The entertainment in the Methodist Churchyard, last Tuesday night, was very well attended. The tableaux were charmingly presented and greatly admired, and the refreshment tables were well patronized. These semi-monthly gatherings are becoming very popular, and help along the funds for the repair of the Church building.

Errata.—In regard to the card of Rev. L. C. Carter, in last week's FARMER, accusing me of making a false representation, I will state that it was an error in the print, as I am organizing an M. E. Church, and not an A. M. E. Church. It was organized in New Covington April 13, 1900, by Presiding Elder S. Duncan, H. C. WILSON, Pastor.

Nelson Calhoun, alias Albert Brown, colored, who was wanted in Marion County, Miss., on the charge of attempted rape, was arrested at the postoffice in Covington last Saturday evening.
