LOCAL ITEMS.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder... Pratt's Food is a positive preventative of Hog Cholera.

Congress will assemble in Washington City next Monday, Dec. 2. Every parish in the State that has elected delegates to the State Convention has indorsed Gov. Foster.

The cold wave that arrived last Tuesday was all right. A little continued, cold bright weather is what the planters want.

Our groceries are always fresh. No old stock on hand. Detailed at New Orleans prices at Frederick Bros.

We had heavy white frost and ice last Wednesday morning, and the pumps and cisterns were choked up with a bad cold.

Mr. G. S. Strain presented us with some three-pound sweet potatoes last Saturday, which were very fine. Many thanks for the same.

NOTICE.—The Mito Party that was to have taken place at the Garden District School-house, to-night, has been indefinitely postponed.

Live Oak Rye, Pinetop Bourbon, and Wine of Fatwood, we learn, are leading beverages in the prohibition districts of St. Tammany and Washington Parishes.

Mr. B. Feld, the dealer in watches and jewelry, will be in Covington about the middle of December, with a fine assortment from which to select your Christmas presents.

Only 25 days till Christmas, and the little ones are beginning to get on the go—our behavior. Our merchants are already receiving their Christmas toys and confections.

MARRIED.—Thursday, Nov. 21, 1895, by Rev. F. Mathies, at the residence of the groom, Mr. John I. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Mary Barker, all of St. Tammany Parish, La.

Our announcement column is growing right along. Come up and give us your name, and your cash for the same, if you want the vote of the people.

An eloquent appeal for the employment of Confederate Veterans or their families will be found in another column. They do not ask for charity, but seek employment, and all who desire help of any kind should give them an opportunity to better their condition.

We received some mammoth turkeys, this week, from "The Little Farm Well Filled," which is located about nine miles north of Covington. Sweet potatoes there are yielding half a bushel to the hill. This shows what intelligent cultivation can accomplish in the pine woods.

WANTED.—A man and wife to take charge of a place in Mandeville, on the beach.

S. ESCOFFIER, Box 664, New Orleans, La.

A mass meeting of white Democrats will be held at the Court-house, in Covington, on Thursday, December 12, for the purpose of electing four delegates to represent this parish in the State Nominating Convention. All white Democrats are invited to participate in the meeting.

Judge J. S. Bossier paid us a short visit last Tuesday. In reply to our inquiry, the Judge said that he was not a candidate for any office at present. He might be, and he might not, in the near future, but he was a mere "looker on in Venice" for the time being.

BIG TURTLE.—Mr. Emile Frederick received from a U. S. Marshal Guilotte, last Friday evening, a turtle that weighed 310 pounds. It was the center of attraction, all day Saturday. We return thanks for a liberal supply of the meat, Sunday morning, and enjoyed turtle soup for dinner. It was highly palatable, the meat being tender as a spring chicken.

There is no excuse now, in this era of low prices, why a man should not be neatly dressed. Stylish suits and overcoats are being sold at remarkably low prices, considering the fine material and workmanship. Especially is this the case with the firm of Gardier & Scherer, the dealers in fine articles for gentlemen's wear, No. 131 Bay St., New Orleans. Bar this in mind, when you go to the city, if you intend purchasing an outfit in their line.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. Most Perfect Made.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We call the attention of the voters of St. Tammany Parish to the announcement of Hon. James H. Murphy, as a candidate for re-election to the office of Representative. Mr. Murphy has held the position for the past four years, and his record proves that he is worthy of the confidence and support of the people. He knows the needs of the people, and he has the courage of his convictions. He will dare to maintain the right, regardless of fear or favor. A man who has successfully managed his own business, can safely be trusted with the affairs of the public. Such a man is James H. Murphy, and if re-elected, the interests of our parish will be in safe and worthy hands for the next four years.

Archbishop Janssens has given the care of the Catholic Church at Slidell into the hands of the Benedictine Fathers, of St. Boniface Church, New Orleans. This makes it possible to have Sunday service at least once a month, besides weekly visits.

Next Monday, Dec. 2, Rev. Father Joachim, O. S. B., will say mass at the usual hours, and publish all concerning future service in Slidell. Address of the Father St. Boniface Church, 2020 Lapeyrouse St., between Johnson and Galvez sts. New Orleans.

MARRIED.—At St. Francis Xavier's Church, in Madisonville, by Rev. J. K. Koger, Wednesday, Nov. 27, 1895, Luke Delput and Miss Annie Scorza, all of Madisonville.

Mr. Delput is the eldest son of Capt. Ern at D'Epit, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. J. N. Scorza. They received a number of handsome wedding presents. After the wedding a supper was spread, and a grand ball followed. There was a large attendance from the surrounding country, and from New Orleans.

Thanksgiving Day was quietly observed in Covington. Services were held in the Methodist Church.

Capt. Myrot and Capt. Sharp, the officers arrived at the wharf this week with fine cargoes of delicious oysters, which they rapidly disposed of at reasonable prices, as everybody appeared to be oyster hungry.

Rev. W. T. Currie will preach his farewell sermon in Mandeville tomorrow, at 11 a. m., and in Covington at 7 p. m. The public are cordially invited to attend.

To-morrow will be the first Sunday of Advent, the beginning of a season, which is similar to Lent, when destructive amusements are forbidden till King's Day, Jan. 6, 1896.

Mr. C. S. Thery returned from France last Wednesday evening, looking hale and hearty, and was welcomed home by his many friends here.

The woods are full of candidates for wood offices, so we hear, but only one has had the grit to announce his intention. Just come right along, gentlemen, it only costs $2.50 to make your wants known.

Bring in your subscription if you want to continue receiving the FARMER. The year is drawing to a close, and we do not propose to carry over any delinquents. Our list of cash subscribers is steadily increasing, especially since the State campaign has opened.

DIED.—At Mandeville, Monday Nov. 25, 1895, at 2 a. m. Altona Lemette Post, relict of the late Louis Lovering.

Th. Lecea-ed was one of the oldest reside-its of Manleville, where she was universally esteemed. She leaves a number of children and grand-children to mourn her loss.

To retain an abundant head of hair of a natural color to a good old age, the hygiene of the scalp must be observed. Apply Hall's Hair Renewer.

SHOW COMING.

This great show comes highly recommended by the press throughout the country, and is said to be first-class in every respect. The museum of wild animals alone is worth many times the price of admission, while the ring performance is superior to all others.

Mr. W. C. Pharis is still nursing a badly fractured arm which was struck by a falling timber while working on his house last week.

Over Thirty Years Without Sickness.

Mr. H. WETSTEIN, a well-known, enterprising citizen of Byron, Ill., writes: "Before I paid much attention to regulating the bowels, I hardly knew a well day; but since I learned the evil results of constipation, and the efficacy of AYER'S PILLS, I have not had one day's sickness for over thirty years—not one attack of constipation, an invalid for years. She had a prejudice against cathartics, but as soon as she began to use Ayer's Pills her health was restored."
