Dividend Notice.

Bank of Covington, La., July 5, 1901. At a meeting of the Board of Directors, held this day, a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent was declared out of the earnings of the past six months, payable on demand.

J. E. NILSON, Cashier.

The quarterly statement of the Bank of Covington will be found in another column. This model Bank is steadily increasing its field of business operations and adding to its list of patrons, all of whom find pleasure and satisfaction in doing business with its officers.

Capt Weaver, the genial owner and master of the fine new schooner Josie Weaver, was treated to an agreeable surprise party last Monday night, when a large number of his friends appeared at his residence, accompanied by the Covington Brass Band. Immediately upon entering, Hon. Jos. B. Lancaster, in a neat and appropriate speech, presented the Captain with a fine search light for the schooner, and before he had time to recover from his surprise, the Brass Band struck up a lively tune. The Captain and his estimable wife and daughter, Miss Rebecca, and son, Charles, sustained their reputation as generous hosts, and an abundance of choice refreshments were served, after which the assembled guests enjoyed music and dancing till a late hour.

Last Saturday night an enjoyable euchre party was given at the residence of Mrs. C. V. Seiler. Sixteen couples participated in the game. The prize winners were as follows: Lady's first prize, Miss Birdie Seiler; second prize, Miss Marie Lacombe; booby prize, Miss Rebecca Weaver. Gentleman's first prize, Ed. H. Richard; second prize, E. D. Kentzel; booby prize, Alfred Smith.

Mr. W. S. Thompson, of Lewisburg, in answer to the questions recently published in the FARMER, informs us that the steamer New Camelia was originally named the Zephyr, and was used by the United States Government, during the civil war, as a transport steamer at New Orleans.

Still Planning a Road

E. S. Ferguson, who was a fixture with the East Louisiana Railroad Company for years, was having chats with friends in the corridor at the St. Charles yesterday afternoon. He is still full of his plans for the building a road out of New Orleans into Eastern Louisiana. He has for years been endeavoring to get a road built beyond Covington. His idea is to have a road out of this city to make the lake shore at Little Woods, and there cross the lake on a ten-mile trestle and cut through to the cotton and pine country. His plans are not matured yet, but are shaping up satisfactorily. He expects after a while to make them known.

Slidell Items.

July 8, 1901.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer.

I expected to see "Wild West" and "Subscriber" both in last week's edition of the FARMER, but neither appeared. Now boys come on and give the people the news. We all like to read your letters.

We had several good rains last week, and are expecting more at any time.

Slidell is strictly on the boom. Houses are continually being built.

Mr. Willie McGee is having a nice little cottage put up in our town.

Some one has decided that Slidell did not have enough saloons, (there being only five,) so they have decided to build one more. Whoop! What if Slidell was to run dry? Mississippi would worry over it. Some people say it takes saloons to build up a town. Well, look out up there, we are coming! Been down here nearly twenty years, with saloons nearly all the time, and now we have decided that five is not enough. When we get the sixth one and blow our horn, get out of the way and let us come.

Our people turned out in great numbers to go to the school picnic at Mandeville last Friday. By seven o'clock they began to swim around the Bayou. The crowd increased, until about eight o'clock. Then they waited and looked on till "they" said "she will here by eleven o'clock." Dame Rumor started several tales about the boat. The crowd in a down-hearted way, began to depart for home. Well, the boat did not come, so the day was spent by the sight-seeing people in different ways. Some went out driving, others walking, and others tried to sleep the blues off.

Mr. Henry Miller visited his wife and relatives in Slidell last Wednesday.

The "Basket Meeting" was had at Alton on Sunday, June 30. Quite a number of our people went up there and enjoyed two sermons by our Methodist parson and a nice dinner on the ground.

Miss Laura Gazin, of New Orleans, is visiting relatives in Slidell this week.

The Salmen Brick and Lumber Company have almost completed the addition of one more story to their office department. This adds to the appearance as well as the conveniences of the place.

Mrs. Dell O'Rourke, of New Orleans, is visiting Miss Leda Mayfield this week.

Dr. Polk has his nice residence about completed. It will be one of the nicest buildings in Slidell. Billie Welch, one of the employees of the Salmen Brick and Lumber Co., was very badly hurt last week while working at the mill, but is recovering now.

The health of our town seems to be very good.

There are new buildings going up all the time. Good lots can be bought from $50 00 up.

On last Sunday our Methodist minister preached for us. He opened the church doors and three persons joined. Your writer wishes him great success in the saving of souls. He will preach for us next Sunday and Sunday night.

Hoping to hear from "Wild Wood," "Wild West," "Subscriber," "I. C. U." and a lot of other correspondents, ye scribe will hush.

Success to your paper and self. YE SCRIBE.
