Rainfall during the past week, 5.79.
E. H. RICHARD, Observer,
Covington, La.

So far, August has been about as cool and pleasant as July was.

When the weather is good, our public pikes are just the thing for riding bikes.

What we said last week we must say again, we are having entirely too much rain.

D. S. Gaster, Superintendent of Police, died in New Orleans last Tuesday, aged 57 years.

Mrs. Frost and two sons and two daughters, from Thibodaux, are stopping at Mr. S. M. Whelpley's.

FOR SALE.—A lot of Old Iron. Apply to E. MILLER, Covington, La.

A party of surveyors are at work in the Second Ward, laying out the line of the proposed Louisiana Midland Railroad.

Mr. J. B. Wortham has a number of fine graded horses for sale. If you want a good animal, call on him at once, and make your selection.

Judge Milton Burns, of the Second Ward, informs us that the corn crop in his vicinity is unusually fine, and cotton and cane are doing very well.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen rode over to Claiborne Hotel, last Tuesday night, accompanied by a string band, and enjoyed dancing and refreshments till a late hour.

Master Bert Hadden entertained a number of his young friends with an enjoyable party last Monday evening, on the occasion of his twelfth birthday. There was a profusion of choice refreshments, and all entered heartily into the various games and dancing. May he see many happy returns of the day.

Mr. H. R. Warren, Clerk of Court, and family, moved into their handsome new two-story residence on Jefferson Avenue this week. It is a fine structure, and an ornament to our town. It was built by Mr. C. Segond, Jr., and painted by Mr. June Lacroix.

BARGAINS AT BABINGTON'S IN CLOTHING.

In order to reduce our Large Stock of Clothing, we will sell at Greatly Reduced Prices. Don't fail to call and inspect our stock.

There was an enjoyable euchre party at the New Abita Springs Hotel last Saturday night. The following were the participants: Misses Lengsfeld, J. Samuels, Norma Block, E. Lottenger, L. Marks, Alma Laudaner, L. DuQueane, A. Mumfort. Messrs. M. Johnson, O. Aubert, A. Beaucoudray, Harry DuQueane, Saul Lichtentag, M. W. Fiengold, P. St. Philip, W. H. Kentzel. The following were the prize winners: Ladies first prize, Miss B. Lengsfeld; second, Miss J. Samuels; consolation, Miss L. Marks. Gentleman's first prize, Mr. H. DuQueane; second, Mr. A. Beaucoudray; consolation, Mr. O. Aubert.

Miss Jennie Mueller has returned home from Covington. Miss Jennie became quite a social favorite as the guest of Mrs. Lacroix during her visit.

Miss Fay Duncan, of New Orleans, is on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Emile Frederick.

Miss Daisy Abbott left for her home, last week, after spending a few weeks in Covington, the guest of Mrs. C. L. Smith.

Miss Hazel Coniff, of New Orleans, is the guest of the Misses Cefaln.

A fine daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davenport, last Tuesday morning.

Rolla Lee and Eddie Britt, colored, who were arrested for robbery, were taken to Amite City, last Tuesday, for preliminary trial.

High winds prevailed along the Gulf coast last Wednesday and Thursday. Vessels were forced to tie up, and much damage was done to wharves and bath houses.

West End was partly destroyed. The mail failed to arrive Thursday night, owing to a washout at South Shore.

Deputy Sheriffs Dupriest and Cook last Friday arrested Eddie Britt colored, wanted in Tangipahoa Parish, for robbery, and Alfred Callahan, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon.

Mr. Jack Pelloat will build a hotel on Gibson street, between Planche's store and Sombly's Saloon. It will be 35 by 69 feet, two stories. Mr. J. O. Bourg is the contractor and builder. Work will begin in a few days.

A number of Covington's business establishments are represented in our advertising columns, but we want more of them represented. We want the outside world to see what kind of a business town we have, and its various public enterprises.

It will be interesting to the many admirers of the pretty O'Bierne place to learn that this place has become the property of Dr. W. Thompson, of New Orleans. The doctor will at once add many improvements, completing what is already a lovely home. We extend the doctor a hearty welcome and congratulate him on his purchase.

A Delightful Outing.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season at Madisonville was given Tuesday by Mrs. Theo. Dendinger, in compliment to her guests, Miss Sophie Meyers and Mrs. St. Pierre, of New Orleans, the occasion being an excursion and picnic to the lake. Mr. Theodore Dendinger having tendered the use of his steamer, the G. W. Stockton. Mrs. Dendinger chaperoned the party, and was ably assisted in entertaining them by her charming daughter, Miss Annier. The following guests were present: Mesdames Theodore Dendinger, Benjamin Goldate, St. Pierre, Charles Cammon, Misses Sophie Meyers, Lulu St. Pierre, Annie and Adrienne Dendinger, Elenora and Evelyn Le Blanc, Bertha Goldate, Messrs. B. Goldate, Geo. Dendinger, Theo. Dendinger, Oscar and Frank Goldate.

The thanks of the party are due to Capt. Goldate of the Stockton, and his polite crew, who contributed much to their enjoyment, and took them quite a distance up the beautiful Tchefuncta, on their return from the lake. An elegant luncheon was served on the lake shore, and the entire party return thanks to the hostess for one of the most pleasant occasions of their lives.

ASTONISHED THE EDITOR.
Editor S. A. Brown, of Benneville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver. For indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it is a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at the City Drug Store, J. L. Watkins, Proprietor.

The St. Hubert, a gasoline launch belonging to the Jesuit Fathers, of Maurens, was run down on Thursday afternoon, Aug. 9, by the tug Stockton, at the point opposite Weaver's landing. Fathers Fox, Koegerl and Dougherty were thrown into the water, which is about 50 feet deep at that point, and had to swim, but they were quickly taken on board the tug. The launch was swamped, and will have to undergo considerable repairs before again being fit for service.
