King Rex is on his way to Covington. Long live the King.

The Millhaven farm, near Covington, is for sale. See advertisement.

For rent—A comfortable cottage in New Covington. Apply to John Esterlein.

February is here, bright and clear. May no more blizzards appear, at least not this year.

The young folks gave an enjoyable euchre party at Claiborne Hotel, last Tuesday night.

Active preparations are being made for the grand Mardi Gras celebration in Covington this year.

A cold winter makes a good crop year. Here is your cold winter, now bring along your good crops.

We have mailed a number of small bills this week, which we have no doubt will be approved and promptly paid.

A judicial sale will take place at the Courthouse to-day, in the case of Alonzo Sharp vs. Tobe Summers. See advertisement.

Some of our charitable citizens should start a relief fund for the benefit of the drouth sufferers of North Louisiana, and let everybody contribute according to his means.

We acknowledge the compliment of a serenade, last Sunday night, by the Covington Quartette Club. Their voices were in good trim, and their singing replete with harmonious melody.

Rev. J. M. Williams, Presbyterian minister, will hold service in the Methodist Church, to-morrow morning and evening, Feb. 7, at the usual hours. The public are cordially invited to attend.

The eclipse of the sun took place on schedule time last Monday afternoon. The sky was clear, at the time, and many of our citizens viewed the spectacle through the medium of smoked glass.

The severe cold weather of last week had the good effect of setting back the fruit trees, which are generally in bloom about this time, and fruit growers predict that this will be a good fruit year.

Hunting has been good for the past two weeks, and the sportsmen have been slaying doves, robins and rice birds, with an occasional wild pigeon, although the latter are seldom seen in this vicinity.

John Cook, accused of the murder of J. P. Thompson, and whose case ended in a mistrial, on account of the illness of one of the jurors, has been released on a bond of $3000, to appear for trial at the next term of court.

The East Louisiana Fair Association met in the Town Hall last Friday, and appointed a committee to select ground for the race track, etc. Over one thousand dollars has already been subscribed to the stock, and there will be no difficulty about raising the necessary funds to insure its success.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Gaston Bertus and Miss Eugenie Prevost, which will take place next Thursday afternoon, Feb. 11, at 5 o'clock, at St. Ann's Church, New Orleans. We acknowledge the compliment of an invitation, and extend our congratulations in advance to the prospective bride and groom.

Unconscious Humor—It is not always safe to refuse a parance when wishing to compliment.

A story is told of a certain lawyer, extremely restless, but in conversation unusually dull, who was showing off his newly built home. The bookroom grided himself especially on a machine he had contrived for his own use, so secluded from the rest of the building that he could pore over his books in private, quite secure from disturbance.

"And this is capital," exclaimed the visitor, with unconscious irony. "You can read and study here all day, and no human being to disturb you."

District Court.

The criminal term of the District Court adjourned last Monday. The Grand Jury returned twelve bills, and the following judgments were rendered:

NOTICE.

For the Drouth Sufferers.

All persons interested are hereby notified that a meeting will be held in the Town Hall, next Monday afternoon, Feb. 8, at 4 o'clock, for the purpose of taking action for the relief of the drouth sufferers of north Louisiana. Everybody come, and join in the good work.

The drouth stricken sections still ask aid, and nearly every Parish but our's has responded in some way. We see from the local press where committees from different places have been selected to appeal to the generosity of the State for help. Why is it St. Tammany has done nothing? Cannot Covington start the ball and thereby get the good and benevolent people of our Parish to contribute their mite? Charity and sympathy, twin sisters, go hand in hand and are ennobling, elevating and Christ-like: then let us emulate the good example of our sister towns and Parishes and do something for suffering humanity.

The second session of the Catholic Winter School of America will open at Tulane Hall, in New Orleans, on Sunday, Feb. 28, and continue till March 31, inclusive. There will be lectures every school day, on literary, scientific and religious subjects, by eminent lecturers from all parts of the country, and impressive religious services on Sundays. Admission to the lectures, 25 cents.

Koegerl officiating, and was largely attended.

MARDI GRAS In Covington.

Mardi Gras will be celebrated in Covington this year with a grand street pageant, day and night, and a fine ball at night in the Town Hall. Every preparation is being made to make this one of the grandest celebrations of the day ever witnessed in Covington. Our town will doubtless be crowded on that day with pleasure-seekers, and there be fun enough for all. If you want to have a good time come to Covington and spend Mardi Gras with your friends, instead of among strangers in the city.

Mandeville, Madisonville, Abita Springs, German and Liberty Settlements are invited to join the Covington Club in celebrating the day.
President—R. Badon.
Vice President—Chas. Heintz, Sr.
Secretary—John J. Stroble.
Treasurer—Richard McKilgitt.
The Club will meet every Tuesday night, in the Town Hall. All interested are respectfully invited to attend.
