

St. Tammany Farmer.

August 28, 1897

The Beaucaudray place is for sale. See advertisement.

Camp Meeting will open next Wednesday night.

Bring your cotton to this market. Highest prices paid.

By the way, don't forget to register if you want to vote.

What has become of the East Louisiana Fair Association?

There was an enjoyable hop at Claiborne Hotel last Monday night.

The pleasant weather this week has dried up the mud, and placed the roads in good condition again.

A grand social hop will be given at the Central Pavilion, in Madisonville on Saturday night, Sept. 4.

The popular Jackson Park, in Mandeville, is offered for sale. See advertisement in another column.

The fine Larose place, in Claiborne, is for sale. It is one of the most attractive places near Covington. See advertisement.

The Town Hall floor was well waxed and oiled for the dance last Wednesday night. Mr. Charles Stroble did the oiling.

A new supply of letter heads, envelopes, etc., just received at this office. Give us your orders, and we guarantee satisfaction.

Mr. A. Sharp's handsome residence is nearing completion, and will be an ornament to the town. Mr. Wm. Brennan is the architect.

Mr. A. Pechon, the baker, has come out with a handsome new delivery wagon. This is a sign of prosperity, and we are glad to see that somebody is getting rich these hard times.

We learn that Mr. Frank Carambat has purchased the Saunders place, north of town. It is one of the finest places in this vicinity, and a splendid location for a hotel or summer and winter resort.

Keep off the grass when you pass along the sidewalk in front of the Town Hall. There is a well worn path in the middle of the brick pavement, and by keeping in the path you can easily avoid stepping on the grass that has grown up between the bricks.

Of the 87 cotton mills in this country 51 are in operation in the South and running on full time and paying handsome dividends to their owners. The time was when all the cotton mills of the country were located north of Mason and Dixon's line, but the period is not far distant when all such establishments will be in the Southern states, including one in Covington.

Remember the entertainment in Mandeville to-night for the benefit of the new public school building at Lewisburg. Some of the best talent of New Orleans will take part, and it promises to be the coming event of the season. Aside from the attractive program, the worthiness of the cause should induce all to attend and lend a helping hand.

The Very Reverend B. Neihart, Superior of the Redemptorists in Detroit, who was located for years at St. Alphonsus Church in New Orleans, and is well known as an able speaker, will preach the sermon of the day, in St. Peter's Church, during mass to-morrow, at 10 A. M.

He is engaged this week to preach a retreat to the Sisters in Chinchuba.

The Covington Academy will re-open on Wednesday, Sept. 15. This model school, under the skillful management of the Misses Whelpley, acquired a deserved reputation last year for efficiency, as was evidenced by the marked advance which the pupils made under their careful and able tuition, and the coming session will doubtless open with a large attendance. We call attention to the advertisement, in another column.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy always affords prompt relief.

For sale by W. C. Heintz, druggist, Covington, and R. B. Paine, Mandeville.

MINSTRELS TO-NIGHT

The celebrated New Orleans Minstrels will give one of their matchless performances at the Town Hall to-night. The troupe includes thirty comedians, vocalists and dancers, and every one is an artist in his line. A rare treat is in store for all who attend, and the Town Hall will doubtless be crowded to-night. Admission, 25 cents. Reserved seats, 25 cents extra.

TO LOG MEN

Covington La., Aug. 18, 1897. All owners of the logs against the Tchefuncta bridge, are hereby notified to remove the same immediately.

W. N. COOPER, President Police Jury.

The entertainment at the Town Hall, last Wednesday night, for the benefit of the Episcopal Church, was well attended. The performance opened with a tableaux, "Liberty," represented by Miss Margot Roubion, and 37 little girls. Then followed a piano duet, by Miss Rebecca Weaver and Mrs. Lyons, which was rendered in a most artistic and charming manner. The next was a vocal solo, by Mrs. C. L. Smith, and then came a laughable farce, "Sarah's Young Man," by Misses Alice Bodous-que, Myra Richard and Irene Featherstone, and Messrs. Alonzo Strain, Rosser Stroble and Silas Smith. The audience then repaired to the upper hall, where music and dancing were enjoyed till a late hour. The entertainment was a very enjoyable one, from beginning to end, and no doubt a substantial sum was realized for the benefit of the Church.

Mr. W. N. Cooper, President of the Police Jury, has had the Cooper bridge, over the Little Bogue Falia, rebuilt, at a point a little lower down. The former bridge was washed away by the high water last week.

Covington Academy.

Re-opens, Wednesday, September 15, 1897. Complete organization from Primary to Academic Classes. Terms: From one to four dollars monthly. Languages and music extra. A limited number of boarders received.

STRAYED.—Since the middle of May, a brown Mare, with heavy mane and tail. Had a small brass bell on. No marks or brands. She was last seen near Wortham's still, on Pearl River. A reasonable reward will be paid for her return to H. B. Cook.

CARD OF THANKS.—The lady members of Christ Church hereby tender their sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted them at their entertainment last Wednesday night.

The Fourth Battalion failed to come forth. This was through no fault of the members, but was due entirely to the continued inclement weather. Their failure to arrive at the appointed time was a great disappointment to the people of Covington and vicinity, as preparations had been made to give them a cordial welcome, and make their stay here a season of enjoyment and pleasure. We hope they will decide to come at some future time, when all the elements will be on their good behavior.

PERSONALS.

A party of ladies and gentlemen from the Crescent Hotel, in Man'ville, enjoyed a delightful trolley ride last Friday to Covington. A delicious luncheon was served by Mr. Ernest Domergue, the general host of the Commercial House. The party was composed of the following persons: Ulyric Marioni, Jr. and Miss Gabrielle Roux, Mr. Jules J. Jacob, Jr. and Miss Amel'e Gomez, Mr. Gus. Mugnier and Louise Gomez, Mr. Ernest Levy and Miss Eliska Roux. They were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gomez.

Prof. Dillard, of Tulane University, arrived last Tuesday, and will spend a few days at Claiborne Hotel.

Misses Emily, Adele and Blanche Dittman, and Mrs. Lipcomb and three children, of New Orleans, are stopping at Fairview Cottage near Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Badaux, of Madisonville, spent Tuesday in Covington, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stroble.

Misses Margie and Aline Abbott, of Macombe City, are visiting their aunt Mrs. Hardy H. Smith.

Miss Alma Vance, of New Orleans, is the guest of Mr. C. L. Smith.

Mr. Howard Burns, of Los Angeles Cal., arrived last Tuesday, on a visit to his mother, Mrs. J. Burns, of Chubby Hill Plantation.

CAMP MEETING.

The St. Tammany Camp Meeting will open on Wednesday, Sept. 1, 1897, at 8 p. m., and continue eight days. A number of visiting ministers will occupy the pulpit. The Camp Meeting will be conducted this year in the same manner as heretofore, as the fence posts could not be delivered in time.

F. MATTHIES.

A Remarkable Cure of Chronic Diarrhoea.

In 1862, when I served my country as a private in Company A, 167th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a 50 cent bottle; and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great Remedy, and recommend it to all suffering veterans. If in doubt write me. Yours gratefully, HENRY STREIBERGER, Allentown, Pa. Sold by W. C. Heintz, druggist, Covington, and R. B. Paine, Mandeville.
