FIRE.—A small blaze occurred in Covington at about 11 o'clock last Tuesday night. A woodpile in the yard of the colored church became ignited, it is supposed, through sparks from a fire that had been built in the yard during the day. The flames extended to the fence, and but for the timely arrival of assistance, the church would probably have been destroyed. A few dollars will cover the loss.

What we need, ought to have, and can get if we make an effort, is a daily mail from New Orleans to Covington.

Many of our readers, both in St. Tammany and Washington parishes, are familiar with "Zeigler's" restaurant and saloon, No. 8, Royal street, New Orleans. A more genial host can not be found anywhere, and his liberal spirit and social manners have made him the general favorite "in this section." In fact, a visit to the city is not considered complete without a call at "Zeigler's," where the most tempting refreshments can be had, and also the best beer and finest of wines and liquors. See advertisement, and when you go to town, don't fail to call on "Joe," at No. 8, Royal street.

Some young men repaired the old "Valedor," last Tuesday, and it has proved an object of special delight to the small boys ever since. They can seen swinging around on it at all hours of the day and late in the evening. "Lots o' fun."

COVINGTON GUN CLUB.

GLASS BALL SHOOTING.

The Covington Gun Club held a meeting at the Courthouse last Wednesday evening, when the following officers were elected:

- President—E. R. Randolph.
- Vice President—Charles Keller.
- Secretary—Wm. Kennedy.
- Treasurer—Emile Frederick.

The first practice meeting took place on Thursday evening, the marksmen standing sixty feet from the trap, each one being entitled to nine shots. The following is the score. It will be observed that some of the members withdrew after firing several shots:

Wm. Badon.....	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1	-2
H. Bossier.....	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	-0
Chas. Frederick..	0 0 1 0 0	-1

F. A. Guyot.....	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	-0
S. B. Staples.....	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	-0
Dit Warren.....	0 0 1 1 0 0 1 0 0	-3

Considering that this was their first experience in glass ball shooting, we think the members of the Club are to be congratulated on the miraculous marksmanship displayed, although it is possible for them to become still more expert with practice. In the meantime, let Bogardus look to his laurels.
