

WEEKLY CITIZEN SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1888. REPUBLICAN PRINTING & PUBLISHING CO. GENERAL MANAGER. H. B. BROWN, EDITOR.

REPUBLICANS BE TRUE TO YOURSELVES. It has long been a conceded fact that Pima county is republican, that without the use of money for corrupt purposes by the democrats, the candidates put up by the republican party should be elected.

There is not a citizen in the city but appreciates the enterprise, zeal and energy of our fellow townsman Mr. W. Reid, in building the handsome Opera House now under construction and nearly completed.

TELEGRAPH. WASHINGTON Sept 27—Calls resolution instructing the committee on epidemic diseases to report some legislation for the prevention or suppression of the importation of contagious diseases west over last Monday.

CHAMBERLAIN, Dakota, Sept. 28.—The Sioux commissioners left for the east to-day and agents and their Indians left for the respective agencies. Delegations from each of the six nations composed of agents and leading Indians will now visit Washington and the President will be given an opportunity to present claims to the government authorities.

DENVER, Sept. 28.—Late last night a man giving his name as E. J. Carter was arrested by Lieutenant James and lodged in the county jail. The supposition is that he was William R. Dwyer, the murderer of Ames J. Snell, the Chicago millionaire, the result of a saving case business day from the coast states for all points in the east.

transmitted it to Congress this morning accompanied by a long message. The President's message, which accompanied the approval of the bill, states that the experiment of blending social habits and race idiosyncrasies of the Chinese laboring class with those of the people of the United States, has been proved by an experiment of twenty years to be every sense unwise, and in public safety injurious to both nations.

The Democratic Convention. When the CITIZEN went to press yesterday afternoon, the democrats in convention had decided to pass the Council and were laboring with the legislative ticket. There were six applicants for these positions of doubtful honor, and as five could be elected it was on motion, decided to call time on the five receiving the largest number of votes.

"I SHOULD hate awfully to think so." "I DON'T know who got the money. I didn't." SYDNEY in his race for nobility will run on his own merits and not in the reflected light of a former incumbent.

The San Bernardino Board of Trade has issued a 70-page "brochure" wherein the wonders of that wonderful land are wonderfully told. How long, O Lord, how long will it be before a like "brochure" be broached by Tucson?

Col. T. A. Judd, whom the county will honor as its recorder for the coming two years, is one of the most modest and unassuming men that can be found in the county, hence the claim that "he is but little known outside" is fairly well founded, but before the time for casting ballots arrives, he will be known, inasmuch as he purposes to visit every mining camp and town in Pima county and become acquainted with everyone.

NOGALES, September 27.—News has just been received here of the suicide of Benor Florentino Ruiz, one of the most wealthy ranchers in the northern part of the Territory. Ruiz was a man of high standing and was doing during a temporary fit of insanity to which he was subject. He took a rifle and placed the muzzle at his foot. Ruiz had a wide reputation as an Indian fighter and has for the last twenty years taken a hand in every campaign.

WASHINGTON Sept 28—Senate committee on Finance to-day devoted four days to the reading of the new tariff bill. Senator Harris expected to receive from Senator Hoar on Monday, suggestions in regard to the minority report and the house took a recess till evening.

WASHINGTON Sept 28—It was ordered when the house adjourned to-day, that it was to be met on Monday and Tuesday at the residence of Mr. S. Y. from under the influence of Architect A. Thibaut in the matter on the library building. Ordered printed and laid on the table.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Sam Wah, a prominent Chinaman with a white wife, who was arrested recently, has been hauled up before a magistrate for attempting to seduce other white girl to marry herself and held by the grand jury pending the coming of Mary Koo, a German girl, who charged him with seduction to her seduction.

The democratic Convention paid a most complimentary to Hon. R. B. Drake when it passed the nomination for Legislative Council. In the first place it would be impossible to defeat Mr. Drake before the people, and in the second place they could not possibly put forth a man that could better protect the interests of the County than the representative of Pima County that his voice will be heard and in whose behalf the best energies of his command will be exerted.

Hon. H. E. Lacy, the present chairman of the board of supervisors, and candidate for re-election on the republican ticket, is popularity itself. Not only will he command the entire vote of his party but he will draw largely from the ranks of his political opponents who admire and respect him as an honorable gentleman. It was this recognition of his sterling qualities that debarred others of the city, from seeking a nomination against him, in the late democratic convention.

A Big Find of Texas Skeletons. (Austin Herald.) Seventy-five miles northwest of El Paso toward Deming, in New Mexico, lies a small range called the Good Shepherd mountains. The cattle of the Carpenter-Stanley Company make them their grazing ground and an occasional cowboy traverses them. The mountains are full of mineral, but neither prospector nor cowboy likes to go near them, for the place has become notorious on account of the number of mysterious skeletons that are found there. Last week three men were seen to go to the mountains and return with a skeleton, the first one of the bunch spring, under a heap of stone, from which the head and feet protruded. Remains of the skeleton and bones, which were scattered around. The back of the skull was crushed in. The other two skeletons were found but a mile off, having the same appearance. The locality is remote from travel, roads and has always been dreaded. It is a place of refuge for hostile Indians and outlaws, and the remains are probably those of prospectors who were killed during the last raid, about three or four years ago.

Hon. M. S. Snyder, the republican nominee for the office of assessor and collector, is among the most deserving candidates on the republican ticket. Two years ago he was elected by a majority of sixty votes over his popular democratic opponent, to the office of clerk of the county court, but was legislated out of office by Governor Zulaika and his following, in the 14th legislature. He was however, by a democratic board, who recognized his fitness, appointed clerk of the board of supervisors, which office he has filled to the eminent satisfaction of all parties concerned. He is a young man of good education and pleasing address, and one who will go far to oblige a friend, even though it be at his own inconvenience. But friends alone have not been the recipient of his attentions but everyone who, whether by letter or in person had reason to address him. All were courteously met, their inquiries answered and wants attended to with promptness and dispatch. It is in this manner, without apparent effort on his own behalf, made hosts of friends who will be slow to forget his return on the sixth of November they return the compliment by giving him their suffrage at the polls. "Jack" as he is familiarly called will get there.

When the republicans nominated Ben Heney for treasurer they took into special consideration his fitness for the place, which the CITIZEN is free to say is not excelled, if equalled, by any other man in the county. For four successive years he has attended to the office, and as deputy, first under Mr. Thomas Hughes and latterly under Judge Wood, has been ever ready and true. In fact, and now the republicans of Pima County will vote him the emblems of the office as well as the name. In all his dealings with the public he has been very personification of accommodation and no complaint or breath of reproach of a public or private nature, has ever been uttered against him. All having business in the treasurer's office regardless of who or what they may have been, went away when their business was done, with the firm conviction that the right man had been found for the right place. This sentiment animated the late county convention when they put him in nomination. Ben Heney is a good man, such an one that citizens will tax payers afford with good grace, to tie to. He has never before been an applicant for the office and would not now have been before the people had he not urged that his name be used. He is a credit to any party and any ticket, and his election will not only reflect the good judgment of the voters but will ensure to the citizens of the county a faithful and efficient treasurer in whom the fullest confidence can be bestowed.

All the Federal officers have been invited to contribute voluntarily to the democratic campaign fund and so far as known they all promptly came up, and to make themselves even more solid with the powers that be, some of them saw the demand and went it a little better. After the sixth of November next what tall kicking there will be among those of these voluntary contributors, is beyond conjecture.

It is reported here to-day that B. F. Kauffman, the republican nominee for joint councilman for the southern district has declined to make the race and that a successor will have to be appointed. To do this it will be necessary the calling together of the Territorial Central committee of the republicans, unless the matter can be so arranged by letter as to agree upon some one particular individual. If this was done it would save considerable expense and delay.

The beauty of the republican candidates lies in the fact that there is not a man among them that is not thoroughly manly in the sense that it is not through the employment of personally doing the work of the office they aspire to. Can this much be said of the democratic candidates? We fear not, and therefore urge all good thinking citizens, regardless of party affiliation or political faith, to compare the records and ability of the several candidates on the two tickets and then scratch vigorously in the ink of their own free choice the best and most competent candidate and good county government.
