See supplement. Two fine cows for sale. Apply at this office.

The Police Jury will meet next Wednesday.

The State tax sales will take place at the Courthouse to-day.

A large stable, near the Claiborne Cottages, for rent. See advertisement.

English, French, Spanish, and drawing and piano lessons will be given by Mrs. A. Ganthet. See advertisement.

The Masonic Lodge will perform the funeral obsequies of the late Wm. C. Morgan next Saturday, July 12. See notice.

Mr. H. W. S. Lund, formerly of Covington, and Miss Isabella Bain, of New Orleans, were married last Wednesday evening.

The second Quarterly Conference of the A. M. E. Church will be held at Dunlay Chapel on the 26th and 27th of July, by Rev. J. D. Baynes, P. E.

The District Court proceedings and several other items are crowded out this week. Next week we will have room for all, as the tax sales come out to-day.

Dr. Lavillarene, of New Orleans, will arrive this evening, for a short stay and will make his headquarters at the Geothler House, where he can be found by all who may desire his services.

Business Notice.—Rev. Dr. Menthon, of New Orleans, will hold services at the Methodist Church, in Covington, next Wednesday evening, July 9, at 8 o'clock. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

Mr. G. C. Alexis presented us this week with some fine roasting cuts; also a lot of splendid tomatoes, large and smooth skinned, measuring 13 inches in circumference. They are fine specimens and reflect credit upon the skill of his efficient gardener, Mr. Black.

The excursion yesterday of the Volunteer Firemen's Benevolent Association, of the Sixth District, New Orleans, was well attended. There were ten coaches filled with pleasure seekers. A few came to Covington, but the larger part of them remained at Abita Springs.

Messrs. Guleson & Roublon will give talks to excursions to Abita Springs, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, making two trips daily, morning and evening. Fare 50 cents for the round trip. They will call at residences for passengers. All orders left at their stable will be promptly attended to. We notice that they have this week added another new stage to their stock of fine vehicles.

We are indebted to the gallant young members of the "Southern Let-Me-Go Club" for an invitation to a grand basket picnic on the Lake shore, to celebrate the Fourth of July. This is a new Club, composed of the young men of Mandeville. We were unable to attend, but dare say they had a delightful time. The officers of the Club are Walter Hoagban, President, J. Brady, Secretary and Treasurer, and Leo Morgan, Grand Marshal.

Mr. Theo. Sully's new boat, the Helen, has been launched in New Orleans, and is ready for the machinery to be put in place. She is a steam propeller yacht, 61 feet long, 10 feet beam, draft 4 feet. Her cabin will have 8 berths, and will be handsomely finished. Her speed will be 14 miles an hour. Capt. E. Miller, of Covington, (a veteran navigator,) will be in command, and we hope soon to see Commodore Sully and his model yacht at our wharf.

AUTOMATIC SEWING MACHINES! Prices reduced. Every family now can have the best Automatic Sewing Machine in the market at reduced prices. For particulars send for our new illustrated Circular with samples of stitchings. Our Illustrated Circular shows every part of the Machine perfectly, and is worth sending for even if you have no Machine. Write to Murphy & Co., 625 and 627 West 28th St., N. Y. City.

Minor Wills.—Reed's Chill Cure is a medicine of rare merit, and the people all unite in praising it, as a "truly great medicine." For sale at Heintz Drug Store.

The vacancy in the office of the Clerk of Court, caused by the death of Mr. W. C. Morgan, will have to be filled by appointment by the Governor. There are doubtless a number of aspirants for the position, but we suggest the name of Col. W. F. Homer as being eminently qualified for the position. He is a native of our town, a well known citizen and property owner, and we believe his appointment would give universal satisfaction to the people. We make this suggestion owing to his peculiar fitness for the position, and believe he would make an efficient and capable Clerk of Court.

A serious disturbance occurred at Abita Springs yesterday afternoon, when Deputy Sheriffs Eddie and Harry Bossier, Chas. Heints, Jr., and Dauphine Laborde, while in the discharge of their duty, were attacked and beaten by roughs from the city. Sheriff Cook jailed four of the culprits.

A HANDSOME CAR.—Last Wednesday's excursion train of the East Louisiana Railroad contained a handsome new passenger car, "No. 25." This car is an elegant affair, and reflects much credit not only upon the company but especially upon Mr. J. B. Elwell, the master mechanic of the car factory. The car has seats for sixty-six passengers, and the body of it is built entirely of Southern woods, polished in their natural colors. The mountings, lamps, etc., are all silver plated, the ceiling is handsomely decorated, and in short, it would be hard to find a handsomer or more comfortable car on any road. It was visited by many of our citizens during the day, and was greatly admired by all.

An excursion party of railroad officials and newspaper men arrived on the new car, and spent the day viewing the town and surrounding country.

At 2 p. m., the party and invited guests repaired to the popular Commercial House, where a fine banquet had been prepared under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. "Ernest." The party consisted of Judge Jas. M. Thompson, (who presided with his usual grace and dignity,) Jas. E. Hoemer, Col. W. F. Hoemer, Dr. E. B. Warren, W. G. Kentzel, editor Farmer, Chris. Lindaur, of the Pionyeur, J. G. Fleming, of the States, C. Lindaur, Jr., Capt. S. E. Poiterson, Superintendent, E. S. Ferguson, General Passenger Agent, F. A. Orr, Secretary and Treasurer, J. B. Elwell, the Master Car Builder, Jas. Givens, Conductor, John Patterson, Road Master, J. F. Glynn, of the Northeastern, Mr. McGeehee, of the East Louisiana, and others.

We regret that we have no copy of the bill of fare of the fine repast with which "Ernest" regaled his guests, but can say it was most excellent, from the opening soup to the closing cream and coffee, and the intervening courses of red snapper, pompano, fowl, fruits, etc., followed each other in due time and were highly appreciated by all. It was a feast such as only the gift of "Ernest" can prepare, and that is not saying too much. The musical popping of champagne announced that the time for "toast" had arrived. Judge Jas. M. Thompson being called upon, proposed, "The East Louisiana Railroad, a home institution, owned by home capital, largely constructed of home material, the result of the energy, enterprise and public spirit of our own citizens." Mr. P. A. Orr responded in behalf of the railroad in a feeling and eloquent manner. Mr. Lindaur, of the Pionyeur, then made a few appropriate remarks. Mr. Fleming, of the States, proposed the "continued growth and prosperity of the St. Tammany Farmer."

The Farmer editor arose, and thanking Mr. Fleming for his good wishes, proceeded to give a short resume of the progress of our town and parish during recent years, especially since the advent of the railroad, which had resulted in enhancing the value of property, and given a new impetus to our forward movement in the way of increased business, and numerous new and fine buildings, no less than fifty having been erected since the advent of the railroad. Our people fully appreciated the advantages afforded by the railroad, in the way of rapid and easy communication with the city, and hoped the efforts of the company would be rewarded with a constantly increasing business. The handsome new car which arrived to-day was an evidence of the enterprise of the managers of the East Louisiana Railroad, and he hoped they would continue to prosper until they could add a hundred more to their list, all equally as fine as car "25."

Mr. J. B. Elwell, Master Car Builder of the East Louisiana Railroad, responded in behalf of the company, and justly said that the new car "could speak for itself," and it only had to be seen to be appreciated.

The guests then repaired to the train and inspected this splendid specimen of fine workmanship, which combines all the elements of ease and comfort, together with great beauty of design and rich trimmings.

The car will hereafter be attached to the regular daily passenger train, and the traveling public will have a chance to see its beauties and test its merits.

IN MEMORIAM.

DEPART.—At his residence in Covington, La., on Tuesday, July 2, 1890, WILLIAM CLARK MORGAN, for the past fourteen years Clerk of the Eighteenth Judicial District Court for the Parish of St. Tammany. His father was the late Charles H. Morgan, formerly Sheriff of the Parish.

The subject of this sketch was born in Madisonville, La., Feb. 20, 1840. He served in the Confederate army with troops raised in this vicinity, and many of his comrades are still left. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, which convened and performed over the body, and the accustomed rites for the dead, and on the 31st inst. the remains were taken to Mandeville and deposited in the family tomb.

Mrs. C. MORGAN was known as an affectionate husband and father, and a good friend. Though not a communicant, his faith was with the Episcopal Church.

RACE WAR AT AMITE.

AMITE CITY, June 28.—[Special to Daily States.]—The good citizens of Amite City have been alarmed for some time past by rumors that a number of negroes were holding secret meetings, and quietly buying up arms and ammunition. These negroes were generally known as bad citizens in this community.

About ten days ago two white men, claiming to be missionaries, came here and began to preach to the negroes. They lived among and with the negroes, and it was said were advising them to demand higher wages, social recognition, etc. A number of young men waited on them and warned them to live with their own people or leave. While quietly talking with one Kendrick, the negro preacher in charge of the church at this place, these young men were fired on by some negroes and several of them wounded. This occurred on Monday night.

On Tuesday night George Howard, a bolterous negro, known to be the leader of those who did the shooting on Monday night, tried all over town to buy buckshot, saying he was accused of shooting white men by some white man, and that he proposed to make him with buckshot.

The negroes here and at other places along the railroad in this parish have manifested a disposition to give trouble for some time past at several points, buying arms and ammunition. To-day our patience became exhausted, and learning that the negroes were to hold a large meeting to-night headed by the unruly spirits who had been the cause of all this alarm, they determined to prevent further trouble by decisive action.

This morning at 8 o'clock about 200 armed men entered the town in four directions. George Howard was killed in attempting to get away, and two others slightly wounded. Four others of the leaders were whipped and ordered to leave the country. A demand was then made for the arms recently bought by the negroes, and the number and character of the weapons discovered fully justified the alarm our people had long felt. The guns were all found to be loaded with buckshot. There are no deer near here, and very little hunting is done even by the whites, yet the negroes had bought quantities of buckshot. They had also tried to buy Winchester rifles from several persons and had secured one. One of the leaders had yesterday received a lot of cartridges from New Orleans by the colored porter on the passenger train. Everything is quiet now, and the more conservative element of the negroes say they cannot blame the whites for what they have done. No one was disturbed but those known to belong to the turbulent crowd.

Referring to the above, the Hammond Leader says:

One of the results of Northern interference with the negroes of the South, is shown in the recent trouble at Amite City. To such interference may be attributed the majority of race troubles in the South. If these alleged "missionaries" and "preachers" from the North would pay more attention to preaching Christ and less to the political condition of the negro, it would be far better for the negro. If our people would ornament the trees with a few of these "missionaries" who come here inciting the negroes to bloodshed, rape and incendiarism, it might have a tendency to make their visits a little less frequent, and would contribute to the welfare of the negroes.

THE LOTTERY BILL PASSED. [Times-Democrat.]

The Legislature has carried out the wishes of the people and decided to submit to their vote the question whether the charter of the Louisiana State Lottery Company shall be extended or not. It could not have done otherwise without violating Democratic principles. The people, not the Legislature, are the source of all power, and when they demand the right to be heard on this question, and to express their views thereon by a popular election, that right could not be refused them—and they expressed their wishes so clearly in the elections held, in petitions, in mass meetings and in other ways that no one could deny, or did deny—that they desired to have the lottery proposition submitted to them.

It is unfortunate in one sense that the matter could not be arranged in the Legislature without the bitter fight that was made there, as it would have produced harmony and saved a great deal of legislative time that was lost. On the other hand, the debate has enlightened the people. No question was ever so thoroughly discussed as this. It has been argued, pro and con, from every possible point of view, and if the question were submitted to-morrow, it could be voted on intelligently by all—with what result the Antis themselves seek knowledge by seeking to prevent such election. No one can deny that the supporters of the bill—those who thought that Mr. Morris' proposition was a good one, which ought to be accepted, and those who thought it should, at least, be submitted to an election—tried hard to secure harmony and unity of purpose among the white people of the State. The proposition for white primaries was presented several times to the Antis, but refused as often by them or coupled with impossible conditions. It would have been better had the proposition been agreed to, as it would have prevented any chance of division or disunion in the ranks of the whites.

The question is disposed of, for the present at least. Two years from now it will come up again to be voted on. We have no doubt of the result then. The people of Louisiana are not uncertain or fickle. They believe now that the proposition should be accepted, and they will believe it two years hence.

The arguments pro and con have been presented thoroughly, and now that the matter has been definitely determined in the Legislature, they can rest awhile. That body has done its duty by the people and referred this matter to them—and the people of Louisiana will do their duty also, as they have done in the past. They have heard the arguments of the Antis and declare that there is no force in them—and they do not care to have these arguments gone over and discussed again and again for two long years.

Had the friends of the lottery bill had their way, the question would have been disposed of at an early day by a white primary.

MANDEVILLE ITEMS.

MANDEVILLE, July 3, 1890.

EDITOR ST. TAMMANY FARMER:

Our town is still increasing its population, never a family having arrived this week.

Mr. P. A. Claudet, a prominent member of the New Orleans Gun and Rod Club, is the guest of Mr. F. A. Cousin.

Mr. Chas. Fanel, the major-domo of the East End Picnic Club, has arrived for the season and is stopping with Mr. F. M. Talary. He is making preparations for the annual go out to the shell beach.

Another addition to the belles of Mandeville is that beautiful blonde Miss Eva Levi, who is the guest of Miss Eliza Talary.

Conductor Jas. M. Givens, wife and children baby, is spending a few days with his father.

Our postmistress, Mrs. Alvarez, arrived to-day from your town, greatly improved in health and looks.

Mrs. W. H. Dyer, of Cottonport, La., is on a visit to her father, Mr.

F. Colomes. She is an expert musician, and will give lessons in your town twice a week. She is the mother of Mr. Marceline Hestreux, our renowned piano player. We bespeak for her a liberal patronage in our town and Covington.

Counselor Jos. A. Laird, accompanied by Hon. Hampton, paid us a visit last Sunday, and registered at Freppart's.

The stores are all doing a good business. The Pig-and-Whistle has had a fancy wagon made to deliver groceries to its customers. It has the identical pig and whistle painted on each side of the canvas covering, with the appropriate sign of "groceries, wines, liquors, etc." Our sign painter, Chas. F. Tuttle, designed it.

Depru Bros. shipped by the New Orleans, yesterday, 3137 pounds of Lake water to New Orleans. This is their second shipment this season. They are doing a fine business, and it keeps Alphonse and Gustave busy as bees.

Our French Market was admired by all passers-by last Saturday evening. Levy's butcher stall was illuminated, and hanging on the hook, neatly arranged, were the quarters of 2 beefs, 5 sheep, 3 calves and 1 hog, which were duly retailed on Sunday morning to their numerous customers.

Although the weather is very warm, we have a strong westerly breeze, which keeps us cool all day, and the nights are refreshed by a nice northeast breeze.

Yesterday evening we had a most refreshing rain, which encouraged truck farmers, and potato vines are in demand.

Soft shell crabs are so abundant that if you say "crab" to any one you run the risk of being thrown in the Lake to be devoured by sharks and hard shell crabs.

The funeral of Wm. C. Morgan took place this morning at eight o'clock. He was laid away in the family tomb at this place. He was 50 years of age. He had held many offices of trust, such as Justice of the Peace, Mayor of Mandeville, Postmaster, and at the time of his death he was Clerk of the District Court for this parish, and Recorder of Mortgages. He was always honorable in his transactions, strict in official duties, a friend to all, and his generosity to others went so far as an abnegation to himself. Wm. C. Morgan was the most popular man in St. Tammany parish, and he died without leaving an enemy to blast his honorable life. He was a native of this parish, and was the son of the late Hon. Charles Morgan, who was at one time Sheriff of the parish. He leaves a widow and three children, two girls and a boy, to whom we extend our most sincere and heartfelt sympathies in their hour of bereavement. He was a bosom friend of your correspondent. We were raised together, and our friendship never darkened a day through 40 years of ups and downs. He will be missed by many and many a family. May his ashes rest in peace, and may he receive in the other world the reward he so well earned on earth. TEXAS.
