CASES DECIDED LAST WEEK, AND NOT RECORDED. THURSDAY, Feb. 11, 1851. Present: the Judges. BROWN, Ch. J., DOMESTIC vs. FORTUNE, et al. Suit on notes for the price of a tract of land.

They curse the sinner, but they enjoy the sin.

According to their notions, a Customhouse is the den of thieves—an instrument of oppression more than the Bastille. But it will be such an ornament to the city. A brick is to be slipped and as palpable as a raw oyster.

INDIAN COMPLIMENT TO JENNY LIND.

The Cherokee Advocate contains the following editorial: "We see from our exchanges that Jenny Lind, the Swedish nightingale, was in Charleston, S. C., not long since on her way South and West."

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, February 8, 1851. SENATE.—Mr. Clay presented a petition from Mr. Davis, of Miss., made a report from the Committee on Public Buildings, upon the extension of the Capitol—a plan in conformity with their views.

MUSIC.

PIANO PORTER AND MUSIC STORE. E. A. TYLER has on hand and is constantly receiving a large assortment of pianos, organs, and music.

DANCING ACADEMIES.

M. P. CLISSEY respectfully informs the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans, that he has opened a dancing academy, where he will teach all the latest and most fashionable dances.

ON HEARING JENNY LIND SING.

As the earth dries in the rain— As the heart, for which it pants, Asks, but a smile again, For the son of his heart— So do I my soul best find— Loving for thee—JENNY LIND!

STAMPAUT TRADE OF THE WEST.

Two hundred and fifty different steamers arrived at St. Louis during the year 1850 from New Orleans and intermediate points. There were three thousand and nine hundred arrivals at St. Louis during the same time.

FROM JAMAICA AND YUCATAN.

By the way of New York, we have received news from Jamaica, and the 31st January: The cholera had decreased in many localities, disappeared in others, and in some few cases was as violent as ever.

RIOTING AND SHOOTING IN BALTIMORE.

A disgraceful fight took place in Baltimore on the 9th, between two gangs of half grown boys, rallying under the name of "congrats" and "thangs."

WATCHES AND JEWELRY.

J. ANDERSON, No. 17 St. Charles street, has just received a large assortment of watches, jewelry, and gold and silver ware.

FASHIONABLE DANCING AND WALTZING.

EDUCATION.

TEACHER OF MUSIC. E. M. CASSELL, Teacher of Music, has opened a school for the instruction of young ladies in the art of playing the piano and singing.

AMERICAN TONNAGE ENGAGED IN THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE.

The following tabular statement is published in the New York Express, derived from official records at Washington, and is disgraceful to the States, and in some degree on the nation. We hope, for the sake of the national character, that it may prove to be a mistake.

THE WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT OF THE NEW YORK EXPRESS.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Express gives a detailed account of the number of vessels that have been engaged in the Brazilian slave trade from 1844 to 1849, inclusive, together with the States where they were fitted out.
