

THE TERRITORIES.

During the approaching session of congress, says the Denver Republican, a strong effort should be made to secure the admission of New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma.

Oklahoma is new, and therefore, it has less reason than the others to complain of delays that have occurred in its attempt to secure admission.

The Pope are shirking for a national convention which they want held in Atlanta, Feb. 21, 1896. As a party the pope have flitted madly with every proposition that promised them bode or hope.

The A. P. A. in session in St. Louis, Mo. have resolved to advise the members of the order not to vote for the nomination of office of any man who will not support the following principles:

Reduction of immigration; to debar all undesirable persons; extension of time for naturalization; and educational qualifications for suffrage; the maintenance of a general non-sectarian free public school system; no public funds or public property for sectarian purposes; taxation of all property not owned and controlled by the public; the opening to public official inspection of all private schools, convents, monasteries, hospitals and all institutions of an educational and reformatory character; no support given for any public position to any person who recognizes private or sectarian affairs to any foreign or ecclesiastical power; public lands for actual settlement by American citizens only.

RETRACTION OF A LIE.

The editor of the Albuquerque Citizen who "pulled off" a couple of stickstaf of libelous matter on Judge Smith of the New Mexican supreme court, has made the amendment honorable by admitting the error.

But in the east a spirit of opposition has arisen in the case of New Mexico and Arizona on the plea that the admission of those territories would throw too much power to the west in the national legislature.

The Arkansas militia are on the move in the direction of Hot Springs. If Governor Clark can devise a scheme by which the lower jaws of the contending pug dogs could be dislocated he would be considered a public benefactor instead of a chump.

HALAR SCRIBLER the sheep herder who swiped a Messiahship, is a drawing card in Denver and every sore thumbed saint is deeply stirred to be in fellowship with him.

EDITOR HOOPER, of the Albuquerque Citizen, ran jam up against a court and is now laid up for repairs.

Men seeking employment are advised to keep away from Globe for the present as there are already more men at that place than can possibly get anything to do.

FROM OLD TURKEY will shortly be dismembered. Under one pretext or another she will have to go. Already the fleets of England and Russia are dangerously near and although contending forces may struggle in the Dardanelles the end will be the same.

THE NOGALES INJUNCTION which has caused more heart burning and bickering in the line than any thing else since the burg took root in that favored spot.

OSBERT, we are gravely informed by telegraph, is disgraced. Corbett is rather late in a field that has been occupied by the public for many moons.

CORBETT and FITZSIMMONS have agreed on Steve Brodie for referee, but Steve is out of a job, and no prospects before him.

ARKANSAS PASS.

Francis J. Heney, ex-attorney-general of Arizona returned from Arkansas Pass on Tuesday night, and our reporter found him very busy closing up the tail ends of his law business in this territory.

"I found the outlook there so bright," said General Heney, "that I invested more than fifty thousand dollars for myself and a few immediate friends, and I expect to return there before the last day of November. I shall make a flying trip to San Francisco in the meantime to raise capital in a magnificent project I have on hand at Arkansas Pass.

"I attended the Deep Water convention at Topeka, Kansas, as a delegate from California," said General Heney, "and it was the first day of men, from an intellectual stand point, that I have ever seen assembled. It was presided over by Senator Vest of Missouri.

INJUNCTION DISSOLVED.

Judge Botham Finds in Favor of the Nogales Town Officials and Removes the Injunction.

In the District Court 1st Judicial District of Arizona, Territory. Jossan Pacheco et al. vs. FREDERICK HERRERA, et al.

Motion to Dissolve Injunction. The complaint in this action alleges that the defendants are assuming to act as the common council of the town of Nogales averring that use of the defendants are disqualified from acting as such councilmen because no one of them is or was at the time of his election a freeholder within said town as provided by the act of the legislature approved April 12th, 1893.

JAPAN DON'T WANT CORA.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Minister Kurino of Japan, said today that Japan had no purpose whatever in establishing a protectorate over Cora.

A Double Haunting. SAN QUENTIN, Oct. 18.—Hansen and Thomas St. Clair were hanged at two o'clock this afternoon, for the murder of Maurice Fitzgerald on the bark Hesper.

Cruisers Christened. NEWPORT, Oct. 19.—Two new gunboats for the United States navy were christened here today. They were christened "Nashville" and "Wilmington." In honor of these cities in Tennessee and Delaware.

The Mutual Market. NEW YORK, Oct. 19. Silver bars, 67.15 Mexican dollars, 55 1/2 6/16. "While down in the southwestern part of the state some time ago," says Mr. W. Chalmers, editor of the Chio, Cal. Enterprise, "I had a attack of dysentery. Having heard of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I bought a bottle. A couple of doses of it completely cured me. Now I am a champion of this remedy for all stomach and bowel complaints." For sale by Fred Fleischman.

Mena Business. The Southern Pacific has made a short cut in its rates to Nogales. Formerly the fare between Tucson and that point was considered high and travel between the two towns was confined largely to the stages. Now, however, the great reduction in the rate has attracted much of the trade of the railroad. The rate, after war has been reduced to 35 cents for the fixed rate. Travelers will bear this in mind.

Plaintiffs say in their complaint that they have no other remedy than by injunction, but they also state in the same complaint that two suits for the violation of these ordinances are now pending in the district court against one of the defendants.

It is not pretended that any remedy to which the parties to these suits are entitled will not be accorded them and the value of the suits is not in question. It is not pretended that any remedy to which the parties to these suits are entitled will not be accorded them and the value of the suits is not in question.

It is a well established principle that municipal officers will not be enjoined from collecting fees imposed for the violation of a municipal ordinance until the validity of the ordinance shall have been determined by the courts at law. An injunction will not be granted in any case to prevent a prosecution either of a criminal or quasi criminal nature. High on Injunctions No. 124.

THE PRESENT GENERATION. Lives at telegraphic speed—eats too fast, retires too late, does not use its teeth, and is full of ailments. (Ails, that we should have to say it) chews too much tobacco. The consequences are dyspepsia, a general absence of that robust and manly vigor which characterized our ancestors, and a manifold proneness to early decay.

Mr. J. K. Fowler, secretary and treasurer of the Corinne, Mill, Canal & Stock Company of Corinne, Utah, is speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying: "I consider it the best in the market. I have used many kinds but find Chamberlain's the most prompt and effective in giving relief, and now keep no other cough or cold cure than this remedy a trial and we assure you that you will be more than pleased with the result. For sale by Fred Fleischman druggist."

HOT SPRINGS.

A Big Legal Battle Promised Over the Pug Fiasco.

AN OHIO LEGISLATOR Offers his Vote for Sale.—A Son of J. W. Mackey Killed.—Big Sale of Anaconda Copper Stock.

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 19.—The attorney general will lend a hand to prosecuting Attorney Teague vs. Corbett's trial this afternoon. Col. George W. Murphy, a celebrated criminal lawyer will be associated with W. P. Martins and C. H. Graves for the defense. A formidable legal battle is promised. The date for the fight will doubtless be postponed. A telegram was sent to Fitzsimmons saying that if he was not in this place Monday, the contest would be declared off.

GREENVILLE, O., Oct. 19.—Representative U. W. Hofer today acknowledged writing a letter soliciting a bribe of $1,500 for his vote. Hofer has been prominent in the ministry of the Christian church 25 years.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The first intimation of an accident which resulted in the death of John W. Mackey, Jr. was received here by Mr. Mackey's private secretary. It was a telegram from Clarence Mackey, in which he said John was thrown from a horse yesterday and seriously hurt. The doctors had pronounced the case hopeless. Clarence begged the secretary to prepare his father for the worst. Mackey died last night.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 19.—A special to Wisconsin from Hancock, Mich., says that the bodies of Eric Kramer and wife, aged people, were found in the cellar of their house at West Hancock this morning with their throats cut from ear to ear. The old couple were commonly believed to have kept large sums of money secreted about the house.

There is a grand program at the opera house tonight. Don't miss it.

There is one medicine which every family should be provided with. We refer to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. When it is kept at hand the severe pain of a burn or scald may be promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one third the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate attention, before the parts become swollen, and when Chamberlain's Pain Balm is applied it will heal them without matter being formed, and without leaving a scar. A sore throat may be cured in one night. A sprain of the hand or wrist, when treated with this balm, will cure lame back or pain in the side or chest in twenty-four hours. It is the most valuable, however, for rheumatism. Persons afflicted with this disease will be delighted with the prompt relief from pain which it affords, and it can be depended upon to effect a complete cure. For sale by Fred Fleischman, druggist.

HOT SPRINGS, Oct. 18.—Governor Clark and his subordinates of the state militia and the local judiciary and the promoters of the proposed Corbett-Fitzsimmons mill are at sixes and sevens still, and all sorts of reports are afloat. However, nothing of a definite nature is known. The men who are planning the mill still assert that they will be able to bring it off on schedule time, claiming that under their revised articles there is nothing in the state laws to prevent a meeting of the pugilists. A majority of the citizens of Hot Springs believe, too, that the fight will be pulled off.

THE EVENING NEWS says it is warranted by its own authority that, while asserting that he would tolerate no organized plan to violate the laws of the state he does not know the difference legally between a glove contest and a prize fight. The governor expressed a willingness to refer the whole question to the local authorities for determination and abide by their action. In the event that Judge Duffie concludes no violation warranting interference is intended, the governor, the News says, would be satisfied.

Notwithstanding these assertions the element which is opposing the fight still relies upon Governor Clark to make good his declaration at the proper time. A warrant against Corbett was issued from Justice Kirk's court today and it charges Corbett has threatened, is conspiring and is about to commit an unlawful assault upon the person of one Bob Fitzsimmons. Sheriff Houpst served the warrant. The warrant was issued at the instance of Prosecuting Attorney Teague. The local authorities at the time the sheriff and the prosecuting attorney asked that he be put under bonds to appear in court. Judge Kirk made the order as asked, placing the bond at $10,000. Corbett refused to give bonds and his attorneys, Martin and Greaves, will sue out a writ of habeas corpus asking his release. This will bring the question up for judicial hearing as to whether a glove contest, such as is now proposed, will be a violation of the state statutes.

Skis grasped the bar, arranged her skin. With dainty little tucks and frills: Pooped on the saddle, felt the tread: Of pedal, and I'm off, she said. A whirl of wheels, a swerve and away, And from the roadbed where she lay, She realized in full degree, The bliss of her prophesy.

Oh Yes! We keep Park's Cough Syrup and we tell everyone it is the best cough cure we sold. Everybody likes it and we sell it as well as you. Try it for your child. Sold by Fred Fleischman druggist.

Four roysterers in an inn were playing whist. When all at once an argument arose. Annet the dealer, and each disputant's wit. Was wildly shaken at his neighbor's nose. The fierce hostilities seemed like to cease. In bruises, wounds, phlebotomies and slaughter. Until the landlord hushed the storm to peace. By pouring Hoyle upon the troubled waters!

Later-Day Whys. In those century-end days, when everybody seems to be wholly absorbed in making his or her neighbor live up to higher ideals, it seems fitting to call attention to some matters which, though they lack the imperiousness of capital suffrage or cycling as a proper recreation for women, are nevertheless disturbing factors in the problem of the perfected life. For instance, why will men carry half-smoked, burning cigars into "l" trains and cable cars, and why don't conductors stop it? Why will women always ask the elevator boy to wait and then remember that they don't want to use it at all? Why will a man bore his friends with stories of his wife and babies instead of going home to them? Why will a woman always wait until she gets just in front of a ticket window before she tries to find her pocket-book? Why will a man take fifteen minutes to tell you a story and then admit that he "can't tell it"? Why will women try to ape men and then scorn any man who acts as they do?—N. Y. Recorder.
