ONLY THREE MONTHS.

They had been married about three months. The boy at the store appeared with a note from the husband. She clutched the precious missive with eager hand, tremblingly opened it and read:

"DEAR WIFE—Send me a pocket-handkerchief. JOHN."

She went slowly to the drawer to get the desired article, and while looking for it she came across the following note, which was written just two weeks after the wedding:

"DEAR WIFE—You will have to send me a handkerchief. Your bewitching eyes so turned my head this morning that I forgot to take one with me, for which I shall kiss the sweet face of my own a thousand times when I come home. In two hours and twenty minutes it will be twelve o'clock, and then I'll come home to my beautiful rose. I long to fly to you. A thousand kisses I send thee, my fairy wife. Yours tenderly, JOHN."

She sighed, gave the boy the handkerchief, and sighed again.

EGGS IN CASE OF TROUBLE.

The white of an egg is said to be a specific for fish bones sticking in the throat. It is to be swallowed raw, and will carry down a bone easily and certainly. There is another fact concerning eggs which it will be well to remember. When, as sometimes by accident, corrosive sublimate is swallowed, the white of one or two eggs taken will neutralize the poison, and change the effect to that of a dose of calomel.

HORSE LINIMENT.

Turpentine, half a pint; linseed oil, half a pint; aqua ammonia, four ounces; tincture of iodine, one ounce; shake it well. This is used to cure swellings, sprains, etc.

The use of whisky for rattlesnake bites in Texas has increased so enormously during the past year, that the overworked snakes have resolved to leave the State, unless the Board of Immigration reinforces them strongly. They work on double time, and yet they can't do half the biting that is demanded by constrictors. One snake, who does business at Port Lavaca, is six weeks behind his orders, and three of the clerks are sick.

A young lady who had been married a little over a year, wrote to her matter-of-fact old father, saying: "We have the dearest little cottage in the world, ornamented with the most charming little creepers you ever saw." The old man read the letter and exclaimed: "Twins, by thunder!"

"That's what I call a finished sermon," said a lady to her husband, as they wended their way home from church. "Yes," was the reply with a yawn, "but do you know, I thought it never would be."

Good doctors are liable to be rapped up in their business.
