

Stop and Consider.
Are you troubled with a weakness in any part of the body? Have you weak lungs, or is your heart's action enfeebled or irregular? Are you suffering from ill-health, caused by a weakness of the urinary or digestive organs? Remember, Brown's Iron Bitters will cure you and fully restore both mind and body to their normal condition. It quickly strengthens the parts affected.

GUITEAU'S WILL.
The letter in the nature of a will, by which Guiteau disposed of his body, is as follows:
WASHINGTON, June 29, 1882.
To Rev. Wm. W. Hicks:

I, Charles W. Guiteau, of the City of Washington, in the District of Columbia, now under sentence of death, which is to be carried into effect between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th day of June, A. D. 1882, in the United States Jail in said District, do hereby give and grant you my body, after such execution; provided, however, that it shall not be used for any mercenary purposes. And I hereby, for good and sufficient considerations, give, deliver and transfer to said Hicks my book, entitled "The Truth and Removal," and the copyright thereof, to be used by him in writing a truthful history of my life and execution; and I direct that such history be entitled, "The Life and Work of Charles Guiteau;" and I hereby solemnly proclaim and announce to all the world, that no person or persons shall ever, in any manner, use my body for any mercenary purposes whatsoever; and if at any time hereafter any person or persons shall desire to honor my remains they can do it by erecting a monument, whereon shall be inscribed these words:

HERE LIES THE BODY OF
CHARLES GUITEAU,
Patriot and Christian.
His Soul is in Glory.

Witnesses: Charles H. Reed, Jas. Woodward.

It is said the Goats of the Horn and struck the Goat on the Horn and broke it. Becoming alarmed, he besought the Goat not to tell his master. "Oh! most foolish Goatherd," replied the Goat, "my spoken horn will tell the story, though I should not utter a word." Facts speak louder than words, which accounts for the unprecedented popularity of English FEMALE BITTERS for the quick and permanent cure of all troublesome female complaints and irregularities. It relieves monthly weakness or excesses, cures leucorrhoea, pain in the back and falling of the womb; eradicates swimming and giddiness of the head, acts like a charm with girls just merging into womanhood, and insures a safe journey through "the turn of life."

ENSILAGE.
We heartily commend the system of ensilage to our readers, and would respectfully urge upon our planters and farmers, and especially all dairymen, to try, if only a small amount, this year, and begin in time to make silos. The plan of saving green forage, instead of curing it into hay or feeder, will, we are satisfied, become universal before long. Its advantages will be so apparent to everyone who tries it, that in a few years, as a rule, winter butter will be as plentiful and far more preferable than summer butter; a far greater amount of beef will be fattened on every farm, and of better quality, and hence there will be raised double or treble the amount of beef, pork, mutton, etc., than is now attempted to be produced on the most productive grass and hay farms. Year cattle of all sorts and kinds will have nutritious, succulent food in winter and early spring, as well as in the midst of luxuriant summer.—Maryland Farmer.

A Traveler's Story.
After spending months at watering places and consulting the best physicians without benefit, I returned home disheartened and expected to die. A friend urged a trial of Parker's Ginger Tonic. Three bottles and careful diet have brought me excellent health and spirits, and I hope my experience may benefit similar sufferers.—Cincinnati lady. See other column.

Rev. M. P. Remington, Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "From too close application to my calling, my health underwent a severe strain. I felt a weakness in every part of my body. My digestion especially failed me, and my nerves became all unstrung. Recreation did not do me proper benefit. Finally, on the recommendation of a brother minister, I tried Brown's Iron Bitters. It has made me feel better and stronger than I ever before felt since I was a young man."

PEABODY SCHOLARSHIPS.
Hon. E. H. Fay, State Superintendent of Public Education, has received the following circular from Dr. Curry, general agent of the Peabody Fund, with the information that there are seven scholarships for Louisiana:

1. Applicants for scholarships must be at least seventeen years of age, present to the President of the College a certificate of irreproachable moral character, gentlemanly or ladylike habits, presumed good health, declare his or her intention to make teaching a profession, must give a pledge to remain at the College two years, if the scholarship is continued so long, promise to submit cheerfully to all its requirements in study, discipline, etc., and to teach in the public schools at least two years, if there is opportunity.

2. The applicant must obtain from the State Superintendent of Public Instruction for his State, or of such person as the President may appoint, a certificate that he has passed a satisfactory examination before said Superintendent, or other competent person authorized, in the studies required for admission to the second or "middle class" at the College, viz: In spelling, reading, penmanship, grammar and analysis, rhetoric, geography (civil and physical), arithmetic, algebra, book-keeping, physiology, United States History, elements of geology. No particular text books are prescribed for this examination. The candidate should give evidence of such knowledge of the above branches as would justify omitting their further study. Students will also be examined at the College with reference to their English.

3. The Peabody Scholarship money will not be paid until the student has been a member of the College one month, at which time and at the close of each succeeding month $25 will be paid, to an amount not exceeding $200 for the year; no payment will be made for the fraction of a month. It is expected that this money will be appropriated by the student to the payment of board and other College expenses first of all; and no certificate or diploma will be granted to any student known to be in arrears in these respects.

4. These scholarships will in no case be continued to students whose rank or standing is low, or whose general demeanor is objectionable, who do not give promise of usefulness as teachers, or whose health or other circumstances prevent constant attendance upon College duties.

5. Expenses: Gentlemen usually pay from $15 to $18 a month in approved boarding houses or private families. Ladies pay in best private families $20 per month. Six dollars a year is paid for such books, etc., as are furnished by the College, and for a portion of the incidental expenses.

The annual session opens on the first Wednesday in October, and closes on the last Wednesday in May. There is no vacation during the session except the Christmas holidays.

Scholarship students will not be received after the opening of the session, except in extraordinary cases.

Parties living in the country parishes can undergo a written examination before any President or Faculty of a regularly chartered educational institution, the examination papers to be forwarded to this office under seal, with the name and profession of the examiner attached. This will save the expense of coming to Baton Rouge for examination. Those presenting the best papers will be recommended by the State Superintendent.

State Superintendent.

A Peerless Perfume.
The refreshing aroma of Floreston Cologne, and its lasting fragrance, make it a peerless perfume for the toilet.

There is a quarrel among the doctors who made the autopsy of Guiteau's body. Drs. Sowers, Hartigan and Lamb were appointed to make the examination. And now Dr. Lamb, who did all the sawing and cutting, has made a report without the knowledge or consent of the other two. The latter will make an independent report. With a majority report and a minority report, the public ought to be satisfied as to whether Guiteau was insane or not. But as to the acceptance of either or both reports, it is entirely immaterial to Guiteau. He is silent upon the subject.
