

MAINE, Friday, May 12.—We have had an exceptionally high tide in the harbor, and the water is so high that it is not possible to get the boats out of the harbor. The water is so high that it is not possible to get the boats out of the harbor. The water is so high that it is not possible to get the boats out of the harbor.

DAILY CRESCENT

PUBLISHED EVERY DAY—SUNDAYS EXCEPTED—

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 5, 1848.

Latest from Europe.

By a slip from the office of the Memphis Enquirer, we have received the following very important telegraphic dispatch:

The news from France may be regarded by some of a sinister import. We look upon it in a different light. The remembrance of mob power in the days of the old revolution must sooner or later have prompted the attempt to overawe the Convention—we were fearful, and have so expressed ourselves, that while the Convention sat in Paris, such attempts might be successful. But the early date of this, and its prompt suppression by the popular force, is but another assurance that the days of mob power has passed, and of regulated and orderly Government superseded.

FOREIGN NEWS.
The United States arrived at New York to-day—four days later than from Europe. Cotton—low grades had receded.

PARIS, May 10.—The people have seized on the National Assembly and forced it to dissolve itself. The National Assembly has been dissolved. The National Assembly has been dissolved. The National Assembly has been dissolved.

FOREIGN NEWS.
We give in another column a condensed report of the news received by the Hibernian. It would be looked upon as very important at any other time; but in these stirring times an Austrian and Italian war; a war between Denmark and Hanover and Prussia; the blockade of the German and particularly of the free-ports of Hamburg, Bremen and Lubec; an insurrection or revolution in Russia; Poland; an insurrection and almost total anarchy in Hungary; the preparatory armaments of the French coast, and the march of large armies to the Rhine, are looked on pretty much as matters of course, and are considered only important as indicative of greater coming events.

FOREIGN NEWS.
The debates under the plan of the insurrectionists to have three objects in view. First.—The destruction of the present Government. Second.—The removal of the Federation, and reestablishment of the original basis of 1843, or a DICTATORSHIP. Third.—To place Sr. D. Cayetano Portugal, for the present, at the head of the Government.

FOREIGN NEWS.
It is added that Paredes, in conjunction with Santa Anna and two other Generals, is at the head of the pronunciamento. The debates seem to have forgotten that Santa Anna is in Jamaica, and not Aguascalientes—yet we have no doubt that his name was used by the insurgents, and that his partisans are concerned with them.

FOREIGN NEWS.
A correspondent of the Monitor alludes to the revolution in a very contemptuous manner, as will be seen by the following extract from his letter:

QUERETARO, Saturday, May 20th.—I think the news of yesterday will have reached you at five in the afternoon. I am told that the Government Express left very late, and will reach your city by dawn on Sunday, to invite the Commissioners to report on the Treaty.

FOREIGN NEWS.
Laucauz, of the committee, took the Treaty to the Senate to-day, who immediately referred it to the Committee of Relations. They will present their report on Monday, since they are already at work upon it, and I understand that D. Fernando Ramirez has been appointed to draw up the Treaty.

FOREIGN NEWS.
The Puro is circulating a rumor to-day of a pronunciamento in Aguascalientes, by a certain Zavala, who has been commendant there, and who was ordered to give up the command to Artega, which he declined doing.

FOREIGN NEWS.
The treaty of peace between the United States and Mexico, has been finally ratified. The final vote was taken on the 24th of May, in the Mexican Senate, and it concurred by a large majority in the vote previously given by the House of Representatives.

FOREIGN NEWS.
It is probable that by this time Generals Patterson and Smith have arrived at Vera Cruz, where they are to superintend the embarkation of the troops.

FOREIGN NEWS.
We are informed that Lieut. Col. Biscoe and Capt. White are about to tender their services to the Government of Yucatan, offering at the same time to raise troops for the assistance of the country that ill-fated country.

FOREIGN NEWS.
We are confident that these gallant officers will render the most efficient services in whatever they may undertake; and the Maya will find some difference between fighting Americans and contending with the cowardly Yucatecs.

FOREIGN NEWS.
THANKS.—The officers of that fine flat boat, the Missouri, have placed us under obligations for very late papers.

FOREIGN NEWS.
FOR VERA CRUZ.—The U. S. steamer Edith will leave this morning for Vera Cruz, with Government stores and the following passengers: Domingo del Pozo, Antonio Castanon, J. C. Gonzales and Wm. A. Mix.

FOREIGN NEWS.
QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT.—The following vessels are now under orders for Vera Cruz, and will rapidly follow the Edith, viz: The U. S. steamer Virginia, Capt. Spinney; U. S. steamer Albatross, Capt. M. Baker; U. S. steamer Massachusetts, Capt. Wood; the propeller Col. Stanton, Capt. Dellaway; and the U. S. steamship McKim, Capt. Breath, and the A. R. Hettzel, Capt. Wells. We learn that Major Tompkins, Q. M. U. S. A. of this city, with his usual promptness is pushing forward transportation for the army now on its route from Mexico. The steamer Palmetto was yesterday chartered by him to proceed direct from Galveston to Vera Cruz, and all the U. S. sail transports will be immediately ordered to be ready for the different points at which the army may embark.

FOREIGN NEWS.
The steamship Palmetto, Capt. Smith, chartered by Government, for two months, leaves this morning for Galveston, and to proceed immediately for Vera Cruz.

FOREIGN NEWS.
Gen. Townson and Col. Belknap, of the Court of Inquiry, arrived in New York on the 25th.

Late and Important Mexican News.

Ratification of the Treaty—Letters from Chaparral—Gen. Smith's Departure for the Coast—Movement of the Army.

By the arrival of the U. S. steamships Virginia and A. R. Hettzel, we are placed in possession of our files of papers from the City of Mexico to the 23d, from the 23d to the 20th, and from Vera Cruz to the 28th.

A letter from Maj. Gen. Butler to Gen. Brooke, dated the evening of the 26th, at 6 o'clock, P. M., states that the treaty had been ratified by the Senate by a vote of 33 to 4, and that in all probability the exchange of ratifications would take place the following day. Gen. Butler also requests Gen. Brooke to have transportation provided for 27,000 men, who would be on the coast in twenty days. The movement of the army from the interior would commence in a week.

Just previous to the departure of the A. R. Hettzel, the British Courier arrived at Vera Cruz from Queretaro, bringing news of the ratification of the treaty by the Senate. Major Graham was hourly expected at Vera Cruz with dispatches for our government, containing the ratifications by the Mexican government.

So confident, at the last accounts from Queretaro, was the administration of the final passage of the treaty through the Chamber of Deputies, they despatched an express to the City of Mexico, inviting our Commissioners immediately to the seat of Government. On the 22d, Messrs. Clifford and Sevier left Mexico for the Capital. The Star of the 22d, says:

Departure of the Commissioners.—Messrs. Clifford and Sevier left here yesterday for Queretaro, escorted by 60 or 70 men of the 3d Dragoons. This looks as if we should soon have a peace, and we opine that our Commissioners have not a doubt of it. They will be four or five days in going up, and in the probability, will find the treaty ratified by the Senate, when they arrive. If this be the case, their business in Queretaro will be soon ended.

Aguascalientes.—According to the Debates, this State has been the scene of another attempt at revolution, which it does not seem well suppressed with quite so much facility as the abortive insurrection in San Luis Potosi. The latter State, and also Guadalupe, are said also to be concerned in this movement. Aguascalientes is one of the strongest Puro States in the Mexican confederacy.

San Luis Potosi.—This State was originally a part of Zacatecas; but not liking to be subjected to restraint, and feeling the spirit of independence strong within her, she determined to set up for herself. She was accordingly admitted, or rather forced herself into the Union, as a separate State, and Zacatecas, after many ineffectual efforts to recover control over her, was obliged to concede the point. The case is somewhat similar to that of Vermont and New York.

San Luis Potosi.—In this recent revolution, the coalition which we sometimes see predicted would take place, has actually occurred. We mean that between the ultra Puro or Democrats, the Monarchists and the Santanistas or Centralists. This is a combination of the discontented and disaffected of each of the parties of the Republic, whether they will be able to effect anything remains to be seen.

Los Debates understands the plan of the insurrectionists to have three objects in view. First.—The destruction of the present Government. Second.—The removal of the Federation, and reestablishment of the original basis of 1843, or a DICTATORSHIP. Third.—To place Sr. D. Cayetano Portugal, for the present, at the head of the Government.

Los Debates seems to have forgotten that Santa Anna is in Jamaica, and not Aguascalientes—yet we have no doubt that his name was used by the insurgents, and that his partisans are concerned with them.

Los Debates alludes to the revolution in a very contemptuous manner, as will be seen by the following extract from his letter:

QUERETARO, Saturday, May 20th.—I think the news of yesterday will have reached you at five in the afternoon. I am told that the Government Express left very late, and will reach your city by dawn on Sunday, to invite the Commissioners to report on the Treaty.

The Queretaro Progresso is as violent as ever against the treaty, and quotes the Message of Pena y Pena to show that the people are even now prepared for a general rising in favor of the prosecution of the war.

The Regulator of Altilio says that Senor Mungia, Governor of Puebla, had sent out an expedition against the robbers who infest that State. Three of the most notorious highwaymen of the country were captured. The Monitor Republicano says that Mackintosh, the British agent, is one of the proprietors of the new paper just commenced in the city of Mexico, called "El Espiritu del Siglo."

The same paper (the Monitor) says that it has information that in the interior States there is a plan in agitation to overthrow the Government as soon as our troops are withdrawn.

"Important glory (says the Monitor) to the valiant supporters of the war. They wait for the enemy to leave our shores before chastising the Government for not continuing the war. And what punishment do those men who did not fight when they had an opportunity? Who, when the enemy reposes tranquilly in our midst content themselves with crying out for war, but reserve their actions for a time when there will be no foe to combat. Then that intrepid cavalry, those legions of the South, who constantly hovered on the flanks of the American army, serving only to bring news of their advance, or with their arms crossed in the States of the interior, awaiting a better occasion, then they will display their valor." This is rather severe on the valiant Mexican army, and particularly so on Alvarez and Canizales.

The Eco del Comercio says that the arms (rifles, muskets, &c.) were distributed among the people during the advance of the American army, are mostly in the hands of robbers and other evil-doers. The Eco recommends that prompt measures be taken—with the assistance of the American authorities—to reclaim them.

El Observador of Oajaca appeals to the humane inhabitants of that State to furnish immediate aid to Yucatan. The same paper is opposed to the treaty.

Chiapas.—In this State—the most southerly one of Mexico—there was some time since an insurrection, in the course of which the Governor of the State, D. Geronimo Cardona, was seized and imprisoned. We learn that tranquillity has again been restored, the insurgents dispersed, and the Governor released.

Guatemala.—Guatemala papers say that the revolt of the insurgents in the mountains and in the departments of Guatemala and Mita, still continues; but that the government has taken energetic measures to repress them. A decree had been issued, declaring that any person who should directly or indirectly assist the revolutionists, would be considered as if taken in arms, and without the pale of the law. The Commandant General of Vera Paz had, on the 4th of April, routed a large body of the insurgents at Santa Barbara.

The Monitor tells an absurd story of some American soldiers having fried and eaten a Mexican woman, and appeals to the Star for information upon the subject. The editor of that paper says, that not knowing the circumstance he feels unable to give the desired information. He always knew that the Americans were very partial to the Mexican women; but he never heard of their taking them fried.

Shot.—On the evening of the 17th, a man calling himself Sloan, who at one time had been wagon-master in the army, rode up at full speed against the quarters of Col. Miles, in Tacubaya, and begged to be helped to draw up. He was wounded. He was immediately assisted down, and placed in the hospital, when he stated that he had been attacked by five men on the Toluca road, and severely wounded by them. Two of them caught the bridle of his horse, and a third shot him, the ball entering the groin and passing upward. His horse then broke loose, and brought him into Tacubaya. He died on the 19th.

Mexican Troops at Guadalupe.—The Monitor says it learns from Queretaro, that the Government has given orders to have three thousand troops of the line posted in the village of Guadalupe, who shall enter and guard this capital the moment the Americans leave it. If this be so, it affords tolerable good evidence that the Government is calculating strongly upon peace. If Santa Anna were at the head of the Government, we should be apt to look with suspicion upon the removal of troops so near the capital.

By the following order, it will be seen that Gen. Kearny has been appointed civil and military Governor of Mexico, in place of Gen. Smith, who is to superintend the embarkation of the troops at Vera Cruz.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF MEXICO.
