

ANOTHER NIGHT OF JUBILEE.

SIXTH-STREET METHODISTS ARE HAPPY.

Many Speeches, Music, Experiences Recounted and a Collation Is Served.

The jubilee services of the Sixth-street Methodist Church were continued last night.

A large audience assembled in the Sunday-school room, and the services were commenced with a song by the congregation.

Rev. A. P. Banks was among the visiting clergymen and made an interesting speech on the occasion.

Rev. Carroll said he was gratified by news from many directions to hear that the services of the previous night were greatly enjoyed for their marked spirituality.

"While we are here for social purpose to-night," he said, "let us keep in mind the fact that the religion we love is uppermost."

Rev. Dr. Robert Bentley invoked the divine blessing, after which the brief speeches were continued.

Rev. Carroll made a preliminary statement to the effect that it had long been his pleasure to know many of the former pastors of the church.

Dr. J. H. Wythe was next referred to as a man eminent in science as well as in theology.

Rev. Dr. Ross spoke briefly on the jubilee services and the jubilee song.

"At one time this feeling was so strong," said the speaker, "that I asked Dr. Carroll to excuse me. There are but two members of the church here now who were here when I first became a pastor here, and I feel very homesome when I review the situation.

It seems but yesterday, though it was forty-two years ago, that I first landed in Sacramento. When I review the list of those who formerly worked in the church with me and see how few are here I am lonely for progress.

The speaker, however, said he could rejoice when he thought of the progress made since he first saw the little church. The speaker said he remembered the kindness of the people when he was ill in Sacramento in 1859, but he rejoiced that the past fifteen years had been years of health and strength, and that he now did more study and work than at any period of his life.

The longer he lived the more firmly he believed in Jesus Christ and the doctrine of salvation.

Rev. Dr. Hancock was the next speaker. He said in part:

"In 1808 I began to think of coming to California because my health had broken down. I came and was stationed in San Francisco. After that I was sent to Sacramento, and I see some here to-night who were converted in 1870. I remember we had a debt of $3,150, and everything here had a sense of incompleteness. We had a debt, we needed a parsonage and a new church. I prayed for help, and before long three members of the church took hold of the matter and the debt was soon paid.

"In a similar way we began a plan of improving the church and carried it to a completion. These things make me believe that God was in the work, and when God says to go forward he surely makes provision for progress.

"As I think of what has been done in fifty years and when I see these young folks here, consecrated to God I trust, I feel the value of the church, and I feel that the future of the church is assured.

"I am impelled to say that I find the value of church attendance is seldom known. As a mere business investment it would pay a young man locating in a city to rent a good pew and attend church regularly."

Mr. and Mrs. Lester sang a duet, after which Rev. M. D. Buck made a few remarks. He said he knew nearly all the congregation and he was delighted to be among them again. He did not want to say much, but preferred to hear the roll call of members and their statements of experiences in religion.

Bishop Bentley was next introduced, and he said:

"I was here just twenty-one years ago, and I have never ceased singing the praises of this church, for it was always good to me. I often hold it up as an example."

The Bishop told a few humorous stories concerning his work as a minister, and at the end of his address there was general good feeling. He thought there was great reason for rejoicing over the work of the church. It had always been famous for liking its pastor, for which reason the church had a good name everywhere. He urged the church to rouse itself to the work of great work so as to make the work of the twentieth century great.

Rev. Thomas Filben of Pacific Grove, though never a pastor of the church, was announced to speak, and he did so after a solo by Miss True.

Mr. Carroll introduced Mr. Filben with a high compliment for his competent church work.

Mr. Filben said he was never a pastor of the church, but he was a member.

"Uncle Dudley" was played by the Elleford Company at the Clunite last night to a packed house. The piece was well given. It is a crisp, lively, witty and rattling farce comedy; one of the best order and brim full of rich humor, which appealed to the echo of the audience, which applauded to the echo and laughed to the point of exhaustion.

Jessie Norton in her song and dance comedy specialties, was recalled over and over again until the accommodating little woman had to beg off for rest's sake. To-night the company will present one of the strongest pieces in its repertoire, indeed the strongest, "The Banker's Daughter," the best play the company gives and that it brings out the strength and art of the entire troupe more effectively than any other drama it has studied.

October 30th to November 5th there will be produced at the Clunite Opera-house a new musical farce comedy entitled "A Breach of Promise." If we are to believe advance reports, the play has scored a genuine success from both an artistic and financial standpoint, and if so will no doubt be well received here. It possesses, we are told, many novel and pleasing features, with bright, sparkling comedy and catchy music. The greatest attention has been given to even the smallest details in respect to an elaborate staging of the play, which is founded on a remarkably funny plot. The various roles and numerous specialties are rendered by an excellent company, prominent among whom are Joseph Harrington, Burt Haverly, Fred Seville, Nellie Sennett, Rosa Crouch and many other favorites.

It Has No Debts Except Those Due to Stockholders on Their Payments.

The stockholders of the Occidental Building and Loan Association held a meeting last evening in Foresters' Hall to hear a report from the Board of Directors as to what had been accomplished since the last meeting on March 30th, the report being as follows:

To the stockholders of the Occidental Building and Loan Association: Your Board of Directors report as follows: viz:

"That in pursuance of the instructions contained in the resolution adopted at the stockholders' meeting held March 30, 1899, we have diligently applied ourselves to the task of straightening the affairs of the association, collected the money due it and paying its creditors.

Since March 30th we have collected the following sums from the following-named persons, viz:

Table listing financial transactions: Cash on hand April 1st, $2,734.56; Bills payable, $4,500.00; Interest, $265.15; Insurance, $15.50; M. Curran, $15.50; Water account, $20.00; Taxes, $1,128.98; Expense, $632.20; Dues account, $430.00; Dues account, $2,238.70; Expenses, advances, $18.30; Insurance, $26.30; Total, $21,576.96.

This has been a difficult task, necessitating care and caution. We have paid all the creditors of the association as follows, with the following other disbursements:

Table listing disbursements: Bills payable W. Land, $5,500.00; Bills payable F. & M. Bank, $4,000.00; Bills payable Occidental, $2,000.00; Delano estate, $200.00; Interest, $265.15; Insurance, $15.50; M. Curran, $15.50; Water account, $20.00; Taxes, $1,128.98; Expense, $632.20; Dues account, $430.00; Dues account, $2,238.70; Expenses, advances, $18.30; Insurance, $26.30; Total, $21,576.96.

And have the pleasure of reporting that the only debts due by the association are to the stockholders for their payments on their stock and some small other expenses not yet fully settled.

The following originally stood on the books as loans, but we have been forced to accept deeds for same in lieu of payment of mortgages: Goddard property, Lake County; Webster & Boen property, Yuba County; Boody property, Marin County; Gogi property, San Jose; Gaetsman property, Sacramento County; Payne property, Sacramento County; S. Crocker property, Sacramento City; Gustafson property, Sacramento City; Hughton property, Sonoma County.

The latter piece having been resold the latter part of last year for part cash and part mortgage, to a Mr. Lankant.

We have foreclosed and bought in the property covered by a loan to W. D. H. Ross now deceased, which is the house at No. 2104 W street. This was made necessary because after full and careful examination we found in each and every case that the person owing the debt was not possessed of any other property out of which the amount due the association could be collected, and by receiving from them a deed for the real estate in payment of the debt we saved the expense of attorney fees and costs of foreclosure as well as eighteen months' time.

We have now on hand belonging to the association, the following securities of the appraised value to the association as follows:

Table listing securities: A. C. Anderson, $400.00; J. Alken, $250.00; J. W. Batcher, $500.00; W. O. Brown, $2,200.00; Boody & Alisp, $71.85; S. J. Calderwood, $1,080.00; D. J. DeGroot, $157.00; G. Hilliard estate, $496.81; C. H. Howard, $300.00; H. B. Hook, $400.00; Della Hadrich, $400.00; W. H. Hook, $400.00; C. A. Holt, $400.00; C. M. Johnson, $200.00; M. Kerns, $1,100.00; W. F. Laukaut, $2,000.00; W. P. Moyer, $75.00; A. F. Monaghan, $1,850.00; S. M. O'Connell, $510.00; M. A. Peaslee, $75.00; M. S. Peaslee, $75.00; W. H. Ross, $500.00; A. Richter, $500.00; S. A. Robinson, $2,100.00; W. H. Finner, $500.00; George R. Stang, $500.00; W. R. Stang Co., $500.00; Total, $39,991.51.

We have on hand the following real estate belonging to the association some of which was appraised by the committee of stockholders, and that appraisement is given here, and some has been decided to the association. As before stated, one piece has been foreclosed though the Ross property is here reported as a loan. The value of these pieces has been estimated by us as follows:

Table listing real estate: P. Roemer, $3,000.00; M. Curran, $75.00; Alisp & Devlin (estimated), $400.00; Total, $3,475.00.

PROPERTY. Goddard, $450.00; Webster & Boen, $2,000.00; Payne, $2,000.00; Boody, $2,000.00; Gustafson, $1,875.00; Gogi, $521.00; Gaetsman, $1,875.00; Hughton, $2,000.00; Toddhunter, $700.00; Sonoma, $2,000.00; Total, $18,596.00.

RECAPITULATION. Loans, $39,991.51; Contracts, $1,200.00; Property, $1,200.00; Cash on hand, $2,610.00; Total, $109,129.91.

We owe to the stockholders for the money paid on their stock since February, 1898, the sum of $10,772.

We have redeemed some shares of stock so that the total number now outstanding is 1,085 shares.

The W. O. Brown mortgage on land in San Mateo County, the McCormack mortgage on land in Placer County, and the Moyer mortgage on land in Sacramento County, are now each in process of foreclosure. The association must bid in these pieces when the sale is had as no other purchaser can at present be found.

We regard the debt due to the stockholders for the payments made by them since February, 1898, as a sacred one that should be paid as soon as possible.
