BE IT KNOWN and remembered, That on this 12th day of September, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and one, being the day fixed therefor by law...

We, the said Jury Commissioners aforesaid, in the presence of the aforesaid witnesses, then supplemented the General Venire list by adding thereto the names of as many qualified jurors as was required to make three hundred, and by adding to the ballots in the General Venire Box, on separate slips of paper, the names of the persons so added to the list.

And the names remaining, two hundred and sixty (260), written on separate slips of paper by me, Clerk, with the number of the ward in which they reside, were placed in the General Venire Box, and after being well mixed, S. J. Talley, one of the aforesaid Jury Commissioners, in the presence of the remaining Jury Commissioners and witnesses and me, Clerk, proceeded to draw therefrom the names of thirty (30) persons to serve as jurors for the first week of court, commencing on Monday, Oct. 14, 1901, being the second Monday of said month, which were written down by me, Clerk, and ex-Officio Jury Commissioner, as drawn, and the slips containing their names were placed in an envelope and sealed and enclosed List of Jurors No. 1, which were as follows, to-wit:

And we being of the opinion that a Jury was not needed for the second week of said court, the said Jury Commissioners placed all of said slips in an envelope, and enclosed as above stated and sealed, were by us placed in the 'Jury Box' and locked and sealed and placed in the custody of the Clerk of Court, in the presence of the above mentioned witnesses, for use at the ensuing session of court.

All of these acts of the Jury Commissioners aforesaid having been done in the presence of each other and of the witnesses above named and ex-Officio Jury Commissioner and Clerk, all of the Jury Commissioners and Clerk, all of whom hereto sign their names, on the same day and date first above written.
