Bogue Falaya Grove, No. 21 Meets on the first and third Saturdays in the month, at 7:30 P. M., at Castle Hall, E. of P., Covington, La.

The Grand Jury was in session this week.

We had some rain this week, which cooled the air and settled the dust.

Miss Katie McDougal, of the Second Ward, is the guest of the Misses Whelpley.

Children's Day will be celebrated at the Methodist Church to-morrow (Sunday) at 11 A. M.

The Episcopal Sunday School will give a picnic today (Saturday,) at the Jahncke place.

Mrs. Williams, of New Orleans, is on a visit to her son, Rev. J. M. Williams, at Mr. S. M. Whelpley's home.

The Sunday School children will have a picnic in the Methodist Church yard from 2 P. M. to-day, (Saturday).

FIRE—Insure with the Home Insurance Co. of New York. Assets over $3,000,000. J. E. NILSON, Agent, Covington, La.

Boring for oil is all the rage in Texas and southeast Louisiana, but here in Covington they bore for ale (Adam's ale) and a gusher is generally found at a depth of a few hundred feet.

Mr. E. V. Bendernagle, of New Orleans, who is spending several weeks at Glen-Cottage, gave a delightful picnic to a number of his young friends at Old Landing last Thursday.

An interesting game of base ball was played on the Dixon Academy campus on Friday of last week, the prize being a fine catcher's glove, which was won by the Covington Club, the score being as follows: Dixon Academy 9, Covington 20.

Mr. R. S. Stearnes has had his force hard at work this week putting up the electric light wires on the streets, and wiring a number of houses. The work is progressing very well under his supervision, and will be completed before many days.

F. L. Lacroix has started a store in New Covington, in the stand formerly occupied by Mr. E. E. Dunn, where he has a choice lot of fresh groceries, canned goods, etc., and solicits a share of the public patronage. See his advertisement in another column.

Our correspondents have come nobly to the front this week, and we hope to hear from them often. These letters cannot fail to help the localities from which they are written, and at the same time they aid up in making our columns more interesting. Let others follow their good example.

On Sunday, June 2, Rev. Louis Parrot will say holy mass in the church at Slidell, at 7:30 A. M. and preach a sermon in Italian. As he will come on Saturday, June 1, on the Covington evening train to hear confession, the same evening and Sunday morning before mass, this is a good occasion for Italians to make their Easter duty.

ENLARGED AGAIN

The FARMER greets its many readers today in a new form, having been enlarged to an eight page paper, with the sheets cut and pasted, city style. While the pages are a little smaller, there are more of them. They are now of a convenient size to handle, and we have more room for reading matter. This is an age of progress, with improvements and new enterprises springing up on all sides, and we are bound to keep up with the procession, even if it leads to a gold mine filled up with diamonds preserved in oil.

Installation of Officers.

Saturday, May 18, Bogue Falaya Grove No. 21, U. A. O. D., installed the following officers: Noble Arch—Edward Theobald. Vice Arch—A. Zeitvogel. Conductor—A. Theobald. Secretary—F. B. Hempel. Treasurer—John Theobald. Inner Guard—H. Alexander. Outer Guard—John Coltra. Representative to Grand Grove, John Theobald.

At the conclusion of the installation ceremonies Bogue Falaya Grove adjourned to Poole's Hotel and Restaurant, where a delicious repast was served. At the close of the banquet, speeches were made by several of the officers and members, which were responded to with wit and humor. Among the speakers were: W. Lowenstein, D. D., Fred. Huff, John Theobald, A. and E. Theobald, F. B. Hempel, I. Medai, H. Alexander, E. Domergue, Sr., and others.

The excursion to Mandeville, last Saturday, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church was highly enjoyable in every respect.

One of the most charming drives in this vicinity is along the river opposite Covington. The road is shady and free from dust. The pretty summer homes of Messrs. H. de la Vergne and F. Jahncke are delightfully situated. No finer location can be found anywhere in the State, and their owners take a just pride in keeping them in fine order.

Prof. Sutherland's Summer School is now open opposite 'Maison Blanche.' The professor is an experienced teacher, and will give pupils his personal attention. For terms, etc., see advertisement in another column.

Our town is rapidly filling up with city visitors, and houses cannot be built fast enough to supply the demand.

BABINGTON & CO. have ten yoke of Good Oxen for sale.

The fine steamer New Camelia was crowded with excursionists, who spent a pleasant day in the woods at Old Landing last Wednesday. This is the most delightful trip out of New Orleans, and no mistake.

WANTED—By a settled woman, a situation to do the work of a small family. References. Address, MISS LIZZIE BERRY.

When you go to New Orleans stop at Penn's Hotel, corner of St. Charles and Poydras streets. All front rooms, newly furnished throughout. Charges reasonable, by the day or week.

AGE OF DISCOVERIES.

If the success continues in boring for oil for fuel purposes, to be used in factories, it will not be long before some expert discovers that by going deep enough, a few gushers of pure fire can be found, which will answer every purpose, and do away with the necessity of wood, coal and oil, in the generation of steam. Then some other genius will come along and discover wells that produce steam, and that will do away with the fire wells. Verily, this is an age of great discoveries.

The Covington Base Ball Club gave an excursion to Mandeville last Sunday, where they played a return game with the Mandeville Club, which resulted in favor of the Covington Club, by a score of 20 to 7. Quite a number of Covingtonians took advantage of the excursion, to visit our neighboring city by the lake.

The Mandeville Club will probably come to Covington on Sunday, June 2, and cross hats again with the Covington Club.

"They were driving so fast I didn't notice that.
