FROM MEXICO.

An Interesting Letter From Hermosillo—Personal and Mining.

Hermosillo, Jan. 18, 1880. Editor Citizen:—I received my Tucson paper last Saturday in a hurry, their dates ran back to December last. I presume it was an account of something but why should I kick, as I take four Arizona papers and are in the arena with three out of four, but if ye editors can confer favorably by publishing the devil's ears and continue reading the paper, I will promise to get there after a while. I was pretty well educated in the promise business during my last four years in Southern Pima, (very much to my sorrow.) I do not think that he is a wretch who does not pay for his papers; however, the good book says that the Lord smiles on the unjust as well, now it is pretty near time for the old gent to begin business with me, as I haven't had the pleasure of many smiles for the past two years, although I feel just as if it will be my luck to find a moneysack of some of the old Montezuma's buried wealth some day, and if such happens, my paper and wash bill will be settled first, regardless of consequences. Your New Years present (the illustrated edition) is superb. I have read it through twice and have shown it to my friends here, who, after commenting on the make up of the paper and the articles therein seemed much surprised that such a production should come from Tucson, and of the many well written articles. The picture of prospecting by Mr. P. W. Oury, is certainly of great value to every prospector, as it is written in such a plain manner that any one can profit by it.

I had the pleasure of meeting my old time friend, J. H. Finch, special judge of your city, when he was doing the old city of beauty. Jack met me outside of a great many of Col. Hildreth's great dinners, judging from the size of his waist-band. Jack is all wool and a yard wide (if he is a democrat) and justly deserves good notice.

The great interest in this section seems to be prospering. The Minnie Prietas Co. are running their large mill in an open from the famous Herdman and Adams mine, and are certainly making a yielding handsome profit both to lessees and lessors. Mr. E. A. Price, general manager of the Arizona mine, has finished his great mine, and is now in getting sufficient water, but I am told that he has secured a water right from the Chiricahua about two miles away, and will be ready to commence later to the mill, when it will be run to the full capacity. Fresh and Magruder, of the Yuma mine, are raising their mill and are ready to commence operations. The Southern Coal, owned by the Crittenden-Snyder people, has been leased to Taylor and Johnson of Nogales, and I am informed that all the granges heretofore seem to have pie in the fifty and dance well, except myself, but (as Jack might say) "When all the rest are going to the sun, I am going to the moon."

Hermosillo is the center and main business point for the best part of Arizona. The central and the stock interest there are many large business houses well stocked with foreign and domestic goods, and considering the excessive duties on foreign goods, the prices here are certainly very near as cheap as anywhere in Arizona, and the article product is much cheaper.
