic majesty. At Seventh street he crashed into the wheel of a citizen who was riding slowly across the street, caused him a bad fall and injured his wheel.
