For Sale—A fine Gasoline Stove. Apply at this office.

There will be an auction sale of household furniture to-day at the old Moses stand.

The free and unlimited desire for office exceeds the ratio of 16 to the 1 who will get there.

Applicants for public schools will be examined in Covington next Wednesday. See notice in another column.

Gov. Foster has appointed D. C. Fauntleroy to the position of Police Juror for the Second Ward, vice B. F. Rogers, resigned.

When the scalp is atrophied, or shiny-bald, no preparation will restore the hair; in all other cases, Hall's Hair Renewer will start a growth.

Rev. W. T. Currie will hold service in the Methodist Church tomorrow at the usual hours. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Timberlake are receiving the congratulations of their many friends, on the arrival of a fine son to bless their home, last Saturday night.

The Police Jury, at the meeting held last week, reduced the rate of the Parish tax from eight mills to seven mills. This will be welcome news to the taxpayers.

Nearly every town in the State, the size of Covington, has a bank. Perhaps our proximity to the New Orleans banks renders it unnecessary to have one here.

LOST.—Friday evening, on the road to Old Landing, a gold chain bracelet, with square padlock. A suitable reward will be paid for its return to this office.

Mr. R. Feld, the dealer in watches and jewelry, left New Orleans for Chicago last week, where he will purchase a fine stock of jewelry, and will return to St. Tammany Parish about the 1st of September.

The Game Law will expire on the 15th of October. After that date you can kill deer, ducks, turkeys and partridges anywhere in the parish, outside of the incorporated towns.

Sheriff Stroble tried his blood hounds last Wednesday. They tracked a colored man beyond the mile branch, and he had to climb a tree to save himself. He says he has got enough of that kind of sport.

The present bridge at Abita Springs has been condemned as unsafe, by the Police Jury, and a new bridge will be built there in the near future. In the meantime the public are warned against crossing on the old bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mount, accompanied by Miss Mary Belle Poole, paid the FARMER a pleasant visit last Wednesday. Mrs. Mount is a charming lady of rare intelligence, and is a frequent contributor to the city dailies.

There has been an unusually large crop of pears this year, and they are selling at very low prices. Some fine ones have been sold at 40 cents a bushel. Covington should have a canning factory, to put up our fruit and vegetables.

The Louisiana Weather Journal says: August, with a mean temperature of 80 degrees, is the second warmest month of the year in Louisiana. We haven't noticed anything mean about the temperature, but the daily rains are too mean for any use.

The St. Helena Echo is publishing interesting accounts of the part the companies formed in that parish took in the late war. If some historian will write up the career of the troops from St. Tammany Parish, we will take pleasure in publishing it, as an interesting matter of history.

"It is the best patent medicine in the world" is what Mr. E. M. Hartman, of Marquam, Oregon, says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "What leads me to make this assertion is from the fact that dysentery in its worst form was prevalent around here last summer and it never slack over two or three doses of that remedy to effect a complete cure."

For sale by W. C. Heintz, druggist, Covington, and Dr. E. B. Faine, Mandeville.

The Police Jury proceedings, in full, will be found on the second page.

The indications all point to the fact that we will have fine weather when it quite rains.

The total cotton crop in eight for this year is 9,671,151 bales the largest crop on record.

The Populists have nominated a parish ticket, with the exception of ward officers, in St. Helena parish.

The daily rains have damaged the cotton crops in St. Tammany and Washington parishes. Fortunately a number of our farmers have planted no cotton this year.

The Surprise String Band will give a grand ball at Castle Hall, in Mandeville, to-night, for the benefit of the Band fund. Extensive arrangements have been made, and it will be one of the most enjoyable events of the season. We return thanks for a complimentary ticket.

Sheriff Stroble has made his settlement with the State Treasurer, for the taxes of 1894, and received his quitus for the same. He collected all but about $30 00 of the entire roll, which is a remarkably good showing, and is not exceeded by any other Sheriff in the State. As prompt tax-payers, our citizens cannot be surpassed anywhere, even in these hard times.

Another accident occurred on the Jay railroad last Wednesday evening. The train was coming down the track at a rapid rate, and when near the old Turapike road crossing, the engine suddenly left the track and plunged into the ditch crosswise, turning the log trucks over. Fortunately no one was hurt, although the engine and trucks were full of laborers coming home from their day's work.

One night when Mr. Isaac Reese was stopping with me, says M. F. Hatch, Quartermaster, Washington, I heard him groaning. On going to his room I found him suffering from cramp colic. He was in such agony I feared he would die. I hastily gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was soon relieved and the first words he uttered were: "What was that stuff you gave me?" I informed him. A few days ago we were talking about his attack and he said he was never without that remedy now. I have used it in my family for several years. I know its worth and do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and customers. For sale by H. C. Heintz, druggist, Covington, and Dr. E. B. Faine, Mandeville.

The entertainment last Saturday night at the Town Hall, for the benefit of the Catholic Church, was a grand success. The hall was crowded, and the ladies and gentlemen who favored the audience with vocal and instrumental music, farce comedy, etc., all acquitted themselves in a highly creditable manner, as was evidenced by the frequent encores. The Covington Brass Band furnished the music for the dance. The refreshment tables were well patronized, and doubtless a large sum was realized for the benefit of the church.

A tragedy occurred in New Orleans last Thursday. Lewis Gervais shot Miss Eugenia Bethancourt because she refused to marry him, and also shot her father. The wounded are in the Hospital, and Gervais is in jail.

PERSONALS. Miss Cora Clark left last Wednesday morning to visit New Orleans, Pass Christian, Warmoth's Plantation and other places.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer: Sandy Ford School has had an increased number of pupils.

Mrs. J. Caranagh, of Dean's Mill, on the 10th inst., arrived in Covington on the 10th inst., to open a boarding house in the Wherli building on Columbia street.

Messrs. L. Allison and Bob Sharp gathered one thousand bundles of fodder and "chipped" 10,300 boxes in four days in the latter part of July.

The Sandy Ford Sabbath School was well attended on the 11th inst. A collection was taken up for the purpose of buying Sabbath School literature.

A resolution was passed to build a larger school house, which will also be used as a church. Building will commence in the coming fall.

Mr. Henry Rogers visited Sandy Ford School on the 14th inst. Henry was perfectly delighted and spoke encouragingly to the children and complimented the teacher on having a good organized school.

Mr. Joe St. Cyr, from Houserville, 5th Ward, Tangipahoa, paid us a pleasant visit on the 10th. Mr. St. Cyr has many friends.

Mrs. J. Caranagh had quite a number of guests at the boarding house on the 10th.

All quiet in the Sandy Ford Settlement, everybody being in good cheer. Success to the St. Tammany Farmer. J. C.

New York Mercury: Good for the South! She's got the cotton; she's got the labor; she's got the fuel; now let her make the cloth and the profits.

A number of Plaquemine planters have begun feeding green corn to their mules. The stalks, after the ears are fully grown and the stalks dry are cut a short distance above the ground and with the ears are fed to the mules and eaten with great relish.

At first only a few stalks are given and the quantity is gradually increased. The corn will go as far this way as it would were it permitted to ripen and become dry.

By the provisions of a new state law in New York, no railroad corporation shall hereafter employ a locomotive engineer who is not able to read and write.

ORDINANCE Be it ordained, by the Police Jury of St. Tammany Parish, La., That a new polling place is hereby ordered in the Eighth Ward of this parish, at Pearl River Station, in addition to the one at Gause's store, and the precinct at Gause's store is hereby designated as Precinct No. 1 of the Eighth Ward, and the one at Pearl River Station as Precinct No. 2 of the Eighth Ward, and the road known as the Morgan's Bluff road, running from Morgan's Bluff, on Pearl River, to Shell, is hereby declared to be the dividing line between these two precincts, and all persons living on the lower side of said road shall vote at Gause's store, and all those living on the upper side of said road shall vote at Pearl River Station; and it is hereby ordered that poll books and boxes be furnished accordingly.

Adopted, July 10, 1895. J. M. ABNEY, President. W. G. KENTZEL, Secretary.

Well Satisfied with Ayer's Hair Vigor.

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray. I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor, and was so well satisfied with the results that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It requires only an occasional application of AYER'S Hair Vigor to keep my hair of good color, to remove dandruff, to heal itching humors, and prevent the hair from falling out. I never hesitate to recommend Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HARRIS, Avoca, Neb.
