E. H. RICHARD, Observer,
 Covington, La.

The public schools will open in this ward next Monday.

The law firm of Miller & Williams has been dissolved.

The broom factory has been removed to the old ice factory building.

The season for killing deer will open to-morrow, (Sunday,) Sept. 15.

Partridges and wild turkeys are protected by law until Tuesday, Oct. 1.

Fish are biting alright, if you know where to go and how to catch them.

The steamer New Camelia resumed her regular trips across the lake last Saturday.

Mr. George Parke takes the finest of Photographs, single or in groups. His samples are an evidence of this fact.

Remember the variety entertainment to-night. Let everybody attend, have a good time, and help the Dramatic Club with their stage fund.

The ball of the Enterprise Orchestra, at the Garden District School, last Saturday night, was well attended, and all had an enjoyable time.

Wagoners and cattle men are warned to keep their dogs tied while in the limits of the town, or they will be caught and put in the pound.

A large number of deaf mutes arrived at the Chuchubla Institute last Wednesday, to be ready for the opening session of this model school.

The Crescent Normal School, for girls and small boys, Prof. A. L. Sutherland, Principal, will open next Monday, Sept. 16, for a session of nine months. For terms, see advertisement.

Mr. G. C. Aloxius, member of the Police Jury for this ward, has had the Parish road machine put in perfect order, and is making good use of it while the weather is favorable for road working.

The dog law is now in force. If you want your dog to run at large on the streets, call on Marshal Dalion and get a license tag. Otherwise keep them at home or they will get in the pound.

The Epworth League, and friends of the Methodist Church, will keep an ice cream and coffee stand under the oaks in the church yard, for the benefit of the Methodist Church, from 3 to 10 p. m., this (Saturday) Sept. 14. Admission free.

D. M. Wadsworth & Bro. opened their new store last Monday, in the Baden building, with a large and well selected stock of general merchandise. Messrs. Wadsworth are well known throughout St. Tammany and Washington parishes, and we predict for them a successful business career. See their advertisement in another column.

Mr. W. C. Pharis returned from Touros Infirmary last Monday evening, where he underwent an operation to remove a dry tumor from his face. He stood the ordeal very well, and is getting along all right. The operation was performed by Dr. Loeber, who took entire charge of his case. Mr. Pharis speaks in the highest terms of praise of the manner in which he was treated during his week's stay in the Infirmary.

Working Night and Day.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fog into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by J. L. Watkins, City Drug Store.

The public school for white children, in Slidell, will open next Monday, Sept. 16.

"Thoughts In Verse," from the Abbey Press, of New York, is the title of a neat volume of poems from the pen of Mr. Duncan F. Young, a native of Covington, and at present Cashier of the Amite City Bank. "Ben, the Sage of Bantia," in five cantos, and other poems, display talent of a high order. Price, 75 cents.

We are now offering good Calico at 4 1/2 cents. BABINGTON & CO.

Camp Meeting.

The Talisheek Campmeeting will open on Wednesday, Sept. 18, at 8 P. M. Everybody welcome. Meals and lodging at the boarding tent, which will be run by Mr. Herman Schultz.

Dixon Academy, one of the finest educational institutions in the State, will open its second term on Tuesday, the first day of October. Extensive improvements have been made during the vacation, and new professors have been added to the faculty. We predict for this model preparatory school a large attendance and a prosperous session throughout the coming term.

Mr. E. J. Frederick has the celebrated "Rex" shoe, in all the latest styles, in addition to his large assortment of general merchandise. He makes a specialty of meats and fancy groceries, to suit the most fastidious palate. If you wear clothing and shoes, and are fond of good things to eat, give him a call. His big advertisement will be found in another column.
