

HOW TO IMPROVE OUR CURRENCY.

There is but one way to improve our currency, and that is by reducing the amount of the circulating medium. No man who is acquainted with the financial condition of the country and the resources of the Confederate States, doubts our ability to pay, sooner or later, the whole of our national debt, although it may become much greater than it now is.

Confederate money would be strengthened and the circulating medium reduced. This would reduce the price of articles of necessity and would enable the families of soldiers to live more comfortably.

INTERVENTION.

We republish this morning from the columns of the New York Express—a paper, which has many claims to consideration as an universally bold and generally reliable organ of popular sentiment and medium of public intelligence.

That information of an undoubted character has been received in New York, from semi-official circles in London and Paris, to the effect that Lord Lyons was to have sailed for New York in the Australasian, but was detained by Lord John Russell to await further instructions.

Some suggestions have ascribed the whole of this story to the category of electioneering clap-trap. Granting it to be true, we can not believe in it so much cause for congratulation, as seems to animate one or two of our Richmond contemporaries.

We give place to a communication from our fair correspondent "Ada," defending General Bragg against the attack of the Mobile Tribune, which appeared in the Reuzer of the 2nd inst.

The same argument would apply to tanners, shoemakers, owners of factories, stock raisers, and every other species of labor and capital. There never has been a time when men who make any thing could realize larger profits than they are now doing.

By increasing the taxes the confidence in the Government will be restored.

CAN SUCH THINGS BE?

The following paragraph, taken from the Atlanta Intelligencer, has been going the rounds of the press of late.

I hope I shall never again witness such wholesale robbery as that of which our army was guilty while returning from Harpersburg to the Gap. I blush to record such enormities.

Here we have a wholesale charge of robbery against the entire army. No special division, brigade, regiment or battalion is mentioned.

A serious charge this. If true it is well calculated to bring a blush to the cheek of every honest lover of his country.

No man has a right to speak lightly upon such a subject, involving the honor and integrity of our soldiery.

The latest advice, per grape-vine, from Richmond, reports no improvement in the moral breach of that unmanly, unchristian, and unpolitic vermin.

Under the action of the infamous confiscation act, the provost marshal had already held some sale of very valuable property.

The elegant written and touching appeal "by a lady of Virginia," will attract much attention. To the ladies it will be particularly interesting.

Mexico.—The latest from Mexico is to the effect that Gen. Forey arrived in Vera Cruz on September 23d, and will shortly retrace the French Minister's flight.

At St. Louis on the 27th, the steamers H. D. Bacon, McGill, A. McWhorter, Estelle, and W. H. Russell, together with their cargoes, were totally destroyed by fire.

The Grand Jury of Louisville, Ky., has indicted Gen. Jeff. C. Davis for manslaughter, in killing Gen. Nelson.

BY GRAPE-VINE AND OTHERWISE.

ON BITS OF THE DAY.

CHATTANOOGA.—Tuesday Evening, 8 P. M. Pleasant autumn weather now illuminates every object over hill and dale.

Between the two they have plenty to do. Keeping the country in a fever.

These two evils have been over to London and Paris of late, and being both pretty extensive intelligence therefrom concerning the recognition of the Confederate States.

John Morgan has been at his old tricks again, whilst perambulating over the railroad track in the region of Bowling Green.

The latest advice, per grape-vine, from Richmond, reports no improvement in the moral breach of that unmanly, unchristian, and unpolitic vermin.

It is a Washington rumor, prisoner of State, away up among the freethings of Michigan, was recently offered a parole and return to his home, upon heavy bonds.

So Commodore Barry has gone to Europe and General Braxton Bragg has resumed command at Knoxville.
