

St. Anthony's Church.
March 16, 1901.
U. A. O. D.
Home hunters come over every Sunday, in search of locations for the summer.
To-morrow (Sunday) will be St. Patrick's Day, and the shamrock will have fall away.
The Fortune place, in New Covington, was purchased last week by Mrs. M. Seiler, for $1475 00.
Mr. John M. Yates has been appointed Parish Surveyor, vice P. L. Guzman, who failed to qualify.
There will be a constable sale at the Courthouse to-day, in the case of Mrs. Y. Schmidt vs. Simon Favre. See advertisement, in another column.
We think it would be a good idea for the Town Council to have small signs put up giving the names of the various streets of our growing little city.
Rev. S. S. Keener, P. E., held service in the Methodist Church last Saturday night and Sunday, and was greeted on each occasion by large congregations.
We are selling Hay, Corn, Oats and Beans, at the lowest prices.
BABINGTON & CO.

Right Rev. Davis Seassum, Bishop of the Diocese of Louisiana, administered the rite of confirmation to Misses Clara Smith, Eva Kennedy and May Kimbel and Messrs. Pose Ventres, James Macandiah and Alfred Smith, last Monday night in the Episcopal Church. The church was tastefully decorated with rare potted plants and evergreens. The service was solemn and impressive. The Bishop delivered an able and eloquent sermon to a large and appreciative congregation.

Covington Fire Company No. 1 should turn out occasionally and have a fire drill. At the present time, we doubt whether the hook and ladder apparatus could be assembled or put up expeditiously, in case of emergency. In order to attain proficiency, there should be some practical drilling, with every man at his allotted place. We hope the emergency will never arise, but it may come when least expected, and there is nothing like being prepared and always ready.

Cotton has been coming in freely this week, which makes business, as the vagans go out loaded with assorted merchandise. Covington is the trading point for a large area of country, owing to its many advantages over less favored towns. And when the winter business ends the summer visitor business begins, which even up things all the year round.

NOTICE.—There will be a meeting of the Carpenters and Painters in the parlor of the Sterling House to-night, Saturday, March 16, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a local Union. All workmen are invited to participate.

Rev. J. F. Scurlock will preach in the Methodist Church to-morrow (Sunday) morning, at 11 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

Dr. F. R. Tolson, of Lafayette, La., is on a visit to his brother, Dr. G. R. Tolson, and paid his pleasant visit Thursday.

Judge P. J. Paterno, of New Orleans, bought the Barley property, at Abita Springs, at the judicial sale last Saturday, for $500.

Mr. John A. Orr, who is employed at the store of Mr. J. B. Wortham, moved here with his family from Florencia last Monday.

Rev. J. M. Williams will hold service in Covington, to-morrow (Sunday), at the usual hours. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. L. Levy's slaughter house was destroyed by fire last Monday night, together with a large number of hives. We learn that he estimates his loss at about $600.

Messrs. Hezzie Bulloch, of Covington, and Jules Biecham, of Franklinton, who have been studying medicine at Atlanta, Ga., returned home last Wednesday night, for a two months vacation.

Shredded Wheat Biscuits and Cream of Wheat, as well as a number of other delicious breakfast foods are to be found at Dunn's Store, in New Covington. The choicest Creamery Butter is sold there at 30 cents per pound.

G. F. Edwards presented us, this week with a bottle of his "Star Compound," for cleaning all kinds of grease and other stains. It is for sale by E. J. Frederick.

Taylor Nelson, a colored convict from Washington Parish, who recently escaped from the State Penitentiary, was recognized in Covington last Wednesday by District Attorney Gordon W. Goodlee at his post. He attempted to escape, but was pursued by a large crowd, and captured by Mr. Leon Roubion.

District Court opened last Monday, Judge Jas. M. Thompson presiding, and District Attorney Gordon W. Goodlee at his post. The following cases were tried up to Thursday night:
Emelle Herbeles vs. Jeanne Wagon et al. Suit for rent. Mistrial.
Jacob Loyd et al, vs. East Louisiana Railroad Co, for killing Rabley Loyd. Mistrial.
State vs. Ben Pierce. Not guilty.
State vs. Eddie Lacroix and General Brown, for horse racing. Sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs, and in default of payment, 30 days in jail.
State vs. George Woods. Guilty.
State vs. Lee Williams. Not guilty.
State vs. John Parker. Sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs, or 30 days in jail.
State vs. Joe and Enias Rodriguez. Not guilty.
A number of cases were nolle prosequi.

When you go to New Orleans, stop at Penn's Hotel, corner of St. Charles and Poydras streets. All front rooms, newly furnished throughout. Charges reasonable, by the day or week.

Will You Marry Me?
The ladies of the Methodist Church will give an entertainment for the benefit of the church, in Roubion & Stroble's new building, on Friday night, April 12, when they will present the attractive farce, "Will You Marry Me?" Admission 25 cents.

Fire in Madisonville.
Last Thursday the Methodist Church and two residences belonging to Mr. Delpit were destroyed by fire in Madisonville.

Notice to Teachers.
Covington, La., March 6, 1901.
Notice is hereby given to all teachers of those who may desire to pass the examination for public school teachers, that said examination will be held in the town of Covington, on Thursday and Friday, April 11 and 12, 1901, for white teachers, and on Friday, April 18, an examination will be held for colored school teachers.
All teachers are further notified that in accordance with a resolution adopted by the School Board in regular session, September, 1900, they as well as all others are compelled to pass this examination, who desire to teach in the public schools of the Parish. No excuse shall be received, nor will any exceptions be made. Therefore all teachers are hereby notified to present themselves for examination on the day and date as above specified. Respectfully,
JOS. B. LANCASTER,
Parish Supt. of Public Education.

DIED.—In New Orleans, on Friday, March 8, 1901, Angelleita, infant daughter of Joseph Gilbert and Amelia Biery, aged 2 months and 25 days.
[New Orleans and St. Louis papers please copy.]

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.
"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well known and popular maker of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children, when troubled with cold coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children, as it contained no opium or other harmful drug."

For sale by V. H. Frederick, Covington, and R. B. Paine, Madisonville.
