

Tammany Journal
Feb. 24, 1900.
ISSUED EVERY SATURDAY

There are still a number of cases of measles in town and throughout the country.

Sealed bids are invited for furnishing wood for the Ice Factory. See notice in another column.

It is the duty of every man who voted in the primaries to support the nominees, and do all in his power to secure their election.

For RENT.—Large furnished house, cheap. C. V. QUAVE, Covington, La.

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Frederick were made happy by the arrival of a fine son at their home, on Friday, Feb. 9. May he live long and prosper.

Rev. J. M. Williams will hold service at Slidell to-morrow, and at Pearl River, Monday night. The public are cordially invited to attend.

All branches of industry in our state have prospered under Democratic rule, and one of its most beneficial results is eight cent cotton for the farmers.

LIQUIDATION SALE at the New Orleans Store, on Columbia Street. Bargains every day. Dry Goods, Shoes, Notions, Etc.

The delinquent tax list will be published next week. All who have not paid their taxes should do so without further delay, if they wish to avoid additional costs and penalties.

Remember the grand fancy dress and masquerade ball, at the U. F. B. A. Hall, in Madisonville, to-night. Extensive preparations have been made, and it will doubtless be an enjoyable affair.

The U. F. B. Association will give a grand fancy dress and masquerade ball in Madisonville, this Saturday night, Feb. 24. We call attention to the advertisement in another column.

When you go to New Orleans, stop at Penn's Hotel, corner of St. Charles and Poydras streets. All front rooms, newly furnished throughout. Charges reasonable, by the day or week.

Mr. M. A. Strickland has withdrawn from the race for Judge in the district composed of Tangipahoa, St. Helena and Livingston, so Judge Robert Reid gets the nomination, without holding a second primary.

The wires of the Cumberland Telephone Company have reached Covington and are being placed in position. The office will be in the rear of Mr. O. V. Richard's store, in the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. Tolson.

Quarterly Conference will be held in the Methodist Church this Saturday, Feb. 24. There will be preaching by Rev. S. S. Keener, P. E., Saturday and Sunday, at the usual hours. The public are cordially invited to attend.

As Secretary of the Police Jury, we announce that we have a number of warrants on hand, for small amounts, signed and approved, and if the parties interested will call for them, they can go to the Bank of Covington and get their money.

A regular blizzard prevailed here last Saturday and Sunday, with strong North wind. Ponds were frozen over, and wells were ice bound for two days. Great injury was done to young vegetables and strawberries. It tried to snow, but the weather was too cold.

Rosa Dent, colored, died near Abita Springs, last Sunday night, at Mrs. Schirm's place, from the effect of exposure to the cold. She was found in the yard near the house. An inquest was held by Mr. Zach Strain, J. P., who returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Manager Loftus, of the Chicago baseball team, will visit Hammond, to look over the advantages offered by that town as a training ground for the team. He should visit Covington before making his selection, and we think he will find just what he wants here. There is no more ideal spot for the purpose than Camp Caffery.

PARISH WARRANTS
All persons holding parish warrants can have the same cashed in full at the Bank of Covington, and all persons whose bills have been approved by the Police Jury are requested to call on the Secretary and get their warrants, which will be paid in full at the Bank.

Notice to License Payers.
Kindly note that the State and Parish Licenses are now due, and if not paid by Thursday, March 1, 1900, they will be placed in the hands of the attorney for collection. All license payers must come to Covington to pay the same, as it will be impossible for me to leave my office to make collections.

JOHN J. STROBLE,
Sheriff and Ex-officio Tax-Collector.

Next Tuesday will be Mardi Gras. There will be no public observance of the day in Covington, but a large number of our citizens will take advantage of the liberal rates offered by the East Louisiana Railroad, and go to the city. This is one of the numerous advantages of having a railroad, which is fully appreciated, and it should be liberally patronized, either for business or pleasure.

The Democratic State campaign will open at Donaldsonville, next Saturday, March 3, with Senator McEnery, Governor Foster, Congressman Broussard, Auditor Heard and Judge Guion as the principal speakers. They will doubtless visit Covington before the campaign closes. If they do, they will meet with a rousing reception.

Mr. John A. Todd, member of the Police Jury for the Seventh Ward, accompanied by his wife, spent a few days in Covington this week, the guests of Mr. W. C. Pharis. Mr. Todd has been ill for about two months, having had the measles and suffered a relapse. He is now able to walk about, although very weak, but we hope he will soon be restored to his usual robust health.

The Progressive Euchre Club met at the residence of Mr. S. M. Whelpley last Monday night, and had an enjoyable time. The winners of the prizes were as follows: Lady's first prize, Miss Emma Whelpley; second prize, Mr. Julian Smith; booby prize, Mr. H. H. Koppman. Gentleman's first prize, Mr. A. S. Strain; second prize, Mr. G. Thomas; booby prize, Mr. Louis Hebert. After the games, choice refreshments were served.

F. G. HOCUTT,
Superintendent.

NOTICE
Bids will be received, until March 5, for 900 cords of baker's pine wood, four feet long, to be delivered at the Ice Factory, from April 15, to July 15.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Apply to C. V. QUAVE, Manager, Covington, La., Feb. 20, 1900.

DIED—In San Antonio, Texas, Monday, Feb. 19, 1900, at 8:15 p. m., Ida Ruth Guedry, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Guedry.

Miss Ida was a very sweet, lovable young lady, having just entered womanhood. She was the idol of her parents, who spared no efforts to save her from the grim destroyer. She had been sick for some time, consumption having developed four or five months ago. She spent some time in Covington, hoping that the pure air would prove beneficial, but neither the pure air nor the aid of the skill of physicians could save her.

Death came quietly and peacefully. Father, mother, brothers and sisters all were around the bedside, having journeyed to San Antonio several days ago.

The deceased was well known and highly esteemed in Covington, and the sad news of her death was received with sincere regret by her many friends here, who sympathize with her parents and relatives in their sad bereavement.

The remains arrived in Covington on the noon train, last Wednesday, accompanied by the members of the family, and were followed to the grave by a number of sorrowing friends. Rev. R. Q. Mallard, of New Orleans, officiated at the funeral.

DIED—In Covington, La., Monday, Feb. 19, 1900, Charles Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. David T. Davis, aged 1 year, 5 months and 16 days. The remains were interred in the Davis Grave Yard, near Abita Springs.

DIED—In Covington, La., Tuesday, Feb. 20, 1900, Alice Rapp, wife of Wm. H. Hoffman, aged 43 years. The remains were taken to New Orleans for interment.

WANTED—SEVERAL PERSONS for District Office Managers in this state to represent me in their own and surrounding counties. Willing to pay yearly $500, payable weekly. Desirable employment with unusual opportunities. References exchanged. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. E. A. Park, 220 Canton Building, Chicago.

The Mardi Gras festivities of Mandeville were ushered in by a children's fancy masquerade party in honor of the first birthday of little Roy Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Smith. Conspicuous among the merry makers and graceful dancers were Ruby Dea, Virginia, Viola Esell, Stella and L. Bouquette, E. Conrad, Emily, Mildred and Frank Smith. After the departure of the children, the following young ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a delightful dance: Misses E. Williamson, E. McCasal, of New Orleans, A. and O. Smith, Messrs. L. Morgan, C. David, T. Gussman, H. de la Greve, K. Smith, P. and A. Shultz and H. Smith, the young pianist. The usual Mardi Gras Ball will be given by the gentlemen of the village, which promises to be a delightful affair.

Miss Aggie Miller, one of Greter's most esteemed young ladies, accompanied by Mr. L. Robert Roostrip, spent last Sunday here, the guests of Misses L. and B. Cooper.

Covington Fire Co. No. 1 gave an enjoyable masquerade ball last Thursday night. In the contest for the stick-pin, little Miss Deedy Miles had $24 05, and Abita Stroble had $32 15, and won the prize. A good sum was raised for the benefit of the Company.

MARRIED—At Pearl River, La., Wednesday, Feb. 21, 1900, Louis Talley and Miss Martha Welch, Rev. J. J. Kelly officiating.

DIED—At Shady Grove, La., Wednesday night, Feb. 22, 1900, Nannie Smith, wife of W. L. Warren.

DIED—At Postchatoe, La., Wednesday, Feb. 22, 1900, Ellen Brennan, wife of Joseph Davenport, aged 38 years.

We violate no confidence in expressing the opinion that if the Republican ticket stood the ghost of a show to be elected the late-makers at Alexandria would have encouraged very little difficulty in finding Republican patriots willing and anxious to save the State.
