Mr. Hardy Smith, Jr., returned last Sunday from a visit of several weeks to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Welsh, of Siliua, Kansas. On his return stopped off for a few days at Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Smith will leave here Sunday evening to re-enter Tulane University.

All Saints' Day was appropriately celebrated in Covington. Large numbers of people visited the Cemetery during the day, and graves and tombs were profusely decorated with floral offerings in memory of the departed loved ones who rest in the "silent city."

Master Clarence Domergue, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Domergue, Jr., gave a party to his many friends last Tuesday, in celebration of his fifth birthday. There was an abundance of choice refreshments, and numerous children's games, and they all had a fine time. May he live to see many happy returns of the day.

"Some years ago while at Martinsburg, W. Va., I was taken with cholera morbus, which was followed by diarrhoea. The doctor's medicine did me no good, I was advised to get a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I did, and it cured me sound and well.--G. A. Morris, Embreeville, Pa.

CHURCH RE-OPENING.

Editor St. TAMMANY FARMER: The re-opening of the M. E. Church, South, in this place, on last Sunday was a grand success. Bro. Cooper's sermon at 11 A. M. on the gift of the Holy Spirit, was interesting and soul-stirring. The one at night on Personal Effort, to young men, was valuable to them from a business stand point, and those who did not hear it missed one of the opportunities of life.

Dr. Cooper took up a collection in the old Methodist style, and raised $215 00 in subscriptions and cash, on a debt of $275 00 or $300 00.

I was glad to see that all denominations gave freely and cheerfully, for which I here express the kindest thanks of the Building Committee and their faithful pastor.

The new church is of modern architecture, and has stained glass windows and a tower. The outside is neatly painted, and the inside finished in hard oil. The pulpit and the benches, of white pine and cypress, are nicely arranged, built to correspond, presenting a cozy and harmonizing effect. The seating capacity is about 350. It is illuminated with electric lights. Taken altogether, it is one of the handsomest churches of its size to be found anywhere.

The handsome pulpit was designed by Rev. Mr. Hocutt, and was a present by him to the church.

A Strong Plea for the School House.

In his address before the convention of Parish School Superintendents in New Orleans last week, Dr. B. V. B. Dixon, President of Newcomb College, made the following good points:

Every town should have a school house that cost as much as at least as the jail or court house. A parish seat should not boast of a $10,000 court house and a $50,000 jail, that did not have a school house costing as much as both. Had the school house come first, then the jail would have most likely been sufficient if costing only $500.

Miss Lenora Cefalu is spending a few days at her home, in Covington, this week, accompanied by Miss Lola Sanders, of New Orleans.

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I can recommend it with the utmost confidence. It has done good work for me and will do the same for others. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am respectfully yours for health, RAIFD S. METERS, 65-Thirty-seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va.

A Violent Attack of Croup Cured.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidentially to a baby as to a grown person.

If the negro Morris had not assaulted Mrs. Ball, he would not have been burned to the stake. And if the negro Lott had quietly submitted to arrest, for violating the law, instead of ambushing and firing upon the officers of the law, the Balltown affair would never have occurred. Similar tragedies are apt to occur anywhere, at any time, under the same circumstances.

To Her Last Sleep.

Passing away of Mrs. Dorville Cousin, of Bayou LaCombe. "A sad event occurred last Saturday, Oct. 26, in the family of Mr. D. Cousin, a well-known and highly respected citizen of this Parish, when the grim reaper, death, entered the once cheerful and happy home and claimed his wife as a victim.

Mrs. D. Cousin was a native of New Orleans, and a resident of this town for the last 40 years. She was 63 years of age at the time of her death. She died at 8 o'clock in the morning after an illness of 19 long months, during which period she received all possible attention and care at the hands of her husband and devoted children.

Too much praise can not be bestowed upon Miss Tillie L. Cousin, who was continually at her mother's side, for her efforts in endeavoring to relieve her suffering and gratify her every desire.

The deceased leaves besides her husband, seven heart-broken children, two sons and five daughters, to whom she was a good and kind mother and who will miss her sadly.

The funeral took place Sunday noon, from her late residence, Blooming Cottage, and was attended by Rev. Jos. Schmitt and a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

Spreads Like Wildfire.

When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, leading druggist of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling Bitters I have handled in 20 years." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tone up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run down man or woman. Sold by J. L. Watkins, druggist.

In Memory

Of EDWARD T. BRADY, who died October 19, 1901. A precious one from us has gone, A voice we love is stilled, A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled. God in his wisdom has recalled The boon his loved had given, And though the body slumbers here, The soul is safe in heaven. We miss thee from our home, dear, We miss thee from thy place, A shadow o'er our life is cast, We miss the sunshine of thy face, Thy fond and earnest care, Our home is dark without thee, We miss thee everywhere. 'Tis hard to break the tender cord, When love has bound the heart, 'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words, Must we forever part? Dearest loved one, we have laid thee In the peaceful grave's embrace, But thy memory will be cherished 'Till we see thy heavenly face. From his dear sister, JOSEPHINE.
