

Mr. E. B. Hogan late proprietor of the Arivaca Hotel, is now engaged in business in Nogales.

The melodious frog was heard last night warbling on the Santa Cruz. The first of the season.

Mr. Smith, clerk in the land office, has recently been quite ill, but is now said to be slowly convalescing.

Don Sanford is harvesting his wool crop. Rather cold we should think for sheep to be shorn.

Alfalfa seed for sale by L. Zechendorf & Co. This seed is new and warranted to be of the best quality.

The bishop to succeed Bishop Salpointe, auxiliary of Santa Fe, as bishop of the diocese, has not yet been appointed.

Again there is talk of forming a colony for the summer in the Santa Catalinas, but we presume it will end in talk as heretofore.

The skating mania continues to rage. The attendance is always large, black, white and yellow made up the cosmopolitan crowd last night.

The sweet potatoes brought up from Phoenix, are the best that have come to this market. They are of the "Old North Carolina" variety.

The citizens are under obligations to Hon. E. W. Hiley for legislative documents. By the way, Mr. Hiley is making a useful and profitable member.

Parties returning from the mountains report deer every where. The season for killing deer should end for this season, as their flesh will soon be unfit for food.

Considerable ore continues to be shipped from Crittenden station to Benson and smelters. The rans, however, a camp is not played out yet by a long stretch.

The Quintero stocks are going up. Peerless is quoted at $3, Peer at $1.50 and Crocker $3.25. The rise is occasioned by the prospect of the early completion of the mill.

Our neighbor says there is considerable oleomargarine sold in Tucson. It is mostly imported from the East, and is in large packages. He says he has seen the California roll is mostly genuine butter.

Nice ripe tomatoes, green cucumbers, lettuce, green peas, spinach and other garden produce, are to be found in the Tucson market. What a vast distance between these things and 30 below zero.

Mr. Leo Goldsmith recently received a carload of fine Sierra and Persian rugs and carpets. He says he can convey an idea of their beauty without seeing them. They are on exhibition at his store where they can be seen.

What has the County Board done about completing the crossing of the bottom on the Quintero road? Would it not be a good idea to attend to that before warm weather sets in? There will be no more crossing of the road before long and it should be put in order.

Mr. E. J. Coyne, of Greaterville, is in the city. He reports the camp progressing well. The rain, however, is not along. Recently a company have taken in several dry washes, and for the few days that they were to work them did well. The same company has pulled them to suspend operations until the ground to be worked again becomes dry.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanner and family left for their new home in New Mexico yesterday morning accompanied by the best wishes of their many friends and acquaintances who regretted their departure. A few friends accompanied them to their departure they were made the recipients of a very pleasant party tendered to them by the ladies of the church.

Mr. Jesse Bryant, one of the prosperous Salt river farmers arrived in this city several days since with a load of best potatoes which he is selling by way of an experiment for future trade. The potatoes are sweet, sound and of the best quality. Should Mr. Bryant be able to dispose of his potatoes, it would be a fine thing for the market. Like all enterprising citizens of the Salt river valley, he is looking for a railroad built to Tucson thereby linking the producer with the consumer.

The Mexican custom house officer on the San Pedro is coming in for a round share of abuse from the Tombstone papers. Mexicans are said to be hourly contrabanding goods into the United States without paying duty, but if an American wants to take a collar box into Mexico he has to pay two or three dollars for the privilege. The attention of George Christy, special agent of the United States Treasury Department has been called to this state of affairs and he has promised to give the matter the much needed attention.

Mr. P. R. Tully contemplates purchasing a ranch and making it his future home. Should he do so, he will not find a suitable place in Arizona, but will place for in the interior of Mexico and then settle down for the remainder of his days. Mr. Tully is the oldest white resident of New Mexico, having lived for many years in Arizona, and was at one time accounted one of the wealthiest men within her borders. While he had money he spent it in his native land to the benefit of the territory and people, and having ever been among the foremost and most upright of her citizens, it is to be hoped that he will find it his advantage to continue to reside in his native land.

A gambling case was heard before Judge Meyer yesterday. That presents a somewhat curious fact, that presents a tale of brood of confidence. A California gambler by the name of Nunez took the tiger last night and net $40 by the operation. A moneyless friend of his, named Montego, sitting near by, was given money by Nunez to play in the hopes of having better luck try and win back the lost coin, with a better understanding that in case he won anything over and above the said $40 the gain was to be equally divided between them. Montego played well and in due course of time cashed in chips to the value of $100, the proceeds of which he handed to Nunez with the expectation that half the profits $20,000 would be returned to him. Nunez, however, was made of no such stuff, he coolly pocketed the proceeds and would not divide Montego, although it was after midnight, laid his complaint before Judge Meyer who issued the required warrants for the arrest of Nunez. The case was heard at 11 p. m. and will be in progress as the citizens goes to press.

It is spring. A resurrection of nature's latent forces is taking place. Like the world around you, renew your complexion, invigorate your powers, cleanse the channels of life. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the means to use for this purpose.

A CARD. To all who are suffering from nervous and indigestion of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, you, FAIR or CURVED. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send self-addressed envelope to Rev. J. P. T. INMAN, Station D, New York. 70-16-rod-4-17-1

THE CAPITOL.

Abolishing the Fiesta—The Capital most Go-Bettered Aid Wanted—Bury Day in the House—Determination Bill Passed—Election Laws Passed—Sierra Bonita County—A Bill to Amend the House—An Honorable House.

Regular Correspondence of the Citizen. Prescott, Feb. 23, 1885.

In the Council to-day several quite important bills were introduced. Mr. Leatherwood introduced a bill to abolish Mexican Festivals and their attendant noise. The bill was prepared in Tucson and has the sanction of not only the people of the nation, but also of the church in whose honor these annual sports are ostensibly given. The same gentleman also introduced a bill for the removal of the territorial capital to Tucson. It may be as well stated here that eight copies of a possible twelve in the Council have been diagnosed in favor of the measure. Yes, yes, long, tiresome and expensive journeys are made to reach the capital, with compensating mileage only as the crow flies, is not a good nor potent argument in favor of retention here, and as it is about the only consolation one gets for the trials and hardships incident to a winter journey into the mountains of Hesperia, where the Territorial House and the legislative whang-doodle morrieth for his misdeeds, there is no cause for wonder at the prevalence of this sentiment. In fact, the summer season in Tucson, with all its attendant flood of golden sunshine and inclement influence, is regarded as a consolation, and the winter season of frost and storm here, while our super and perfect winter climate really ought to inspire the legislative soul and create an ambition to stay here, is regarded as a curse. The capital will go to Tucson, if the Tucson delegation can take it there by lawful means.

A bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

Mr. J. N. Mason said that while a bill to amend the Council, having passed the House yesterday, to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days. It is regarded as a very good bill and the day after tomorrow the report of the House will be ready for the consideration of the Council.

THE TEACHER PUAZE.

Among our good citizens interested in school matters there is considerable feeling over the removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city, by the Board of Trustees, at a meeting on the 21st instant.

For the purpose of giving the public the benefit of the various members of the Board of Trustees, and also Mrs. E. N. Fish, and requested their opinions, but were refused.

Mr. C. B. Sessions was first consulted. He said that Mrs. White was charged with violation of the school discipline in punishing the parents of children in their homes, and that she had taken them in another for which they were undisciplined against the will and wishes of the Trustees. For instance, the Goodman building had been opened to children in the primary grades, one of which was under the charge of Mrs. White. To this class she introduced packets to be read to the children, and she also gave them a copy of the class taught by herself. At first the trustees refused to countenance such an abuse, but she insisted that she had influence to sanction her action. But she was again refused, and to save still further annoyance, the board thought best to take the present action. Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H. Hughes stated that there was of his knowledge much dissatisfaction in the manner in which the public schools were being conducted and supported, but that Mrs. White was much to blame for much of the trouble and dissatisfaction, and in this case the action of the board was fully justified. Mrs. White was publicly trying to undermine the Principal of the school and create an ambition to resign. He said, he had said, always felt friendly to Mrs. White, but his action in this instance was for the best interest of the school and as such he was prepared to support it. Mr. W. A. Smith, who was next called on, the action of the board, he said, was justifiable if there had been an inquiry into the present case. He said that he had not the time to prepare to support an opinion regarding Mrs. White. This afternoon the special order of business was the consideration of the proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city. The proposed removal of Mrs. White as a teacher in the public schools of this city.

Mr. J. H.