

FIFTEEN CENTS A WEEK

The Daily Crescent

OFFICIAL JOURNAL. Published every day except Sundays and public holidays.

The Late J. Fenimore Cooper. A meeting of literary gentlemen was held in the Library of the City Hall, New York city, on the 24th of September, for the purpose of taking some steps to express the respect of the profession to the late J. Fenimore Cooper.

An Astronomical Observatory. An observatory is to be erected near Van West street, in the north part of Albany, on a spot of high land, which is to be connected with the Albany University, and is under the charge of Professor Mitchell, the celebrated astronomer.

The Iron Trade. The Charles (Fr.) Engine works in France is to be sold at the public sale on the 15th inst. The trade is considered as being much depressed in Pennsylvania.

Reduction of Penalties. Hon. Elias Whitwell, First Comptroller of the United States Treasury, has lately made a resolution which reduces the commission of the Marshal and District Attorney of New York, to a more moderate amount.

A Long Season. Mr. J. E. Knapp, residing near Washington City, has presented the gift of the Telegraph with a little book from an apple tree, containing a third apple and a fourth branch of the season.

The Old Fellow Country. This institution in Philadelphia has, during the last year, secured a handsome chapel, at a cost of $17,000, besides making other costly improvements.

Quintessence Four. The Agricultural Fair of the State of this commonwealth took place about forty-three years ago, among whom were Senator Douglas, Gen. Wright, and other distinguished citizens.

Emigrants Returning. The ship Constitution, which sailed from New York on September 23d, returned on the 28th inst., with the usual number of returning emigrants, chiefly Irish, who think they can do better in the old country than here.

Last Articles in the Great Exhibition. The London Evening Herald publishes a list of the articles which have been picked up in the Great Exhibition Building from July 1 to August 1.

Your gunnits of their skill may crack. But that again don't mention. I guess that Co's revolver which his own merits is a very fine article.

Downright in agriculture. With his constant sowing of wheat, and his up as by a rature. Chorus—Yankee Doodle, etc.

Will you be so good, in your pride, Which truly is tarantula. The British lion of your's defied The rages of all creation.

At his invitation that people, proverbial for their generous hospitality, had rather long observed the habits of his disciples, and observed a self-sacrificing apostle to mankind, the like of which has few parallels.

Large Proceeds. The first concert of Miss Catherine Hays, at New York, realized upward of five thousand dollars.

The Reported Attempt at Assassination. We published a brief telegraphic dispatch some days ago, saying that an attempt had been made to assassinate Governor Johnston, of Pennsylvania.

On the return of Governor Johnston and his escort from Tennessee to Potsville, on Monday night, a most villainous attack was made upon them after leaving the city, by a party of ruffians at Mount Carlin.

Masquerade and Theft. A singular case was investigated at Providence, (R. I.) as we see by the Journal. Mr. Watson charged Miss Sarah Hazard with stealing his wife's spectacles.

A Singular Fugitive Slave Case. There is now a singular fugitive slave case under investigation before Mr. Ingraham, the U. S. Commissioner. The slave, who belongs to Albert Davis, of the State of Maryland, is a woman about sixty years of age, who was arrested near Christianburg, Louisiana.

THE LAST APPENDIX TO YANKEE DOODLE. Yankee Doodle put to town. His goods for exhibition. Every body ran him down. And laughed at his position.

Yankee Doodle had a craft. A rather dry clipper. And he challenged, while they laughed. The British lion of your's defied.
