

SECOND MUNICIPALITY COUNCIL. A small number of the members of this Council met last evening, and after waiting about an hour, were obliged to adjourn for want of a quorum.

FREE SOIL MEETING IN LAFAYETTE.—A Free Soil Meeting was held last evening at the Court Exchange, and was called to order by Thomas Mackey, who in a very brief manner stated the objects of the meeting, which, he said, were the adoption of the Free Soil Resolutions, and the election of Martin Van Buren to the Presidency.

The following gentlemen were nominated as officers of the meeting: President, Henry A. Sample; Vice President, Wm. Slatham; Secretary, Simon Vaughn.

Mr. Mackey then read the resolutions adopted at the Free Soil Convention, but they were not adopted—reason why, the meeting entertained a "single idea" that they were not suited to this climate.

After considerable laughter, stamping, hoisting and shouting, the meeting adjourned to Saturday night next, to meet at the corner of Levee and Harmony streets.

MOVEMENTS OF DISTINGUISHED INDIVIDUALS. The man with the monkey and the red jacket, who formerly ground the organ in Carondelet street, has gone on a tour through the lower part of the town, and at last accounts, was discoursing eloquent nonsense to admiring audiences, in the back part of the Third Municipality. John Smith, the razor-shop man, is all over; the "rat-man" was last seen going down Royal street, on a tour through the North-west. He will return by the way of Rampart street, and fit his head-quarters near Lafayette square. George Washington Dixon holds forth at the corner of St. Charles and Poydras streets, from which place he issues a pronouncement at 6 o'clock each morning, and exhorts the "Pioneers of Liberty" to hold themselves in readiness to march across the Gulf of Mexico at 3 in the afternoon.

AN INDISCREET GUARDIAN.—Sergeant Carl, of the Second Municipality night watch, last night reported watchman No. 84, drunk on his beat, and unfit for duty. No. 84 was yesterday morning suspended.

TAKEN IN AND DONE FOR.—John Cull last night got gloriously tight and was kindly received into the fold of Mrs. Thompson, where he took up lodgings for the night. When John retired to rest he did not forget his cash, and as a precautionary measure placed his pile, amounting to $7, under his pillow. This, however, proved of no avail, for John awoke in the night, looked under his money bag, and to his great surprise found it was there.

He proceeded to kick up the greatest kind of a row, which ended in his being walked out of a second house, together with John Trinder and Ann Dugherly, whom he accused of the robbery. The victim yesterday morning made a "davy" before Recorder Genois against the two last mentioned persons, and they were committed for examination.

ROBBERY.—Charles A. Vandine was yesterday morning brought before Recorder Genois, charged with having robbed Patrick Conley of $30. Vandine was arrested about 10 o'clock on Monday night in Perdido street, when the robbery was committed. Charles N. Emerson was arrested yesterday morning, charged with having been concerned with Vandine in relieving Conley of his money. The accused were both remanded for future examination.

DISCHARGED.—Watchman James Drummond was yesterday discharged by Recorder Genois. Drummond was charged before the Police Committee with having given to a man's yard, late at night, and having a poisoned sausage to a valuable dog. This abuse of the system of killing dogs by means of being tipped against it as the greatest objection that could be brought, and the evidence being strong against Drummond, he was made an example of.

DISCHARGED.—Peter Wilson, charged by N. B. Hill with a breach of trust, was yesterday examined by Recorder Genois and released. Hill charged Wilson with having kept a soldier's discharge which was left in his possession.

ROBBERY A HINX ROOST.—Vincent Motterne, who resides on the Bayou St. John, yesterday made affidavit before Recorder Genois, that he has on several occasions of late been robbed of chickens by the dozen, and that about 10 o'clock on Monday night, he discovered two men named Ferry and Goodie prowling about his premises, looking very much as though they intended to make a descent on his hen house. He was not able to arrest them at the time, but on his statement, a man was sent after them by Recorder Genois.

SENT DOWN.—Charles Medicus and Charles Jaspelin were yesterday returned before the First District Court by Recorder Genois, charged with an affray in the street some time since.

ROBBERY.—Godfrey Patrel and his sister Mlle Patrel, free persons of color, were on Monday night last arrested by Lieut. Van Buren of the Second Municipality police, charged by Christopher Dorbysen with having stolen the sum of $505 from his house in Basin street. The accused were yesterday morning committed by acting Recorder Genois for examination on the 14th inst.

SAVAGE.—William McFarland was yesterday arrested in the First Municipality, at the request of Mr. Jacob Blum, who charges him with having drawn a knife and threatened to do some very savage acts.

ANOTHER PERILY CASE.—A man named John Coleman, who has been brought to the Second Municipality guard-house, by Levi Henshick, who charges him with perjury, and also with attempting to swindle Col. Peck. Making out false soldiers' claims and swearing to them has become a common trade in this Municipality, and Coleman is disturbing the peace. We think that the numerous arrests recently made, had put a damper on this business, but it appears not.

ARRESTED.—Louis Canal was last evening arrested by officer McGovern, of the First Municipality police, charged with having taken a watch and chain from a boy at the corner of Bourbon and St. Louis streets.

THE "HUNTER"—Joseph Stramer, Aaron Taylor and John Smith were yesterday arrested in the Third Municipality, charged with having broken down the door of Madame Gerard's house in Esplanade street, and kicked up a general row. James Carrey was arrested for fighting and disturbing the peace, and resisting an officer in the discharge of his duty.

ROBBERY.—Thomas Cowley yesterday made affidavit before Recorder Senzeuau, charging one Michael Faunin with having robbed him of six ounces of gold on the 14th of July last. A warrant was issued for his arrest, and he was committed to the custody of the Recorder this morning.

BASTARDY ASSAULT.—J. S. C. Gibbons was last evening arrested by officer McDonald, of the Second Municipality police, charged with shamefully beating a small boy named Patrick Reid in front of the Commercial Exchange.

AFFRAY.—Migdon Poire and William Cross, Jr., on Monday last had a regular row at a negro coffee-house in Chartres street, between St. Louis and Toulouse. Initiating the example of the fiery spirit of the day, they drew pistols and banged away a couple of rounds, but were separated by the police.

ARRESTS.—There were thirty-two arrests made by the night watch of the Third Municipality on Monday night last. Fifteen of the individuals hauled up were found sleeping on the Levee, and some five or six others were caught snoozing in Lafayette square. The workhouse yesterday received a supply of recruits that should last it at least a month. Among the number sent down were the notorious William Sales and Moore, Johnson, Wilson and Wood. This gentleman got a ticket for six months.

ASSAULT, ETC.—Jerry McCarty, charged with an assault and battery on John Minnow, was yesterday examined before Acting Recorder Genois, and discharged. John Justice, Patrick Riordan and Robert Beck, charged with assaulting and beating Michael Shen, were also examined and discharged. Patrick Riordan, for assaulting and threatening Jeremiah Griffin, was held to bail to keep the peace. Charles Luddent, charged with assaulting and beating Flora Meyer, and pulling out some of her raven tresses, will be examined on the 14th inst. Daniel, charged with striking John O'Neil, with a sun-bathing iron, was discharged. James Duffy, for beating his wife, was held to bail to keep the peace.

THE LOUISVILLE COURIER HAS THE FOLLOWING CONCERNING THE NEW STEAMSHIP VENEZUELA JUST ARRIVED AT LOUISVILLE ON ITS WAY TO THE ORONOCO RIVER:

"This vessel is in the charge of Capt. E. A. Turpin, and destined for the River Oronoco in Venezuela, South America. She is as strong as wood and iron can make her, and cost $25,000. Her dimensions are as follows: length of keel, 155 feet; extreme length, 175 feet; breadth of beam, 29 feet; depth of hold, 10 feet. She has two engines, each of four large boilers, and will be rigged as a sailing vessel, the masts being on board, but not up yet. The Venezuela was built by the Oronoco Steam Navigation Company of New York. Mr. V. Ellis, late Minister to South America, and President of the Company, goes out in her. The Company expect to realize immense profits from a competitive trade with the Oronoco, from its mouth to Bolivar, late Angostura, is navigable for the largest class of vessels, tide-water extending as far up as that town. From Bolivar to the Apure River, and the town of Nutria, there are no impediments, thus giving uninterrupted navigation of upwards of nine hundred miles."

EXTENSIVE ROBBERY.—Mr. Minnie Mitchell, of White Plains, New York, had his pocket picked of $400, in the cars, just before they arrived at Utica, on the 5th inst.

RIOT ON THE CHESHIRE RAILROAD.—A riot broke out on the Cheshire Railroad, four miles beyond Keene, N. H., on the 21st inst., between two gangs of Irish laborers at work on different sections of the road, the one trying to drive the other off. There were some broken heads and ribs, and bunged eyes, and fire-arms were freely used—but no one was killed. On Thursday morning the Keene Light Infantry were called out, and marching to the scene of disturbance, dispelled the rioters, after one discharge of musketry, which fortunately did no damage. Some ten or twelve of the most active were then arrested and lodged in the Keene jail. The greater part of the combatants, however, found a refuge in the woods.

JAMES McFADDEN was robbed of $1,500 in a boarding house, in Pittsburg, Pa., a few days ago, by a fellow lodger.

NEW ORLEANS MARKETS.

MARKET OFFICE. Tuesday Night, August 13, 1845.

There has been but a moderate business transacted in the general Market since our last, particularly in Cotton. Flour, however, and sugar have been in good demand, though at lower prices, and the sales of Tobacco have been rather scanty.

We are hourly expecting to hear of the steamer Acadia's arrival at Boston. She will bring Liverpool dates to the 20th inst., a week later than with the America.

COTTON.—We left the Cotton market on Friday evening last inactive, though there was some light supply, and was generally quiet in all its operations. On Saturday the market barely held 300 bales, at about former rates. On Sunday the America's letters came to hand, representing the Liverpool market as closing less buoyantly, though without any reduction, the price of cotton having been rather steady at 50 1/2 cents. Our market appears to have undergone no alteration since, and the sales of Monday and today have been 1700 bales, making the business of the last three days only 2000 bales. Our last quotations are fully maintained.
