EXTRACTED SPLINTERS.
People of no account never run in debt.
Coming to grief—Meeting, trouble half way.
Courtship is a draw game—marriage is a tie.
A contented sheep is a sign of settled wether.
"All the world's a stage," but the "fare" does not suit everybody.
It is said that there is a right way, a wrong way and a railway to do business.
Kentucky has a ghost that whistles. The natural inference is that it is out of the wilderness.
"Mark Twain on Babies," said the happy father, when his wife presented him with twins.
When a man gets the rheumatism in his knees, he knows the beauty of a gait without hinges.
A French author says: "When I lost my wife, every family in town offered me another; but when I lost my horse, no one offered to make him good."
"Did you do anything to resuscitate the body?" was recently asked of a witness at a Coroner's inquest. "Yes, sir, we searched the pockets," was the reply.
"John, I fear you are forgetting me," said a bright-eyed coquette to her sweetheart the other evening. "Yes, Sue," he replied, "I have been for getting you for the past two years."
King Mtesa, of Central Africa, has liberated his slaves, commanded the observance of the Christian Sunday, and forbidden the cooking of Missionaries on the Sabbath day. Cold cuts only are allowed.
A boisterous, ill-bred fellow, in a dispute, called his adversary "no gentleman." "I suppose you think yourself one?" was the reply. "Certainly I do," answered the bully. "Then I am not offended that you do not think me one."
"What is hell?" asked a Sunday School teacher of a Limestone street boy, in class, last Sabbath. "A shirt with a button off, ma'am," replied the boy. "Explain yourself; what do you mean, sir?" demanded the meek-spirited but surprised teacher. "Well, I heard my pa say to my ma, the other morning, when he put on a shirt with the neck button off, 'Well, this is hell.' That's all I know about it."
The healthiest town ever known was in Illinois, one summer, when the doctors went East to attend a Medical Convention, neglecting to return for several months. The doctors found, when they did get back, that their patients had all recovered, the nurses had opened dancing schools, the cemetery was cut up into building lots, the undertaker had gone to making violins, and the bearse had been gaudily painted and sold for a circus wagon.
