

SPEECHES BY CANDIDATES.

HIGH JINKS BY THIRD WARD REPUBLICANS.

Oratory, Music, Recitations, Etc., Go to Make Up an Evening's Entertainment.

The high jinks of the Third Ward Republican Club of '97, held at its wig-wag last night, was the most successful ever given by that organization.

The occasion was the second anniversary of the club's organization. Standing room was at a premium and the necessity of a larger headquarters was fully demonstrated.

The Membership Committee brought seventeen new members into the club, and gave no sign of letting up in its work.

The Registration Committee reported, and many citizens can thank this committee for being able to vote on November 7th.

When the regular business was disposed of President Hall announced that the high jinks was next in order.

He introduced A. A. De Ligne, candidate for City Attorney, who spoke in high praise of the club.

The Sacramento Athletic Club trio, composed of Sam Smith, Jr., Carl Koenig and Harry Hilbert, sang "We Never Speak Her Name," and "Jeremiah," and were applauded to the echo.

C. C. Robertson, candidate for City Collector, was called on and responded with a few remarks.

George H. Clark was welcomed with cheers and shouts when he entered the hall, and when called upon and introduced as the next Mayor the noise was deafening.

Professor Marino, the man with the hair, charmed the audience with his sweet music.

Charles Hill, the club's baritone, sang "My Mary Dear," and was accompanied on the piano by James Wheat.

Wm. Sims, Chairman of the City Central Committee, was called in from the annex and delivered a stirring address, in which he congratulated the club for its good work.

John F. Sullivan also spoke of the advantages of unity and harmony, such as exists in the Third Ward.

Three cheers were given for George W. J. Hall, the City Central Committee man for the Third Ward.
