

THE GRANGERS ON DECK TO-DAY.

ter and kept on widening the gap, until at the outcome she had about a dozen lengths to spare in 2:25 1/2. Elevator was a poor third, and the other two were furlongs back.

Dr. Frasse's Sister was a 1 to 4 favorite for the second heat, 2 1/2 to 1 on Direct Heir, 6 to 1 Elevator, and 8 to 1 each Lee Roy and Tia Juana.

The second heat was an exact repetition of the first, Dr. Frasse's Sister winning as she pleased in 2:26, the others in the same positions as before.

Even money was offered now on Dr. Frasse's Sister, 1 to 2 on Direct Heir, 12 to 1 Elevator and 20 to 1 each on Lee Roy and Tia Juana.

The third heat was won in exactly the same order, but the Frasse filly would have been beaten out by Direct Heir had not the latter broke near the finish. The mare was all out, but luck favored her.

Seven came out for the 2:30 trot. The pooling on the first heat was: Uncle James 5 to 1, Quillcene 5, Hank 4, Psyche 1 to 3, El Moro 5 to 2, Lottie Parks 5 to 2, Theron even money.

Hank led all the way to the last stretch, where Psyche came up from third position and had a hot brush to the outcome with Hank and El Moro. Psyche won by a half length in 2:22.

Hank second and a half length the best of El Moro. Theron broke badly on the first turn and was nearly a quarter of a mile behind at the finish.

For the second heat the odds were: Uncle James 4 to 1, Psyche 1 to 2, El Moro 3 to 1, Quillcene 8 to 1, Lottie Parks 4, and Hank 3.

El Moro set the pace in this heat, but Psyche passed him at the half and beat him out two lengths in 2:20 1/2. Uncle James holding down third place, two lengths behind El Moro.

It took $8 now to buy a $1 ticket on Psyche. Uncle James sold for 6 to 1, El Moro 12, Quillcene 12, Lottie Parks 4, and Hank 6.

Psyche led at all points, with El Moro a couple of lengths behind her and Lottie Parks third, finishing in this order in 2:20.

Next came the runners, with the California annual stake for 2-year-olds, six furlongs. All but four were scratched. They were San Tomas 3 to 1, Bamboulla 4 to 1, Bathos 9 to 10, and Sunello 3 to 2.

It was no trick at all for Burns & Waterhouse's San Tomas colt to beat the field against him. Before going an eighth of a mile he led, with Bathos second by half a length, Bamboulla third. San Tomas increased his advantage to two lengths at the seven-eighths pole. Sunello came on from the rear and beat Bathos for the place, but couldn't get within six lengths of San Tomas, who finished easily in 1:15 1/2.

The fourth race, six furlongs, for 3-year-olds and upward, brought out a field of eleven - Monrovia from even money to 3 to 1, Castelar 30 to 1, Black Orphan 8, Col. Dan 12, Miss Dividend 5, McFarlane 2, Pongo 7, Alturas 30, Correct 8, Switzer 25, and Yuruba 7. Monrovia went away in front with Correct and McFarlane all lapped. Miss Dividend became pacemaker for awhile, but Monrovia regained the lead in the stretch. McFarlane held second place and Miss Dividend dropped back into third, losing second by only a neck. Monrovia beat McFarlane two lengths in 1:14 1/2.

The fifth race was a mile and one-sixteenth, selling, for 3-year-olds and upward. The starters were Fortis even money, Grady 3 to 2, Twinkle Twink and Ace each 8 to 1, Rapido 5, and Mistleton 1 1/2.

Mistleton at 2 1/2 to 1 went out from the start and set the pace all the way. At the quarter Ace was second, but Grady had the place at the half. Twinkle Twink third. Around the turn Mistleton led by a length, and in the stretch Twinkle Twink and Fortis moved up and had a hot race for second and third, the former securing it by a half-length. Mistleton won by two lengths in 1:49 1/2.

Out of ten horses on the card but six went to the post in the last race, six furlongs, for 3-year-olds and upward - Chihuahua 5 to 1, Jack McCabe 30, Petal 7, February 4 to 5, Yule 5 to 1, and Mafada 2.

Livestock Exhibit.

The directors yesterday decided to have an extra parade of livestock this forenoon at 10 o'clock. Thursdays and Saturdays have been the regular days for these parades, but as this will be Grangers' Day at the Fair this extra feature had been ordered to give the farmers and their families who have not yet visited the Fair an opportunity to see the grand display of horses and cattle.

It was learned last night, however, that there will not be a parade, but the stock will all be on exhibition in the open field, where the Judges will be at work. A parade would interfere with this work, so it has been decided to show the stock in the field in front of the stand.

SPECIAL MENTION.

The Palace of Smoke.

A novel feature in connection with the exhibits of the pavilion is the cigar annex of Hall, Luhrs & Co. This is situated north of the pavilion, between the poultry exhibit and M street, and is easily reached by exits from the northeast corner of the main building. Many gentlemen, after an hour or more of promenading and sightseeing within, will appreciate the opportunity which is here presented to enjoy a breath of the cool out of door air and the luxury of a quiet smoke in this comfortably furnished secluded retreat. Its structure is after the design of a marble palace. Leading from the main center hall where the brands of cigars are exhibited and samples offered for sale, are four withdrawing apartments each decorated and furnished in a different color.

The weary male promenader after selecting a Tom Moore, a La International, a Henry George or any one of the other brands tastefully exposed, steps into one of these rooms and finds himself on a cushioned divan the inviting appearance of which is no delusion. He reclines back at perfect ease. The music of the orchestra and the murmur of the throng float out through the open doors. The former is doubly enjoyable at the little distance. The temporary respite of the latter is a quarter of an hour of exquisite enjoyment. He returns reluctantly to the scene of animation and his friends, scarcely missed, so short the time, yet restfully and refreshed and willing to declare that the innovation of Hall, Luhrs & Co. was most happily thought and most admirably executed.

Fisher's Candies.

The sole candy privilege in the pavilion is enjoyed this year by Herman C. Fisher, and his attractive array of sweets fits to the right after entering is one which all must admire. Here are shown the various stages of candy making from the big unsightly sugar beet to the tempting little cube or other design for which most people have a weakness. There are the syrups, the molasses, the liquid cream candy, the maple sugar, the big squares of chocolate and rows of jars of confectionery in alluring array. Fresh candy is made in open view every day and night and a constant stream of lovers of sweets find here all the varieties that can possible be desired of pure wholesome, home made confectionery.

MINOR OFFENDERS.

Justice Allen Attends to Their Cases in the City Justice Court.

About two weeks ago S. R. Hart was convicted in the City Justice's Court of embezzling $5 from C. H. Gilman. Hart appeared for sentence yesterday morning, and Gilman filed with the court a stipulation of satisfaction. Thereupon, Justice Allen of Oak Park, before whom the case had been tried, remarked that Hart had been sufficiently punished and ordered his discharge. Henry Petralli and Willie Higgins, the boys charged with stealing a bicycle from Eckhardt's store, pleaded not guilty. They will be tried this morning.

The case of Mary Farly, accused of stealing $5 from a man who visited her, was continued until to-day. The complaining witness failed to appear. Charles Platz, J. W. Ashland and Thomas Dolan, recently arrested for gambling, were fined $10 each. Charles Downey, similarly charged, will plead this morning.

Mamie Copland and William Burns (colored) were floated out of town under sentence of 120 days.

The case of J. Latonette, charged with cruelty to animals, was transferred to Sutter Township, where the offense is alleged to have been committed.

Walter Mathews pleaded guilty of disturbing the peace and will be sentenced to-morrow. Dan O'Keefe pleaded guilty to a like charge and will be sentenced to-day.

D. B. Misner, A. Alexander, who was caught by Officers Dolan, Fitzgerald and Wilson while stealing carpenter's tools from the Heilbron building, pleaded guilty. He will be sentenced to-day.

The case of J. Mahoney, charged with perjury, in having it is alleged, sworn falsely about his place of residence when he offered his name for registration, was continued until to-morrow.

Joseph Hughes, charged with having committed battery upon a boy named Charles Dalton, was discharged.

THIRD WARDERS.

The Republican Club of '97 Preparing for the Campaign.

The Third Ward Republican Club of '97 held its regular meeting last night at its wigwam, and various committees reported progress. The Membership Committee now consists of twenty-five members who have worked untiringly to get all the Republicans in the ward on the club's roster.

Twenty-seven new names have been added in the past week. Arrangements have been perfected for the high jinks to be held next Monday evening. There will be plenty of good talent, good speaking and refreshments. A band concert in the annex will be one of the features of the night's entertainment.

The club is now in good shape to do good work, and will be fully able to do battle as of yore in the coming campaign, and nothing will be left undone by this Republican organization.

Petition to Administer.

Letitia J. Robinette has petitioned the Superior Court for letters of administration on the estate of J. L. Robinette, deceased, which consists of personal property valued at $500. Hopkins & Hindsland are her attorneys.

Sixty Days for Curley.

J. Curley was convicted yesterday in the City Justice's Court of petit larceny and sent to the County Jail for sixty days.

BABY'S FACE MASS OF SORES.

They Almost Closed Her Eyes. Physicians of No Benefit. Healed by CUTICURA.

When my little sister was four months old her cheeks became red and inflamed. Small pimples broke out over her face and it was one mass of sores, which almost closed her eyes and reached into the corners of her mouth. For several weeks a physician attended her, but as she received little or no benefit from his treatment we searched for other means. We bought a cake of CUTICURA Soap and a box of CUTICURA (ointment). Her face healed and she grew healthy again. You can use this letter as a testimonial. March 19, '98. ROSA BURGER, Solomon, Kan. Signed by parents, FRED BURGER, Mrs. C. BURGER.

BETTER ON HANDS CURED BY CUTICURA.

I had Tetter on my hands for two years. My hands were all cracked to pieces, and bled so that I could not decently dress myself, and they itched terribly. I tried everything, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I tried the CUTICURA remedies and they are so much better that they no longer bother me at all. SALLIE E. COPELAND, Woodland, N. C. Sept. 17, 1898.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, greatest of blood purifiers and humor cures, internally (to cleanse the blood of all impurities and poisonous elements), with warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, followed by gentle anointings of CUTICURA, the great skin cure externally (to clear the skin and scalp and restore the hair), will instantly relieve and speedily cure the most torturing, disgusting humors of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, when all else fails.

Sold throughout the world. FORTY DENTS AND CREAM, CO., Prop., Boston. "All About Baby's Skin," Free.

PIMPLES, blotches, blackheads, red, rough, oily skin, red, rough hands with scapules and pimples, painful finger cracks, prevented and cured by CUTICURA, greatest of skin purifying and beautifying soaps.

Mrs. Shields Impressed Her.

Mrs. Emma Shafter Howard of Oakland has returned home from a trip to England and while there she saw Queen Victoria. She does not seem to have been much awed by the sight of royalty and told her friends that she was more impressed by Mrs. Elizabeth Shields of this county, the well-known horticulturist, than by the Queen.

An Old Citizen Deceased.

Patrick Leavy, who was for more than twenty years a trusted employe of the railroad company, died on Sunday at the age of 75 years. He leaves two sons, P. F. Leavy of Seattle and Ed Leavy of San Francisco.

Mosquito Canopies $2.50

September is the great mosquito month and unless you adopt some means of protection, you'll probably have many an interesting all night battle with these always hungry little pests. There is absolute protection in one of these flexible mosquito canopies. You simply attach it to a screw hook in the ceiling over the bedstead and a means of a little pulley you raise or lower it at will. A positive ornament to the bedroom, too. Price $2.50.

Combination Bookcase-desk $17.50

This case pictured above is one of the coming season's designs which have just arrived. It is a richer looking case in every way than any we have ever before offered at the price, and at the same time it is well built. It stands 88 inches high and 38 inches wide and the French bevel plate mirror in the side measures 12 by 12 inches. We have this case in two woods—birch, finished in mahogany and oak finished in the new and extremely popular golden color. Price for either wood, $17.50.

Parlor chair $6.00

We have sold more of these particular chairs than of any other style of hall and parlor chairs that we have handled during the past season. A fresh supply just in. Two woods to choose from—birch, mahogany finish and oak, golden finish. Highly polished wood seat. Price $6.00. Rocker to match, $6.00.
