

THE DAILY REBEL

Published every day except on Sundays and public holidays...

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 20, 1863.

THE SITUATION.

For three days the streets of Chattanooga have echoed with rumors of a somewhat startling character from the front.

The movements of Rosecrans are watched with great interest; and, as is usual when the public mind is directed in a particular direction, speculation concerning the probable often takes the place of positive assertion, and manufactures facts, where no exist.

Much comment is made in the Northern journals on the speculation mania, which controls the money market.

The gambler in gold which is so regrettably reported from Wall street by telegraph is the only kind of gambling where the stakes are not put up.

is valuable, and the broker runs his chances of being able to buy the gold before the time appointed, at a less price than that which he sold it.

This sort of business is beginning to be found out; and now that the press has taken up the cudgel, Wall street is in a prodigious stew.

The correspondents of this journal are multitudinous. They come in every conceivable shape, wicked and charitable.

Col. Clark's regiment we are informed by parties just through from Kentucky, has been doing a deal of mischief to the enemy in the region of Lexington, and along the lines of travel throughout the blue grass region.

The party mentioned being a friend of ours, we refuse to snub him. But no more of this. It wearies us, and can only amuse the better temper of our readers.

Mr. Harrow, late of the National Hotel in Louisville, was arrested in Nashville a short time ago, on the charge of attempting to smuggle medicines South.

THE SOUTHERN STATES.

From the freshest of our Exchanges we get the following glimpses of "the situation," in various portions of the Confederacy:

ALL QUIET in the "old Dominion." The veterans of the Potomac, leaning on their blood-stained sabres, seem to take a breathing spell, as turning their eyes westward, they watch elsewhere the coming of momentous events.

Gen. Beauregard, as previously announced, reviewed the Citadel Cadet corps, in Charleston, on Saturday, at the Green.

He complimented the officers very highly, and said from what he saw of the efficiency of the evolutions, he was assured that if the enemy should attack the city, as now threatened, that the corps would do honor to itself and its officers.

The Courier, Charleston, of the 16th says:—A Monitor iron-clad, supposed to be the Kookuk, passed the bar Saturday morning, in tow of a steamer, bound Southward.

From our North Carolina exchanges we learn that two transports passed the Cape Fear Bar, on Thursday last, crowded with troops, who could be plainly seen by the aid of a glass we suppose.

The Savannah papers of Wednesday have nothing in reference to Federal demonstrations in front of that city.

The Federal forces at Jacksonville is estimated at 1,400 black troops, with white officers. In the engagement on the 10th we lost Dr. Meredith and three horses.

Our Mobile exchanges failed to come to hand yesterday. Gen. Buckner has issued an order which authorizes all shipment of articles intended for family use.

The Nashville Union of the 4th, says: Felix Young, who murdered a Federal soldier in cold blood a few weeks ago, on the White's Creek Pike, some eight miles from the city, was arrested on Monday by some of our cavalry, and brought to the city.

There are at present one hundred and sixty Confederate prisoners confined in the Military Prison in Louisville.

The Vicksburg Whig of the 13th says:—The number of transports at the Yankee landing was smaller than at any other time since the arrival of the fleet.

The Federal gunboat Gray Cloud was recently repulsed by a small number of our infantry at Butte a la Rose, on Grand river, where the Atcha always empties into the aforementioned river.

In the late raid of the federals into Batesville, they robbed all, friend, foe and neutral alike. They took their horses into the houses, led them out of bureau drawers and committed other like excesses.

Another strong reason for a force being sent to disperse these bandits and drive off the federals, is that they are enrolling the militia and making them commit themselves to their side.

The Harriet Lane is reported at Houston, undergoing repairs, and will not be ready for sea for some time yet.

The Message of the Governor of Texas is a very lengthy document, and reviews all public matters connected with the interests of the State.

A number of Union-Abolition women of Newport, Ky., have petitioned "old Abe" to suppress the publication of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Two negroes who were captured at Arkansas Post, and made their escape from Memphis, recently arrived at Hempstead, Texas.

The editor of the Macon Telegraph says he took a new fit of the blues, the other day. So did Van Dorn at Spring Hill—not only a fit of them, but an out-fit, and gave "the Blues" a fit into the bargain.

The Sumpter Tri-Weekly Watchman truthfully and poetically remarks that—"Men have shed their blood in vain unless the farmers raise more grain."

Large numbers of Confederate prisoners sick and wounded, passed through Louisville on the 2d to Camp Morton.

Administrator's Insolvent Notice. In accordance with an order made by the Clerk of the County Court of Lawrence county, State of Tennessee, upon the application of the estate of W. P. Moore, deceased, I hereby notify all persons having claims against said estate, to appear and file the same with said Clerk, authorized in the manner prescribed by law, on or before the 15th day of July, 1863, or they will be forever barred.

LOST. TWO negro boys, one named Bony, having a pass and money, the other named George. The above boys were placed in my care to conduct home, George to the plantation of William Johnson, Bony to Mr. Peasley's plantation on Santee River.

RECEIVER'S OFFICE WINCHESTER. NOTICE is hereby given, that by virtue of sundry decrees of the Hon. W. R. $50 REWARD. STRAYED or stolen, on the 5th of March, a Claybank Mare, 7 years old, 16 1/2 hands high, heavy with foal, small saddle mark on her back, looks like a black horse. I will pay the above reward on the delivery of said mare to Col. R. M. Paris, at Hobbie, Dale county Georgia, or to me in the 4th Arkansas regiment, McNaught's Brigade, McCown's Division, Army of Tennessee. NEWTON C. PERKINS.

WANTED. OR Charge Cooking Stoves. Apply to R. D. GRIBBLE, Capt. & A. Q. M.

$100 REWARD. RUNAWAY from the premises of the subscriber, at Walnut Valley Post Office, Sequatchie Co., Tennessee, on the night of the 26th of January, 1863, a negro boy named Dave, about 18 or 19 years old, 5 feet 8 or 6 inches high, weighs about 125 pounds. He is a black negro, rather sharp faced, long mouth, thick lips. He says he was raised in Kentucky, by a man named Fisher. But was bought by me about 7 months since in Hamburg, South Carolina. He says he was brought from Petersburg, Va., to Hamburg. Had on a black frock coat, a pair of blue pants, a white shirt and black cloth cap—his coat had on it, white bone coat buttons, and the cloth out of which his coat was made had two colors in it, a part of it being a darker color than the other. I will pay $100 reward for his delivery to me, at my residence, in Sequatchie Co., Tennessee; or $50 reward for his confinement in any jail, so that I can get him. JAMES M. STEWART.

Henry was brought from Petersburg, Va., in December last, and may attempt to make his way back. He has a brother living in Augusta, Ga., and may be lurking around that city. Will pay the reward of Fifty Dollars for his confinement in any jail so that I may get him. J. G. W. MILLS, Atlanta, Ga.

HARBORING DESERTERS. HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT NO. 3, Inspector General's Office, Tallahassee, Tenn. Feb. 11th 1863. THE General Commanding this Department, learns with regret, that there are in Tennessee, a number of well disposed persons who, instead of contributing to the freeing of our country from a baneful invasion, are inciting those who are, to the disgraceful crime of desertion and harboring them. All persons within the limit of this department, are notified that the penalty of such offenses is DEATH, and the strictest efforts will be made to detect those who induce soldiers to desert, or who may harbor those who have deserted, and summary punishment applied in every instance. J. P. JONES, A. I. Genl.
