

Announcements.

We are authorized to announce ROY. S. M. ROBERTSON, of East Baton Rouge, as a candidate for re-election to Congress from the Sixth District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

It is reported that Texas truck farmers are making $225 per acre on their cabbage.

Twenty-six members of the United States Senate are called the millionaire club. They are worth $136,000,000.

The first bale of new crop cotton received in New York was auctioned at the Exchange in that city on July 24 for charity and brought 1 1/2 cents per pound, or $79.20.

E. S. Ferguson, vice president of the Louisiana Eastern Railroad Co., was in Franklinton on the 25th, inst. looking after the interest of the contemplated road from Covington to Franklinton.—Franklinton New Era.

Crocker and Hill have buried the hatchet and have agreed that no personal differences they may have shall be permitted to interfere with complete unity of purpose in having the electoral vote of New York thrown to Bryan and Stevenson.

The first sack of rice of the new crop was sold in Rayne, last Tuesday. It brought $100, and the amount was immediately donated by Messrs. Bernard & Chappuis to the families of the New Orleans police officers who were murdered by the negro Charles.

Conger and others at Peking have sent word to Tien Tsin that a truce was signed July 17; that the legations were alive and had ample provisions, though short of ammunition. Chaffee has reached Taku and gone to Tien Tsin, and the advance on Peking began last Tuesday.

Chief of Police Devery and Fire Chief Croker, of New York, were asked for a definition of heroism and replied as follows: Devery—Heroism is the taking of a tortious chance to save a fellow being from danger or death. Croker—Heroism is merely conscientious fulfillment of unlooked-for duty.

To avoid the possibility of the presidential election interfering with the sale of the New Orleans sewerage and water bonds, the city board of liquidation has changed the date for opening bids for those securities from the 15th of October to the 15th of December. The board has done wisely; the money market will be stronger and the bonds being better prices when Bryan is elected President.

A marriage ceremony was performed in Toronto recently with a substitute for a ring, which, though odd and amusing, was appropriate for the occasion. The couple went over from the American side of the St. Lawrence river, but forgot to take a ring. As there was no ring to be had in the house, the resourceful clergyman sent for his wife's sewing scissors and with the finger clasp completed the ceremony.

St. Louis is still disrupted by the strike of street car employees. On July 29 two cars on different streets were blown up and a bombardment opened on a third line.—Boston Beacon.

St. Louis has been at the mercy of a mob for two months. If the people and officials of Missouri and St. Louis had the determination and action of Louisiana's governor, New Orleans' mayor and men, her lawless element would not terrorize the city for more than two days.—

While the Chinese are trying to drive the "foreign devils" away from the Flowery Kingdom, Canada and the United States are doing everything possible to keep the Chinese away from America.
Neither wants the other, and doubtless the Chinese would be willing to call off all "beta" and stay at home if the "foreign devils" would do likewise. Such an understanding would end the massacres and restore peace.—Times Democrat.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fit the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

ton, and R. E. Palmer, Mandeville.

Mandeville

By Land and Water.

Trunks are being packed, and the question of the hour is, "where shall we go for the rest of the season?" Shall it be the sea-shore, mountains, Northern Lakes, or in the far west?
It is told of a man (this history is one of many) that he died alone in a poor-house in California when he had wandered for several years among the mines, in search of gold.
While, on the little farm he had sold, a valuable vein of mica had been discovered, which resulted in millions to the purchaser of the old home place, he died thus among strangers—in need not only of a portion of the wealth which had come to the lucky stranger who had succeeded him, but longing for just one drink from the spring near his doorway on the "old farm." Was it the travesty of fate, or was it lack of seeking nearer home for blessings? This little life lesson may be applied to the people of New Orleans. Years ago Mandeville was the popular resort of the wealthy pleasure-seeker, not only of this and adjoining States, but from the far North and East. Here are beautiful homes—the owners in Europe many of them this season, when home is the safest haven just now. For some reason Mandeville during the past few seasons has struck the popular fan-vain.
When it does, the Northeastern R.
R. and the East Louisiana, the Louisville & Nashville and the New Camelia will not be able to carry the health and pleasure seekers bound for Mandeville. Do the people need a microscope to see its advantages, or a diving-rod to find the minerals which contribute health to its pure waters in this charming resort on the North shore of the beautiful Lake Pontchartrain?

When you see two or three capitalists bending forward in earnest conversation over a lunch table down town, or on a corner close drawn to a bank building, or earnest in conversation that they are plucking imaginary threads off their neighbors' coats, or attempting to light a cigar in a dimly lighted place, you can depend upon it, it is either "How can we get rapid transit across Lake Pontchartrain?" or the "Drainage question," or "How can we make it pay?"

Meanwhile beautiful, sleepy Mandeville lies rocked in its cradle of green, on one side by the dimpling lake, on the other by the foot of Dame Nature. Back and forth rush the waves about the docks, or roll in heavy white-capped breakers.
On the bathing beach, unsurpassed in the Southern country, fish boat about, giving a tantalizing glimpse of silver sides. The other day, wandering along the shore, I saw an alligator lying dead or dying, just about its own idle sportmen.
His skin was worth fifteen dollars at least. In this process, the people seeking gold in the Klondyke were what was a trip on the well equipped Northeastern & East Louisiana, and the charming trip on the New Camelia, where the clean decks make us forget our dust-grimed town, when we recline in our steamer chair gazing half asleep in the offing, while the motoring tug "Tangal" and low swung chorus of the negro band on the lower deck lull us into forgetfulness, while the great heart-throb of the "Pride of the Lake" propel us across the clear waters in the cool of the evening or early dawn, while we watch the ever changing pictures as the round red sun goes down in the west, or the effect on land and water as he rises to gild the world.
Or to the busy humbler the delight of the swift transfer from town to country sights and sounds—ever grateful even to the blasé man of the world—in the perfect train service via the Northeastern and East Louisiana, under the new management. Along shore, over the wonderful bridge of the Northeastern Railway, through the heart of pine forests, to the proprietors of the wonderful flower kingdom, which always, in this garden country, follows the windings of the steel railways. The southern songsters, bending with joyous weight the water grasses. The varied colored water lilies and mosquito-hawks—bits of floating color in the green, all send us to pleasure, because what most the sight is beautiful, while we breathe pure air into tired lungs.

The hotels and boarding-houses are well furnished and clean; the meals well cooked. Meat and fruit grown in this pure atmosphere, with its pure water, must add to health. This little town is one of the cleanest in every way, in the south. Private homes and homes freshly painted, nestling in the green of the wonderful live oak, pine and pecan trees. The avenues of these trees locking arms over the streets, which are all well drained, make beautiful driveways. The gutters, shell-lined, with minnows and frogs in their clear running waters—a safe delight for the little ones.

Tired of the lake front, one can, in five minutes, dip into the green hush of the pine woods, or drive through wooded by-ways to the river resorts, Samorys "Pine Land Park Hotel," Madrienville, Chin-chuba, Old Landing and Lewisburg, or to Malberry Grove, Abita Springs, Claiborne, Pearl River, Slidell and the Parish seat, Covington, the city of this wilderness of beautiful resorts.

Dr. Frazier, the courteous Mayor of Mandeville, with the town council, look well to the interests of their village and its people, and meet with kindly welcome "the stranger within their gates."

Board can be secured from $5.00 per week to $10.00, with privilege of bath-house. Modest dwellings, furnished ready for occupancy at $75.00 to $150.00 per season.
Small farms for the tiller of the soil, ranging in price from $1.00 to $5.00 per acre, where, with his little family, an active man can pay well for his summer outing, and be out of the way of contagious diseases.

Why loiter in town during the long, dull summer days, when profit and pleasure await you over the way in "fair St. Tammany Parish?"
M. S. EARHART,
New Orleans, July 25, 1900.

A New Town For St. Tammany.

St. Tammany Parish is to have a new town. Its name has not yet been decided upon, a matter the founders will adjust in due time.

The site of this new resort is to be about two and a half miles east of Mandeville Junction, on the East Louisiana Road. Here the firm of Messrs. Adams & Strickler, of New Orleans, have secured large concessions, and have laid out a new town. The dimensions of this new place, so the Northeastern officials state, are very extensive, it being arranged that certain portions of the town are to be given over to residences, the other to hotels, sanitariums, etc. Mr. Strickler is an Alabamian, and it is said they have considerable funds which will be invested. Artesian wells will be bored, walks and grounds laid out, baths secured, etc.

"There is no section of the world," said General Passenger Agent George Smith, of the Northeastern, "where so many natural advantages offer as St. Tammany Parish, and I am very much encouraged over the prospects being offered by these gentlemen for more rapidly populating the section. I understand they are to make an effort to locate dairy farms there and other improvements, which will add materially to the value of the pine belt as a summering resort."

It is not improbable that there will be other transportation facilities also given the new town whereby it will be placed in closer proximity to New Orleans.

END OF THE TRAGEDY

Robert Charles Killed.

About 3:30 p. m. last Friday evening, Sergeant Gabe Proteoux, Corporal Lally and others went to a house on Saratoga and Cllo, where Charles was said to be in hiding.
After stationing their men Porteous and Lally entered the building and inquired of a negro man, Jackson by name, if Charles was around and Jackson denied all knowledge of the movements of the murderer, Sergeant Porteous walked to the further side of the room going towards a closet and when a few feet from the closet Charles, who was in the closet, in hiding, shot and instantly killed Sergeant Proteoux and wounded Corporal Lally, who died Saturday morning from the effect of his wounds. The police retreated in a few moments returned.
A mob of five thousand men had by this time gathered and were firing on the building from tops of houses, windows and every other conceivable place while a perfect stream of lead was being poured into the structure. All this time Charles, who was on the second floor of the building in a rear room, was returning the fire. Finally the torch was applied to the building and as Charles ran from the building he was shot and killed by Dr. Chas.
Noiret. Jackson and his wife were arrested. During the fight Charles killed 4 and wounded 10, making a total of 6 killed and 10 wounded by him during the week.

A movement is on foot to put a one-half cent coin in general use in the United States. Several suggestions have been made to the government, and the other day a document was presented, signed by the heads of the big department stores of New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, showing the need of this money in making change where articles are sold at 31c, 71c, 121c, and at similar prices. The half-cent coin has been in use in Chicago for the past two years, and now one of the New York stores has ordered one-half million one-half cent coins.
These coins are to be made of copper, zinc, one-half inch in diameter, or just two-thirds the size of the regular one-cent piece, stamped in heavy, raised figures, and letters on one side will be "1/2 cent," and on the reverse side will appear the name and address of the firm issue-ing the coins. So far, the United States government has nothing to do with issuing this new money. It is put out by individual firms and is only recognized at the store from which it is issued. The proprietors of the big stores are anxious, however, to have the government make and recognize the one-half cent coin.

Slipping up behind Mabel M.
Gyles, who was wheeling a baby coach the other evening on Edgmont Avenue, at Chester, Pa., a colored man cut off the long braid of hair hanging down the young girl's back and made his escape.
The daring deed was committed under the glare of an arc light.

A Minister's Good Work.
"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him.
I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured."

CAMPMEETING.

To comply with the wishes of the people to have a campmeeting this fall, the pastor in charge, with the Board of Trustees, decided to hold one, providing we get at least $50 cash in hand, by the first of September, so we can get the Campground in order, and have security to pay the expenses of the preachers, because we could not rely on the collections at the ground. They were so small the last few years, that the Trustees had to pay the deficit.
This is no money-making affair. We only want to be sure that we can pay our expenses.

The following persons are authorized to receive money: Rev. F. G. Hostet, Covington; Rev. F. Matthews, Tallachack, P. O. Campground, Messrs. H. Schultz, Frank Dutsch and O. Stratmann.
The receipts will be published in due time, with the names of the contribu-

The harmony in the Republican party of Louisiana is loud enough to be impressive. It means to give the customhouse to a new set, and that is as far as the party goes.

Ex-President Harrison thinks that Indiana is doubtful this year, and says he would not be surprised if it went Democratic. The New York Tribune, the great apostle of Republicanism, classes New York and Michigan as doubtful States this fall. Altogether the Republicans are beginning to awake from their pipe dream, that the silver plank spells ruin, and to realize that imperialism will be the real issue after all.
