OFFICE IN THE BANK BUILDING.

St. Tammany Farmer.

January 5, 1901.

U. A. O. D.

Beane Palmyra Grove No. 21.
Meets on the first and third Saturdays
in the month, at 7:30 P. M., at Castle
Hall, E. of P., Covington, La.
EDWARD THOMAS, Noble Arch.
F. B. HENRI, Secretary.

The moon is full already this year.

New Year's callers and egg noggers were plentiful last Tuesday.

Remember, this is next year, and don't forget to write it 1901.

The weather this week has been the finest of the present century.

White Dove Flour is the best, as is shown by test. Get it at Babington's.

Alderman E. J. Frederick and wife are the happy parents of a fine son, who arrived last Sunday.

The Twentieth Century will probably witness the completion of the railroad between Covington and Franklinton.

Dixon's Academy and the public school re-opened last Wednesday, greatly to the delight of the many children in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burns, of Atlanta, Ga., arrived last week, on a visit to relatives here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Burns.

The Police Jury will meet in regular session next Wednesday, Jan. 9, and the Public School Board will also meet on the same day.

Appropriate services were held at St. Peter's Church, last Monday night, to celebrate the passing of the old century and the coming of the new one.

The New Year was not very enthusiastically greeted, in the way of fireworks and the ringing of bells. Doubtless the bad weather was the cause of it.

Gov. Heard appointed the Assessors throughout the State last Monday. Mr. Warren Thomas, the present Assessor, was re-appointed for this parish.

Rev. F. G. Hocutt will preach at Mandeville tomorrow (Sunday), at 11 A. M., and in Pearl River at 7:30 P. M. The public are cordially invited to attend.

We have two cars of baggies in this week, and can fill your wants in all styles and prices. Top baggies as low as $10.00.

BABINGTON & CO.

Miss Eva Word, who is well known and much admired in Covington, for her rare personal charms and fine social qualities, arrived last Sunday from her home in Dunlap, Tenn., and is the guest of Miss Katie Kentzel.

LOST.—A small valise, on Sunday, Dec. 30, on the Factory road, between the nine and twenty mile posts. Also, about last June, a copy of the Civil Code. A suitable reward will be paid for their return to Harvey E. Ellis, Covington, La.

The Hook and Ladder truck, Babcocks and buckets, are now stored in the shed in the rear of the cottage on the corner of Boston and Kemper streets, opposite the Town Hall lot. It is a central location, handy to the thickly settled portion of the town.

Mr. G. A. Schmidt, Sr., jeweler manufacturer, who was located for many years on Exchange Alley, in New Orleans, has moved to Covington and established a place here, near Columbia street, half a block from Sharp's corner, where he will give prompt attention to any work in his line, and guarantee satisfaction. We call attention to his advertisement, in another column.

There was an enjoyable family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pharis during Christmas week. The visiting members came overland from Gilbertburg, Miss., and consisted of their daughter, Mrs. M. A. Wall, and three children, E. R., Pharis and Florence Wall; also their sister-in-law, Mrs. Stuart, and three children, J. F. and Harry Stuart, and Mrs. Williams and little daughter. They left for their home in Mississippi last Saturday, well pleased with their visit.

WHO KNOWS?

There is nothing so scarce as good nonsense. You may find a hundred ovals that can sit on a dry limb, look wise, say nothing, and be respectable, to one monkey that can play the fool and do justice to the subject and himself too.

Who knows why
The members of the U. B. B. are not arrested for circulating false "notes"?

Who knows why
Mr. "swore off" on visiting? (Did she give him the marble heart?)

Who knows why
"Little Red Riding Hood," went to New Orleans on Sunday? (Did she meet the Wolf?)

Who knows why
He did not take her to the Euche? (Does he play "second fiddle"?)

Who knows why
A young gentleman forgot his acetate when he went visiting last week?

Who knows why
Some young men do not take their trunks with them when they go visiting?

Who knows why
A certain gentleman makes engagements and promises that he cannot keep?

Who knows why
He has taken to smoking a pipe? (Is it to burn his misery in the bowl?)

Who knows why
Mr. "would give fifty dollars to undo the effect that "a full blushing goblet," had?"

Who knows why
G. W. and G. V. are always so very much more attractive and interesting than single or married men and women? (Is it that

"If a pang be dangerous known,
The danger self is lure alone?"

Who knows why
The curiosity of mankind is too much for its sympathies? When a man breaks his leg, the first thing we ask is "how did he come to do it?"

NOTICE

The next regular monthly meeting of Abita Springs Fire Co. No. 1 will be held in Cooley's Place, on Sunday, January 6, 1901, at 10 o'clock, A. M., or directly after the arrival of the excursion train. All members are requested to be present, as the installation of the newly elected officers takes place.

Richard H. Hall, Sec'y.
The above company will give a grand complimentary ball on Saturday night, March 9, 1901. F. J. Bates, chairman of arrangement committee. Richard H. Hall, secretary.

WANTED TO PURCHASE.—A large tract of timbered land, for spot cash. For further information apply to this office.

DIED.—At Slidell, La. Dec. 18, 1900, Tarrance A. Sadler, aged 59 years.

Mr. Sadler was an old respected citizen of Slidell and a member of the Methodist Church. He was the second son of the late Francis Sadler and Asenath Porter, of West Pearl River, La. A cold he contracted developed into Typhoid Pneumonia and he died in five days after. He seemed to realize his approaching end and talked to his family and was conscious and seemed to be reconciled to his fate. In 1899 his son Richard died and he had never fully recovered from the shock and feeling of his bereavement, and talked of his going to join him in the land where there is no more sickness. He leaves a wife, two sons, two brothers, a sister and other relatives to mourn his departure.

"Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
And in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed."
Mrs. L. GRANT SADLER.

A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks
Prof. Roxa Tyler, of Chicago, Vice-President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to get worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again."

For Sale by V. H. Frederick, Covington, and R. B. Paine, Mandeville.

When you go to New Orleans, stop at Penn's Hotel, corner of St. Charles and Poydras streets. All front rooms, newly furnished throughout. Charges reasonable, by the day or week.

BUILDING CONTRACTS SOLICITED.—NEAT WORK. Reasonable prices. CHAS. V. QUAYE, Covington, La.

WANTED.—A man with a family to work on a truck farm. Liberal offer to the right person. Situated 2 1/2 miles from Covington. For further particulars apply to John P. Henry, or at M. O. Day's.

Christmas.

Christmas has come again, my love,
With all its joys and cheer.
The children laugh and shout,
Just as they did last year.
And you were one of the happy band
That played last Christmas day.
Old Santa filled your little sock
And merrily went his way.
Oh! Santa! have you found my boy,
And filled his sock this Christmas night?

Or do you visit that home above,
Where all is joy, and peace and light?
For as cold as the clay that wraps his form,
My baby sleeps in his coffin, white.
His little hands on his bosom pressed,
Beyond all pain this Christmas night.
His little lips will laugh no more.
No more his little hands clasp mine.
But Jesus, our Lord, has willed it so.
I humbly bend my will to thine.
Mrs. M. McDANIEL.

Pearl River, La.

Centre Lodge, F. and A. M.

Lee's Creek, Dec. 25.—Centre Lodge, No. 244, F. and A. M., has elected and installed the following officers: R. E. Keaton, W. M.; M. R. Richardson, S. W.; A. P. Stewart, J. W.; D. W. Police Jury.

The Police Jury will meet in regular session on WEDNESDAY, January 9, 1901, for the transaction of important business. All members are requested to attend.
Geo. Koepf, Jr., President.
W. G. KENZEL, Secretary.

School Board.

The School Board will meet in regular session on WEDNESDAY, Jan. 9, 1901. All members are requested to be present, as business of importance will come before the meeting.
Lewis L. Morgan, President.
Jos. B. Lancaster, Secretary and Superintendent.

The investigation of the boxing at West Point was enlightening, for we now know what "Sammy race" is. Two cadets blindfolded are seated at a table and required to feed each other molasses dipped from a bowl with a spoon. The fun of the business, it appears, rests in the fact that the cadets endeavoring to locate the mouth with the spoon soon become smeared from head to feet with the sticky stuff. In the event that the two unfortunates handle their spoons carefully and strive to make the molasses hit the right spot, the upper-classmen who manage the race immediately commences to yell: "Faster, you lazy chumps. Buck up! Buck up!" The result is the freighted "plebes" are so furiously bombarding each other with molasses, and the engagement usually continues until the ammunition is exhausted.

The Cheerful Idiot: "I wonder," said the shoe-clerk boarder, "why they call it mistletoe?" "It is so called because the mis'll toe the mark every time she sees a bit of it suspended anywhere," said the Cheerful Idiot. — Indianapolis Press.

A man out in Kansas courted his divorced wife, and now she is suing him for a breach of promise. Some men never learn when to quit fooling with chain-lightning.
