Thanksgiving Day.

President Roosevelt last Saturday issued his Thanksgiving Proclamation. He refers to the death of President McKinley and says: 'Thanksgiving finds the people still bowed down with sorrow for the death of a great and good President. We mourn President McKinley because we so loved and honored him, yet in spite of this great disaster it is nevertheless true that no people on earth have such abundant cause for thanksgiving as we have. The last year in particular has been one of peace and plenty. We have prospered in things material and have been able to work for our uplifting in things intellectual and spiritual.' He designates November 28 as Thanksgiving day.

Killed by a Falling Limb.

DIED—At Violin, Nov. 3, at 5 A. M., John W. Gill, aged 65 years.

The deceased and Mack Galloway were cutting saw logs near their place last Saturday about 10 A. M. They had just sawed a tree down and in the act of going to the top to saw off a log when Mr. Galloway heard and saw a limb falling out of the top of another tree, just in time to dodge, but the limb hit the deceased on the head breaking his skull, from which he died the following morning. The deceased was a native of Mississippi, but a resident of the 6th ward for the last 30 years. He leaves a wife, a brother in Columbia, Miss., and a host of friends to mourn his loss. May he rest in peace.

Cut this out and take it to V. H. Frederick's drug Store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Regular size, 25c per box.

Jumped on a Ten Penny Nail.

The little daughter of J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust a nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland. Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and is one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.
