Try a V cigar, at Frederick's Drug Store.

Fire insurance companies are getting to be plenty.

The Town Council will meet in regular session next Tuesday night.

Only 25 days till Christmas, but it seems a long time to young America.

Mr. J. F. Adams and family have moved into the Stroble cottage, east of the Farmer office.

Mr. Abraham Blattner, the harness maker, has closed his shop in Covington, but may return in the Spring.

Mr. John B. Corastock, of Mandeville, has been granted a Government pension of six dollars a month.

The fine new cottage of Mr. A. P. Lacroix, near Dixon's Academy, has been completed, and makes a fine appearance.

The store of L. F. Lacroix has been moved from the Labat place to the People's Bakery building, on Columbia street.

Mr. O. Alarius has his brickyard now in full operation, and will give prompt attention to all orders. We call attention to his card in another column.

The Mandeville Wave is doing good work for our neighboring town on the Lake shore, and its efforts should be appreciated and encouraged by liberal patronage.

The Dixon Academy foot ball team celebrated their victory over the High School team, of New Orleans, last Saturday, and the play would be echoed their shouts of victory.

There appears to be a growing demand for warm and comfortable houses to rent during the winter months. This demand should be met, if we would make our town a winter as well as a summer resort.

We received this week a fine sample of broom straw, raised by Mr. Dupre, of Mandeville. The straw is long, clean and well cured, and shows that this crop can be grown in our parish to perfection.

Send us a list of twelve names and address of those who you think are interested in a business education, and receive six cards with your name beautifully written. Address: New Orleans Business College.

Mr. Emile Frederick's handsome two-story brick building, on Columbia street, was completed last Saturday. It is a fine structure, an ornament to our town and parish, and a credit to the skill and good taste of the architect, Mr. Howard Barnes.

The residence of Mr. W. L. Warren, at Shady Grove, in Washington Parish, was destroyed by fire on Monday, Nov. 18, including the furniture and clothing. No insurance. His wife and daughter are now in Covington, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wortham.

Mr. Sam Talley, who was thrown from his horse on Tuesday of last week, and had his left hip dislocated, is getting along very well, and we hope he will be out in a few days. He was taken to Mr. Barrero's, and attended by Dr. Marrero. Last Wednesday he was able to be taken to his home in the country.

Judging from the large number of children seen on their way to school every morning, education is certainly on the boom in Covington.

On Friday of last week a progressive euchre club was organized in Covington, with 35 members, at the residence of Mrs. C. V. Seiler. They will give their first euchre next Friday, Dec. 6.

Thanksgiving Day was quietly observed in Covington. Services were held at the Methodist Church, by Rev. F. G. Hocutt. The Epworth League Hall was tastefully decorated, and choice refreshments served. The hog killing took place in the afternoon, and the prize was won by Miss Nellie Dobson.

We acknowledge the compliment of an invitation to attend a "Smoker" in commemoration of the increase of the capital stock of the Bank of Amite City, from $10,000 to $25,000, on Nov. 28, from 6 to 8 P. M., in the Director's Room of the Bank. Many thanks. D. S. C. C.

There will be a Christmas tree in the Epworth League Hall, Christmas Eve, by the Methodist Sunday School. They invite other Sunday Schools, also any one wishing to participate. Any one may put presents on the tree for their friends.

A Liberal Offer. The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This a new remedy and a good one. V. H. FREDERICK.

Notice. There will be a meeting of the M. M. S. Co., on Thursday, Dec. 5, 1901, for the purpose of electing a Secretary and Treasurer pro tem., during the absence of Hon. H. Boyle, who will be absent for some time on an extended trip to European ports in the interest of the company.

A Violent Attack of Group Cured. "Last winter an infant child of mine had crum in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures crum, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidentially to a baby as to a grown person." For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

Selecting Holiday Gifts.....

If you wait until the last week you won't have money enough to go around, will you? Pick out some gifts now they'll keep. V. H. Frederick has them in stock. Next door to the postoffice.

DEAD DRUGS. If you stop to think about it you will understand that drugs can lose their life and power. All the physicians' skill and druggists' accuracy can be brought to naught by dead drugs. Dead drugs are really dead stock. Dead stock means dull trade. Our business would not let us accumulate dead stock if we tried—and we're not trying. If you want live drugs come to the live store. V. H. FREDERICK, Druggist.
