Published at the Postoffice at Covington, La., as second-class matter.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF ST. TAMMANY PARISH.

LOCAL ITEMS.

At this time of the year the days are not long in getting shorter.

Next Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, being Ember days, are days of fast and abstinence.

For Sale.—A lot of household furniture, one fine dining room set, bath tub, etc. See advertisement.

Sealed bids are invited for the building of a bridge across the Big Ponchatoula creek. See advertisement.

MARKED.—In New Orleans, on Tuesday, Sept. 4, 1894, by Rev. A. Gordon Bakewell, Geo. W. Bohne and Miss Ery Banyer Graham.

A sixteenth section of public school land will be sold at public auction at the Courthouse next Wednesday. See advertisement.

It is about time to get up another entertainment in the Town Hall. It would be a good idea to give one for the purpose of enlarging the stage.

GAME LAW.—The law for the protection of deer, wild turkeys and partridges, will expire on Monday, Oct. 15, just one month from to-day.

MARKED.—On Wednesday, September 5, 1894, by Rev. F. Mathias, at the German Settlement, Adolph L. Rent and Miss Henrietta Schlokat.

New subscribers are coming in every week, which is an evidence that the adoption is becoming more plentiful since the adoption of the Democratic tariff bill.

We understand the subject is being discussed of building a foot bridge from Covington to Claiborne, below the Gouliher House. The more the merrier.

Change of Schedule.—The East Louisiana train now leaves the city daily at 3:45 p. m., and Sundays at 8 a. m. Leaves Covington daily at 8 a. m., and Sunday at 4:15 p. m.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Col. John H. Stone, Democratic candidate for Congress, will address the citizens of Covington next Thursday, Oct. 20, at 12 o'clock.

The new iron bridge at Covington was completed last Wednesday, so far as the contractor's work is concerned. The work of building the approaches to it will doubtless be completed in a few days.

The new benches for the upper room in the Town Hall have arrived and been placed in position. This will prove a great convenience and do away with the necessity of carrying chairs upstairs and down.

The enterprising merchant, Mr. O. V. Richard, has received a full stock of fall goods, and invites the public to call and inspect the same before purchasing elsewhere. For further particulars, see his advertisement in another column.

The bricks arrived this week for the new sidewalk in front of the Town Hall. We think it would be a good idea to also put up a strong railing, similar to the one in front of the Courthouse. It would prove a convenience to the public and be a protection to the sidewalk.

Next Monday, Sept. 17, Rev. Joe Koegel will say holy mass at Slidell, at 8 a. m., and regularly thereafter, on Monday after the first and third Sundays. The Benedictine Father, who has been holding service at Slidell every third Sunday, is unavoidably prevented from continuing the same, therefore Father Koegel will officiate in his place, on the days above named.

The handsome Lake steamer New Camelia continues to hold her own as a favorite with the public, and always has a fine passenger list. The veteran "old salt," Capt. Hanover, and the polite and genial purser, E. Langhoff, are attentive to the wants and comfort of the passengers, and there is no more delightful outing than a trip over the Lake on the "old reliable" New Camelia.

The mystery of the murdered peddler, near Florangeville, has not yet been solved. He is supposed to have been the same one who peddled gold jewelry in Covington about six weeks ago. He was a young man, short in stature, rather stout, sandy complexion, and good address. His wares were genuine gold, and he doubtless had considerable money on him when he was murdered and robbed. Who he was or where he came from may never be known, and his assassin will probably escape, so there seems to be no clue to their identity.

School Board.

The next regular meeting of the Public School Board will be held in Covington, on Saturday, Oct. 6, 1894, at 11 a. m. All members are requested to be present.

J. A. SMITH, President.

MR. J. D. BLACKWELL'S HOUSE BURNED.

Fearl River, Sept. 12, 1894. Editor St. Tammany Farmer: We are having lots of rain down here, and some are having very bad luck.

Mr. J. D. Blackwell's house caught on fire last Monday night and burned to the ground. He was absent at the time, and there was nobody there but his wife and little children, and very few things were saved, which leaves them in a bad fix at present. We hope the Lord may bless our settlement, so we may have no more such bad luck as we have had of late.

A SUBSCRIBER.

Two houses in New Orleans, belonging to Prof. Deffen, were damaged by fire last Tuesday. They were insured.

Mrs. Chas. Rausch has our thanks for some fine ribbon cane, with twelve red joints, which is remarkably good for this early in the season.

The Directors of the East Louisiana Railroad held a meeting in Covington last Wednesday. We understand the object was to amend the charter, and increase the capital stock from $360,000 to $1,000,000.

To a practiced eye, the new iron bridge appears to be somewhat out of line. It takes a south by southeast, east, north by northeast, up and down course, and it has a general bow-and-go-fetch-it, sent-for-and-couldn't-come appearance, that is at least startling, if not sublime.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF RUDOLPH.

Youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Michaelis, aged three months. Death gave the word, the arrow sped, And pierced our darling's heart, And with him all the joys have fled, Life can't us impart.

Still in the infant's smile in death, Great is a mother's woe, And wrecked a father's fondest hopes; God willed it to be so.

The tender flower bloomed but to fade, Like all things fair away, God grant we merit but to meet His soul in Heavensome day.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Michaelis, whom death robbed of their infant son, desire in this, their sad hour of bereavement, to thank the guests of the Long Branch Hotel, not forgetting their many friends, for their acts of kindness and consideration, as also for their sympathy, which, when so sorely needed, was so generously given.

PERSONALS.

The following guests are stopping at the Beachy Cottage, Abita Springs: Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and family, Nellie Thompson, Mr. Chas. and daughter, and Messrs. H. Wright, O'Neil, Seal, Ford and Wm. Barclay, all of New Orleans.

Miss Maguerite Raynaud, of New Orleans, spent this week over here with her friends Misses Annie and Jennie Prevost.

Mrs. T. Nolan and sister, Miss Saddle Curry, who have been spending the summer in our quiet town, left last Wednesday to visit relatives in Chicago, and will spend the winter in the Crescent City. A welcome awaits them on their return in the Spring.

Miss Flora Kaufman has returned to the city, after spending two months with her brother in Covington.

Miss Eva Quin, after spending a while here with her sister, Mrs. C. Z. Williams, left last Wednesday for her home in Houmaville, Miss. Miss Quin won many friends here, who regretted to see her leave.

Mrs. Paul Phillippot, who has been spending the summer in our healthy town, left last Monday for her home in Cairo, Egypt. Her sister, Miss Lulu Bechet, went as far as New York City with her.

Mrs. Barlow, after spending a while here with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. B. B. Downer, left last Tuesday for her home in Copiah Co., Miss.

Miss Stella Stewart, of New Orleans, visited the Misses Barrell this week.

Sweet little Miss Maguerite Saunders entertained her friends with a birthday party last Thursday afternoon.

Miss Flora Heintz, of New Orleans, is visiting relatives here.

Our popular friends, Messrs. Ralph and Johnnie McCracken, left on the fourth to accept positions in South America.

Mr. Waldworth has moved his family here from Columbia, Miss. They are occupying the Vickers Cottage.

Mr. Paul Gelpi, of New Orleans, spent last Sunday among friends in our lovely town.

Two of Mandeville's fair daughters, the Misses Ribava, spent last Tuesday in Covington.

TWO MERRY MAIDS.

Godby, of Kentucky, and other distinguished ministers. The public tent will be open from the first, under the management of Mr. William Biery. Meals 25 cents. Tents will move in after the fourth Sunday. Respectfully, D. C. RAWLS.

The recent Garden Party in Mandeville, for the benefit of the Catholic Church, was a grand success. The table of Mrs. M. Dyer brought in $90.00, and with the others, $91.00. Among those present were the Misses Theard, Anna D'Aquila, Tyler, Souchoon, Schwartz, Consul Samora and lady, Mrs. Prudhomme, Salomon, Holmes, Castell and Sanches. The ladies in charge desire to express thanks to the FARMER, for advertisements. Mr. Hestreat, for his fine music, and Mr. Denis, for the use of his place.

OUR PREMIUM.—Every paid up subscriber to the FARMER is entitled to a copy of "Dr. Kendall's Treatise on the Horse and His Diseases," a most valuable book. Ask for it when you come down to settle up.
