

St. Tammany Farmer.

June 8, 1901.

Mr. Roland Galatas is authorized to act as agent for the FARMER at Mandeville.

Mr. James Keyser is authorized to act as agent for the FARMER at Slidell.

U. A. O. D.

Boone Falaya Grove, No. 21 Meets on the first and third Saturdays in the month, at 7:30 p. m., at Castle Hall, E. of P., Covington, La.

May went out with rain and hail.

The Brass Band will soon give an excursion to Mandeville.

Work on the Electric Light Plant and new Ice Factory is progressing.

The much needed rain came this week, and did a vast amount of good.

An interesting article on cow penning in old times will be found in another column.

Redivivus Bugarius, (Latin,) has made his appearance, as usual at this time of the year.

Disease has broken out among the cattle in the vicinity of Slidell, and a number of teamsters have had to turn their oxen out on account of it.

BASE BALL.—There will be a game of base ball in Covington to-morrow (Sunday,) between the Mandeville Club and the Covington Club.

Mr. Alcock Bush sent us a bottle of water this week from his well on Bogas Chitto. It is of a dark blue color, and perhaps contains either sulphur or iron.

The stockholders of the Bank of Covington met last Saturday and re-elected the present officers for another year. See the advertisement, on page 8.

Mrs. Annie Sykes, a returned Missionary from China, gave an interesting talk in the Presbyterian Church last Wednesday night, which proved to be highly entertaining to all who were present.

Dr. G. R. Tolson's River View Sanatorium, in Covington, is now ready for the reception of guests. The building is modern in all of its appointments, and specially designed for the comfort of invalids.

A party of young folks accompanied by a string band, visited the popular Dixon's Academy last Friday night, and enjoyed a few hours dancing in the assembly hall.

Rev. F. G. Hocutt will preach in the Methodist Church to-morrow, (Sunday) morning, and evening. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. John McMahon and Miss Gussie McCoy, two prominent young society people of Slidell, were married in the Catholic Church at that place last Tuesday evening, Rev. Joachim officiating.

Mr. W. M. Poole, of Covington, and Mr. C. F. Hardie, of New Orleans, have opened a livery stable in Covington. They are erecting a large stable on New Hampshire street near the depot.

The Board of Aldermen of the town of Franklinton have passed an ordinance fixing the salary of the Mayor and each of the Aldermen at $750 a year. Now look out for a scramble for office at the next election in Franklinton.

The work of securing subscribers to the stock of the Covington Mineral Oil Co. is progressing. Mr. Jos. B. Lancaster has the list. See him and put your name down for a liberal amount. Small sums are also welcome.

See Council proceedings in another column. The Council has made two good moves, one for the building and grading sidewalks, especially on Columbia street, our main business thoroughfare, and another looking to the suppression of the dog nuisance. Both of these measures will meet with the hearty approval of the tax-payers and the general public.

Warehouse Company.

The movement of merchants and business men to establish a Warehouse Company in Covington has taken tangible shape, and its success is assured, through the energetic efforts of Messrs. S. P. Gagnet and E. J. Domergue, Jr. The following named merchants have subscribed to the stock, and the Company has been organized:

H. J. Smith, Pres.	$500
S. D. Bullock, V. P.	500
C. H. Bickham, Sec.	500
H. H. Smith, Treas.	500
Roubion & Stroble	500
Babington & Co.	500
W. J. Warren	400
J. E. Wortham	300
Preston Burns	100
B. Labat	100

Miss Memie Prevost entertained a few of her friends last Saturday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Inez Mazarat, of New Orleans.

The municipal election passed off quietly last Monday, and a large vote was polled, considering there was only one ticket in the field. The following are the names of the officers elected, and the number of votes received by each:

MAYOR:

C. Z. WILLIAMS 69

ALDERMEN:

WM. BRENNAN 69

STEVE BATEMAN 69

LOUIS MEDAL 69

E. J. FREDERICK 67

LEON ROUBION 67

ERNEST DOMERGUE, JR. 67

DIXON ACADEMY.

We have received a neatly printed prospectus of Dixon Academy, in Covington, Prof. Wm. A. Dixon, principal. This is a model boarding school for boys, delightfully situated among the pines, and has a faculty of experienced teachers. Girls and boys are admitted as day pupils. The Academy is a modern brick structure of three stories, and is complete in all departments. The first school year opened on the 1st of October, 1900, and will close next Friday, June 15, with appropriate exercises. During the first year the Academy had 97 pupils, who have showed a marked advance in their studies. It is safe to predict that the next school year will open with a largely increased attendance. This is one of the finest educational institutions in the State, its location is unsurpassed for healthfulness and inducements for study, and our citizens take a just pride in its establishment here. We wish the popular and efficient Principal a full measure of success, which his ability and enterprise rightly deserve.

At the closing exercises, next Friday night, Judge Jas. M. Thompson will deliver the Commencement address, and an interesting program will be participated in by the pupils of the various departments.

FAIREST.

I have walked through wood-land valleys, Where the sweet blue violets grew. I have gathered snowy daisies, And roses wet with dew.

I have watched the sun ascending, Of an early morning bright. I have watched it, too, descending, In a cloud-like golden light.

I have seen a placid river, With white lilies on its breast, And have watched two tiny birds Build of straw a wondrous nest.

Oh! many things that are fair I've seen, But that which I deemed most fair, Was a little child at his mother's knee, Saying his evening prayer.

Mrs. M. McDaniel, Slidell, La., May 28, 1901.

Rev. E. A. Rennie was ordained a Priest in St. Paul's Church, New Orleans, last Sunday morning. The ordination services were conducted by Bishop Sessums, assisted by Rev. Dr. Waters and the Rev. Dr. Holly. The handsome and imposing edifice was well filled by a deeply interested congregation. Rev. Rennie will hold services in the Episcopal Church in Covington to-morrow (Sunday) at the usual hours. The public are cordially invited to attend.

The New Orleans Photo Club will arrive in Covington to-morrow (Sunday), on the train, a number of its members having been attracted by the magnificent scenery here. A number of photographs and lantern slides will be made for exhibition purposes.

The sorrowing parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. The funeral was largely attended, Rev. J. M. Williams officiating.

Seven Years in Bed

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Plesse, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed for seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed at the City Drug Store, J. L. Watkins proprietor. Only 50c.

Didn't Marry for Money.
