

St. Tammany Farmer

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF ST. TAMMANY PARISH.

COVINGTON, LA., NOV. 18, 1893

LOCAL ITEMS.

There was frost and thin ice Wednesday and Thursday mornings.

The Claiborne Cottages Hotel is advertised for sale at the Auction Exchange, in New Orleans, on Wednesday, Dec. 6.

Mr. George D. Wright, of New Orleans, arrived recently, and is located at Bayle Rogers, for the present, painting and embellishing his residence.

We return thanks to Mr. H. Michaels, the popular proprietor of Long Branch Hotel, for some delicious water cross received last week.

Judge Pardee has appointed F. B. Martindale, Esq., of Covington, to the position of United States Commissioner for the Eastern District of Louisiana.

ENTERTAINMENT.—There will be a variety entertainment, oyster supper and dance, in the Town Hall, Tuesday night, Nov. 28, for the benefit of the Town Hall Piano Fund. Admission 25 cents.

The Archbishop has charged Rev. A. Paquette, curate of Mandeville, to take in hand the reconstruction of the Catholic Church at Slidell, which was blown down by a hurricane some months ago.

We have had another fine week for harvesting the crops, and the farmers who plowed and planted at the right time, are now busily engaged in cutting, grinding, picking, ginning and digging up the fruits of their labors.

Rev. A. R. Edbrooke, of New Orleans, will hold services in the Episcopal Church to-morrow Nov. 19. Sunday School at 9:30 A. M., Morning Prayer and Sermon, 11 A. M., Evening Prayer and Sermon 7:30 P. M. The public invited.

Protracted Meeting began in the Methodist Church last Wednesday night and will continue throughout next week. Rev. Wallace is being assisted by several eminent ministers. Rev. Morrill, of Georgia, will hold service to-night at 7:30 and to-morrow at 11 A. M., and the Presiding Elder, Rev. H. E. Partridge at 7:30 P. M. The public are cordially invited to attend.

The Catholic Mission will begin to-morrow, Nov. 19. The usual mass, will be at 7 o'clock. Mission will open at 10 o'clock, with solemn high mass and sermon. Special instructions for children and young people, at 4:15 P. M. Solemn evening service, sermon and benediction, at 7 P. M. During the whole week, morning service 8 A. M. Evening service at 7 P. M. Impressive sermons at each service. For children, at 11 A. M. and 4:15 P. M.

MARRIED.—At Claiborne Station, La., Wednesday, Nov. 15, 1893, at 5 A. M., at the home of the bride, by Rev. H. W. Wallace, WILLIAM ARNET to Miss LAURA LACROIX.

The happy young couple left on the 6 o'clock train for their future home in Florida. The amiability and beauty of the bride and social disposition of the groom won for them a host of friends who join the FARMER in wishing them happiness and prosperity. We return thanks for some delicious bride's cake received in honor of the happy event.

DEAD.—At Bayou LaCrosse, Saturday, Nov. 11, 1893, at 8 P. M., LOUIS COOPER, a native of this parish, aged 74 years.

The deceased, during his long life, was honored and respected for his many virtues and upright character, and in his death the parish has lost a good and useful citizen. His wife and two sons survive him, and they have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction.

An ingenious writer in "Harper's Weekly" has an elaborate plan for capturing train robbers by electricity. All he needs is an extra bag-gage car for the central station and the rest is easy. By connection with the express car he allows the unscrupulous highwayman to enter but not to depart until the train arrives at its destination. The gang is then nabbed by officers who have been warned by the dispatch sent along the wire.

Go down Warrons.—Mr. and Mrs. Christian Schultz, of the German Settlement, celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage last Sunday, when a number of invited guests assembled at their residence and partook of a grand dinner in honor of the event. The aged couple were married at Mecklenburg, Germany, November 9, 1868, and came to this parish in 1853, and came to this parish in 1854, where they have resided ever since. Several children were born to them. One of them, Mr. Herman Schultz, recently represented this Ward as a member of the Police Jury, and if we are not mistaken, he is the only surviving child. Mr. Christian Schultz is now in his 80th year, and his wife is 79 years of age. They have a comfortable home, the result of years of toil, frugality and good management. The FARMER joins their many friends in the hope that they may be spared to each other for many years to come. We acknowledge the receipt of some delicious wine and cake in honor of the event.

PERSONALS. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of Enon, passed through our town this week on their way to and from the Crescent City. Miss Mary McLain left yesterday on a visit to relatives in Poplarville. Mrs. Peter Paquet, of Franklinton, paid us a short visit this week. Miss Carrie Frederick returned safely last Sunday, after witnessing the grand sights at the World's Fair and visiting friends in Chicago. Dr. Walter Abney, of Franklinton, spent last Wednesday in our town on his way home from New Orleans.

Miss Minnie Matthews, of New Orleans, spent last Sunday with Miss Rebecca Weaver. Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Eavis, of the German Settlement are here assisting Rev. Wallace in a Protracted Meeting. Mrs. L. Beaulah, of New Orleans, is spending the winter in Covington with the hopes that our town will benefit her baby. We hope the pure atmosphere will have its desired effect. They are stopping with Mrs. Guzel. Miss Bertha Medel is spending a while in New Orleans. Mr. Silas, of New Orleans, spent Sunday here with Mr. O. V. Richard.

Mrs. Clifton Barnes, of Chabby Hill, paid our town a pleasant visit last Tuesday. Misses Lillie Evans, Jennie Pejol, Alice Galmiche, Adele Pechon, sister Lawrence and Father Keogert went to Madisonville yesterday morning to sing a Requiem mass for the late Mrs. E. Maguire. Mrs. F. E. Watts and her bright little daughter Marguerite, left last Thursday for Jackson, Miss. Mr. Watts and son Don Frederick Watts will join them in a few days. They intend making Jackson their home. Mrs. Grace Watts has written some very interesting poems for the FARMER. We are sorry to have them leave us and hope they will not forget their many St. Tammany friends.
