BOGUE FALLS GROVE No. 21 Meets on the first and third Saturdays in the month, at 7:30 p. m., at Castle Hall, K. of P., Covington, La.

The weather has been cool and pleasant this week.

The Police Jury will meet next week and review the assessment roll.

The Council met in regular session last Tuesday night. See proceedings in another column.

There was an excessive rainfall last Saturday, Sunday and Monday, accompanied by hail in some localities.

Services in Madisonville to-morrow morning and night at the usual hours. All are invited. Rev. Jno. M. Williams.

Rev. F. G. Hocutt will preach in the Methodist Church to-morrow morning and evening, at the usual hours.

Rev. John C. Barr, of the Lafayette Presbyterian Church, New Orleans, will preach here next Wednesday night.

Over 400 excursionists arrived on the East Louisiana train last Sunday, for various points in the parish, mostly for Covington.

Mr. Emile Frederick has commenced work on his new two-story brick building, on the corner of Boston and Columbia streets.

The Business Men's Progressive League held an interesting meeting last Monday night. The proceedings will be found in another column.

Mr. A. Sharp, of the First and Last Chance Saloon, has our thanks for a dozen fine oysters on the half shell. They were finely flavored, and were quite a raw treat.

Messrs. Millener & Son's saw mill, at Old Landing, is a new addition to the industries of the parish, and will doubtless do an extensive business in the near future.

Remember the entertainment to-night, at the residence of Mr. Thos. O'Connor, Jr., for the benefit of the Garden District School. Admission 10 cents. An enjoyable time is assured to all who attend.

The excursion to Mandeville, last Thursday, for the benefit of the Covington Brass Band, was well attended. All had an enjoyable time, and doubtless a good sum was realized for the worthy cause.

Mr. Preston Burns has opened a private boarding house and grocery store on the corner of Columbia and Lockwood streets, and solicits a share of the public patronage. We call attention to his advertisement in another column.

All persons who have not paid their licenses for 1900 will be proceeded against if the same are not paid within the next few days. We call attention to the notice of Sheriff Brewster, in another column.

Dutch Bros. saw, planing, grist and rice mill, in Covington, is kept busy and is running on full time. We expect soon to hear of their milling new rice. They are also artisan well contractors, and in this business they are very successful.

Gov. W. W. Heard, Secretary of State Michel, Mayor Capdevielle, and his private secretary, Major Austin, arrived at Old Landing on the steamer New Camelia last Wednesday. The fine steamer was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and there were over 400 excursionists on board.

We note the following transfers of property last week: Mr. E. J. Frederick purchased the store property of Mr. S. D. Anderson, on Columbia street.

Mrs. R. A. Ford purchased the cottage of Mr. C. L. Smith, on Boston street, west of the FARMER office.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea," says J. H. Deak, of Williams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure."

For sale by V. H. Frederick, Covington, and R. E. Falco, Mandeville.

SPECIAL NOTICE

To Our Covington Subscribers

Owing to the difficulty of getting carriers who will hold their positions for any length of time, and the annoyance caused by teaching new carriers the route, we will hereafter place all papers in the Postoffice, every Friday afternoon, and our patrons will get the paper when they call for their mail.

This is the custom in all small towns, and we think it will prove satisfactory, and insure promptness of delivery.

JUST RECEIVED.

Alderman O. V. Richard has moved into the store building on the corner of Columbia and Rutland streets, which was built on the site formerly occupied by him, at the time of the big fire in Covington in November 1898.

He is now comfortably located at "the old stand," where he will be pleased to meet and serve his many patrons, who may be in need of anything in the line of dry goods, groceries, notions, etc.

There is general rejoicing in Covington, to know that Mrs. Bessie Miller Oton, the peerless reciter, will give our people another trial next Friday evening, for her charming evening here in April, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church, can never be forgotten.

She will give her best selections on Friday, but will also remember the children, and devote part of the evening to them. Mrs. Oton says the children all over the country have been her true critics, because so unbiased. "Hager" will be given in costume, also "Juliet" from Romeo and Juliet. "Little Mischievous and her Doll" will be there to make fun for young and old. Let every one go, and prove to Mrs. Oton that we have not forgotten her last visit, and that we appreciate her beautiful art.

Police Jury.

The Police Jury will meet in regular session on
