

St. Tammany Farmer. July 28, 1900.

Mr. James Keyser is authorized to act as agent for the Farmer at Slidell.

U. A. O. D. BOGUE FALLS GROVE No. 21. Meets on the first and third Saturdays in the month, at 7:30 P. M., at Castle Hall, K. of P., Covington, La.

See Mandeville election proclamation, in another column.

Rev. Jno. M. Williams will hold service in Mandeville tomorrow.

Rev. W. G. Currie opened tent meeting on the N. O. & N. E. R. R. near Alton, yesterday, at East Union Church, and will continue the same for about two weeks.

Remember the grand excursion to Mandeville, on Thursday, Aug. 9, for the benefit of the Covington Brass Band. The advertisement will be found in another column.

A civil term of the District court has been in session this week.

The case of H. J. Smith vs. the Town of Covington was tried and submitted to the court.

Since the recent decision of the Supreme Court sets at rest the mooted question relative to the poll tax, it would be well for all voters to bear in mind that said tax must be paid this year and next, on or before the 31st day of December of each year, in order to vote in any election held in 1902.

Another point brought to public attention regarding the payment of the poll tax is, how would it affect young men casting their first vote. The article in the constitution fully provides for this matter, the voter being simply required to pay his poll tax promptly when he becomes of voting age, in order to vote at succeeding elections.

A person with an ounce of energy can live sumptuously in this Southern pine country. A dinner can be taken out of the garden or truck patch any day of any month in the year. Some of our farmers plant the second crop between the rows before the first one is gathered. If this is not the land of milk and honey, "it is most."—Poplarville Free Press.

Personal Mention.

Miss Alys Lafaye, of New Orleans, is the guest of Miss Annie Smith.

Mrs. F. Leopold, of Amite City, is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. Stern.

Miss Dedie Miles left last Sunday, to visit her mother, Mrs. L. M. Miles, in New Orleans.

Mr. Geo. Smith and family, of New Orleans, are located at the residence of Mr. E. E. Smith, for a couple of months.

Mrs. H. H. Hodges, after a pleasant visit to her mother, Mrs. W. B. Cook, left last Sunday for her home in McComb City.

Messrs. Louis Davenport and L. A. Cooby, of Ponchartroula, drove over to Covington last Monday, and returned Tuesday.

WANTED—SEVERAL PERSONS for District Office Managers in this State to represent me in their own and surrounding counties. Willing to pay $1000 per year, payable weekly. Possibilities employment with beautiful opportunities. References exchanged. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. S. A. Park, 320 Canton Building, Chicago.

Mr. Chas. G. Kleeman, a thoroughly practical and progressive farmer, whose place is six miles from Covington, presented us, last Saturday, with some delicious Niagara grapes.

Mr. F. Matthews, of the German Settlement, also sent us a supply of the Concord grapes this week. As we have frequently remarked in the past, there is no finer grape country in the world than St. Tammany Parish.

LOST—A type-written document, describing St. Tammany Parish, its towns, resources, etc. Reward for its return to this office, at Mr. Capper.

The Best Remedy for Stomach and Bowel Troubles.

"I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most of all the proprietary medicines of any note. Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says Dr. W. Wakefield, of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family, and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form."

Writers for the Farmer. Along the Waters of Bogue Falaya.

Some day I'll take my pen in hand and get my ink and paper out, Go sit down somewhere quiet, and I'll then proceed to write about The fairest land beneath the sky; Of Nature's work the epilogue; Of beauties that profusely lie Along the waters of the Bogue.

I'll write of strolls down woodland ways, O'er paths with fragrant pine cones spread, Ere Sol has cast his golden rays Through leafy branches over; Of voyagers in mornings cool, In graceful skiff or light pirogue To find some trout-infested pool Along the waters of the Bogue.

I'll write of pine trees stretching high Up through the unresisting air, As if they strove to pierce the sky And see the God who placed them there; Of birds that through the summer days, In solo, duet, and trio, Four forth their souls in gladsome lays, Along the waters of the Bogue.

I'll write of many a bosky dell Adown which tender couples stray, The same old tale of love to tell, And ever in the same old way; While cupid hovers over, and With archness smiles, the little rogue! To see them pre-ach other's hand, Along the waters of the Bogue.

I'll write of nights when Luna beams Adown on wood and vale and hill, And bathes the earth in silver streams That make the land seem fairer still; While all around us everywhere, Soft peace and quiet are the rogue, And not a sound disturbs the air Along the waters of the Bogue.

Yes, as to these and kindred things, Some day I'm going to allow Pegasus to outspread his wings, Although I really wonder how My pauper pen can justice do To all that endless catalogue Of beauties that enchant the view Along the waters of the Bogue.

DIED.—In Madisonville, La., Sunday, July 22, 1900, Mrs. M. Genevieve Koepf, nee Chatellier, wife of Christian Koepf.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. F. G. Hocutt officiating.

Heart Burn.—When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, indicating that you have eaten too much, take one of Chamberlain's Liver and stomach tablets and the heartburn may be avoided.
