February, 4, 1899.
ISSUED EVERY SATURDAY

Religious Notice—Time of holding services at Covington and Mandeville, preaching at Covington, 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., on the 2nd and 4th Sundays. Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. Prayer meeting, Wednesday, 7:30 P. M. Mandeville, preaching at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., on the 1st and 3rd Sundays. F. G. HOUTT, P. C.

Lumber is rolling in every day from the saw mill of Dutch Bros.

The Town Council will meet in regular session next Tuesday night.

The rainy season has now lasted for about seven months, and the consequence is the whole country is in the mud soup.

Mrs. W. B. McKinley, of Chicago, arrived Wednesday night, and is stopping at Claiborne Hotel.

Scranton, Miss., has organized a canning factory which is backed by the business men of the town. That means business for Scranton.

Rev. Jno. M. Williams will hold service in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning and night. The public are cordially invited to attend.

An interesting letter from Cuba will be found in another column. The writer, Mr. G. Ulmer, is an old resident of the parish, well-known to many of our readers.

The body of Capt. Sturtevant, the pilot of the ill-fated yacht Paul Jones, was found floating near Bird Island, last Saturday, and taken to New Orleans for interment.

NOTICE—All State and Parish licenses are now due, and if not paid by the 31st of March, the same will be put in the hands of the attorney to enforce collection.

Smallpox is raging in several parts of Mississippi. There have been cases reported at Lacey, Lumberton, Hattiesburg and Enterprise. It is mostly among the negroes.

We acknowledge, with many thanks, the receipt of the Picaeuvre's Chart of the "Notable Events for the year 1898," as well as a beautiful Calendar for this year.

Private Geo. Scholtz, of Company L, Second Louisiana Volunteers, who has been on sick leave at Mandeville for some time, has been granted a discharge on account of disability.

Mr. H. Michaels, proprietor of the popular Long Branch Hotel, at Abita Springs, remembered the FARMER with some delicious water cress last Monday, which was highly appreciated.

Unknown property owners, and absent owners whose addresses are unknown, will find an interesting notice from Sheriff Stroble in another column. They are invited to pay their taxes without delay.

An enjoyable surprise party was given last Sunday night, at the residence of Capt. Frank Badaux, in Mandeville. About 22 couples were present. Music was furnished by the Central String Band.

On Monday night, Feb. 13, the Mandeville Carnival Club will give a grand ball at the U. F. B. A. Hall. Admission 25 cents. The proceeds, over expenses, will be devoted to charitable purposes.

Owners of live stock should come forward and pay their taxes at once, or Sheriff Stroble will proceed to sell the same, which will incur additional cost to them. They will save money by paying up now.

Our neighboring town of Mandeville will celebrate Mardi Gras this year with a grand street parade and balls. The town will doubtless be crowded on that day, Feb. 14, and an enjoyable time is assured to all visitors.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Mr. Gilbert Durand of 800 Royal street, New Orleans, worker in copper, tin, zinc and sheet iron. All in need of anything in his line will find it to their advantage to send him their order.

Mr. G. S. Allison, an old well-known citizen of Louisville, Ky., who is a guest of the Johnson House, paid us a pleasant visit last Tuesday. He is delighted with the location of our town, but thinks we should pay more attention to the matter of drainage and other improvements, including the weather, for he is anxious to try his luck at fishing. Mr. Allison is accompanied by his wife. We hope they will enjoy their visit to the "Sunny South."

NOTICE—OUR GREAT BARGAIN SALE FOR NEXT WEEK WILL BE AS FOLLOWS:

$1 50 Blue and Black Flannel Pants, For $1 15.

LOUIS MEDAL, STRICTLY CASH AND ONE PRICE STORE.

NORTHEAST CORNER OF COLUMBIA AND LOCKWOOD STREETS, COVINGTON, LA.

I am now located in my new store, northeast corner of Columbia and Lockwood streets, where I will carry a select stock of General Merchandise. I will also solicit and deliver daily, to any family, all orders that will be intrusted to my care, at city prices. C. O. D. Give me a trial and be convinced. Yours,

Franklinton New Era.

We have received a note from Mr. A. G. Russell, editor of the Franklinton New Era, stating the publication of the paper will be resumed as soon as new presses and a building can be secured. This should be good news for Washington Parish. Mr. Russell has given them the best paper they ever had. His enterprise is deserving of their hearty support. The New Era will emerge Phoenix-like from the fire, and if possible will be better than ever before.

The composition, "A Visit to the Country," which appears in another column, was written by a little girl student of the Franklin School, New Orleans, and was selected for the Educational Convention, recently held in the city. It shows the young writer to be of an observant character, and it will doubtless be read with interest.

Next Saturday night, Feb. 11, a grand complimentary masquerade ball will be given at the Central Pavilion, in Madisonville, by the Carnival Club, which is composed of the leading citizens of the town. Invitations are being issued and it will doubtless be a fine affair.

The sloop Commodore Moorman, Capt. Ed. M. Glockner, arrived last Monday with a cargo of fine oysters, and sold out Tuesday night. Capt. Glockner presented us with some unusually large ones in the shell, which were the finest we have seen this season.

WHAT IS IT?—The Abbeville Meridian says: Andrew Thorpe, an attorney of New Iberia, is interested in the discovery of a chemical process which it is thought will revolutionize the manufacture of sugar. Mr. Thorpe has had many tempting offers made by the large sugar interests of the State for his share in the scheme, but so firmly is his faith fixed in the ultimate success of the undertaking, that he has lightly declined all of them.

DIED—Mrs. J. B. Williams died at her home on Bogue Chitto on Friday, Jan. 27. She leaves a husband, two children and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.

DIED—At his residence in Madisonville, Sunday, Jan. 22, 1899, Joseph Rapier, aged 62 years. A native of Madisonville. He leaves a brother and sister, Mrs. E. Miller, of Covington. The funeral took place Monday afternoon, Jan. 23, Rev. Jos. Koegerl, officiating.

DANGERS OF THE GRIPPE—The greatest danger of La grippe is of its resulting into pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for La grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure La grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take.
