

THE OVERFLOW—Its Consequences

It is impossible to estimate the injury caused by the flood—expressed in the memory of man. Those parties which have...

Gen. Felix Houston has written a very sensible letter to the Governor, arguing the importance of covering the Legislature. This, he thinks, is rendered necessary by the great destruction caused by the flood.

The complete protection of the alluvial lands is a subject which comes home to the citizens of New Orleans almost as much as to the planters; for, on the crops of these fertile lands depends, in a great measure, the trade of New Orleans.

The publication of the "Notes on an Overland Route to California" is resumed in a day or two. The great length of the proposed route obliges us to defer the "Notes" to-day.

NEW ORLEANS CUSTOM-HOUSE.—Mr. Gridley J. F. Hyman, Resident Agent of Granite, for this building, at the corner of the Custom-house and Canal, and Mr. A. B. Young, appointed to the vacant position.

We are requested to state that a suit of Mr. L. G. B. in the Circuit Court of the Eastern District of Louisiana, against the First District Court, dated about 16 years, has been filed.

The Varieties that night will continue, and commencing the last, will be a high comedy. The Grand Opera House was never better performed. Mr. Blake's "The Robber" was one of the best.

THE HUSBAND.—There has performed well in the past, and will continue to do so. The Grand Opera House was never better performed. Mr. Blake's "The Robber" was one of the best.

THE HUSBAND.—There has performed well in the past, and will continue to do so. The Grand Opera House was never better performed. Mr. Blake's "The Robber" was one of the best.

A Man Thrown from a Horse-Boat Quarter.

The Washington Union of the 19th inst. contains an extract of a letter from that city, in which it is asserted that the Daily Crescent differs from all the other papers printed here, in regard to the plan of the President and that of the Committee of Thirteen.

It is also asserted that the real difference is, that, as the writer, "I am firmly convinced and believe, that the 'Crescent' belongs to Samuel J. Peters, Gen. Taylor's Collector of the Customs for the Port of New Orleans," and, therefore, "cannot be expected to play to any other than the administration tune."

Does this not exhibit a most disgusting and deplorable state of affairs? Here is a journal which without exaggeration may be said to be respectable at least in point of politics, merely to give a slight coloring to its attacks on its political opponents leading its columns to an irresponsible scribbler to perpetrate a vice and infamous slander, without the slightest provocation!

The introduction of a single new application of labor, however humble, will do more for the independence of the South than a thousand assemblies of politicians, who talk so much of liberty, and whose only aim is to enrich themselves and their families.

Mr. Clay's reply to Mr. Stephens, showing the extent of the Southern industry. We go for the tariff and the collector's bench, against all the Conventions of gentlemen, North or South.

PORTUGAL.—Scene in Washington.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune gives the following account of a queer scene on Pennsylvania Avenue on Saturday, the 19th inst. The Portuguese Minister accosted Mr. Hopkins, our late Charge to London, on the Avenue to-day, and bitterly complained of our Government for having rejected the proposition of his Government to establish a consular office in London.

Mr. Buchanan made his first appearance in Philadelphia on the 14th inst. in Oshelle. The bill to abolish capital punishment failed in the Connecticut Senate by one vote.

THE HUSBAND.—There has performed well in the past, and will continue to do so. The Grand Opera House was never better performed. Mr. Blake's "The Robber" was one of the best.

THE HUSBAND.—There has performed well in the past, and will continue to do so. The Grand Opera House was never better performed. Mr. Blake's "The Robber" was one of the best.

Southern Manufactures.

The editor of the Red River Republican has been presented with a pair of boots of Rapides manufacture. The call was raised, the hide tanned, and the boots made in the parish.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

Some important correspondence accompanies the message, of which I make the following extract: Col. Moore communicates to the War Department a letter from Major Van Horn, addressed to him from the post at which the major was stationed near El Paso.

At a late date of the 15th, 1890, the adjutant-general Col. Moore, in answer to his inquiry, the following information, as to jurisdiction, contained in order No. 25, El Paso, Texas, to decide or not upon any claim to jurisdiction.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

New Mexico.

The Washington correspondent of the U. S. Commercial Advertiser, gives the following: WASHINGTON, June 17th, 1890.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

At the close of the legislative session of the Senate to-day, an important message was received from the President, which was read by the Speaker. It was a resolution calling for information whether orders had been given to officers of the U. S. Army in New Mexico to extend jurisdiction over the territory of New Mexico.

Telegraphic.

Further advices by the Cambria say that business in the manufacturing districts was brisk, and every body was employed. Brown & Shipley's reports say that the market was very active in the early part of the week, but closed easy.

The subject of the Cuba invasion has co-equal force in the House of Representatives. The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government.

The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government. The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government.

The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government. The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government.

The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government. The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government.

The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government. The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government.

The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government. The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government.

The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government. The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government.

The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government. The House of Representatives, Lord Brougham, expressed his confident reliance on the good faith of the American Government.

Steamboat Departures This Day.

See Advertisement—First and Third Class. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La.

See Advertisement—First and Third Class. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La.

See Advertisement—First and Third Class. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La.

See Advertisement—First and Third Class. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La.

See Advertisement—First and Third Class. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La.

See Advertisement—First and Third Class. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La.

See Advertisement—First and Third Class. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La.

See Advertisement—First and Third Class. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La.

See Advertisement—First and Third Class. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La. The Louisiana State Bank, New Orleans, La.

THOMAS BRADY.

22 Chartres street: Linens, Muslins & Barges, UNUSUALLY LOW! 5000 more yards of better BARGAINS, at sixteen and three-quarter yards.

French JACONETS, at Twenty Cents. French ORGANDIES, at Fifteen Cents. French BRILLIANT, at Ten Cents.

CHINA CROPE SHAWLS. 500 CROPE SHAWLS, various colors. 1000 Dozen REAL LINEN CAMBRIC HANDKERCHIEFS.

DRY GOODS... DRY GOODS... DRY GOODS. THOMAS BRADY, 22 Chartres street. MONDAY, June 30, after the whole week has been spent.

Great Bargains. THE THOMAS BRADY'S PRINTED LAINEN, Fast Colors. Superior PARIS BARGAINS.

Fancy Goods. Gold Pens, Shell Truck Combs, Gold Pens, Shell Truck Combs.

Selling Off, Selling Off! WORTH OF FINEST CLOTHING. ALFRED MUNROE & CO. 34 Magazine St.

Trunks! Trunks!! FINEST TRUNKS, at Half Price. ALFRED MUNROE & CO. 34 Magazine St.

Medical Books. J. B. STEEL'S. No. 5 Stationers' Warehouse, 14 Camp St. Medical Books, J. B. STEEL'S.

California Tickets. NOTICE. Clothing Made to Order. New Books.