

ST. TAMMANY FARMER.

COVINGTON, DECEMBER 28, 1878.

LOCAL ITEMS.

The Mails.

The Covington mails will arrive and depart according to the following schedule, wind and weather permitting:

ARRIVE	DEPART
Tuesday... 7 P. M.	Wednesday... 7 A. M.
Thursday... 7 P. M.	Friday... 7 A. M.
Saturday... 7 P. M.	Monday... 7 A. M.

Christmas was quiet in Covington.

The weather during the past week has been rather cool. Ice has formed every night since last Christmas.

Mr. Chas. Aubry, State and Parish Tax Collector, is in town, on his way to the city, for the purpose of settling up his accounts with the State for the past year.

The Masons of Covington held a banquet at the Martindale Hotel last night. Among other causes, pressing duties prevented our being present.

Mr. George Kennedy, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Covington, died at the residence of his mother, on Thursday, the 19th inst. His funeral took place last Saturday morning. He had been in feeble health for several months previous to his death.

A list of the delinquent tax-payers of St. Tammany parish can be seen at the Courthouse. The law imposes a penalty of two per cent. a month on all taxes remaining unpaid after the 1st day of December.

We would rather be a millionaire, setting type in a warm room, than to be a poor wagoner, coming to town with a load of cotton during such cold weather as we have had during the past few days.

We are glad to see that our efficient deputy sheriff, Mr. J. R. Hosmer, is able to be about and attend to business again. He has been confined to the house for some time with a sore foot; but now that he is able to put in an appearance, we suppose his foot is "well healed."

"W" stands for "What must I buy when I come to town?" It also stands for Wm. Warren. Consequently, if you want to buy anything in the dry goods or grocery line, Wm. C. Warren's is the place to buy it. He has a well selected stock, and is always on hand and prompt to accommodate customers."

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. Hugh W. Montgomery, in another column. He offers for sale the celebrated fertilizers, Pine Island Guano and Pine Island Ammoniated Phosphate. Much of the land in our parish is such that the use of a good fertilizer is necessary for the production of a good crop. Mr. Montgomery fully guarantees his fertilizers to be as represented, the best in use. Give them a trial and be convinced.
