Short Cotton Crop.

The statistician of the Agricultural Department issued his annual Cotton Crop Estimate of the production of the United States for the year 1901-1902, last Tuesday.

The probable yield is placed at 9,784,000 bales, which is much lower than was expected.

Thursday's quotations were as follows: Low middling, 7 7-16. Middling, 7 13-16. Good Middling, 8 1-16.

FLORENVILLE. First Bale Crown Near the Town Sold.

Florenville, Nov. 29.—The first bale of cotton raised near Florenville, on the East Louisiana Railroad, was purchased by the firm of Vincent & Hayne, of New Orleans, and shipped yesterday.

Serious Shooting in Washington Parish.

Franklinton, La., Dec. 3.—Ben Duncan, Jr., and Bill Magee were wounded in a shooting affray yesterday in the northeastern corner of this parish.

A. J. Snell wanted to attend a party, but was afraid to do so on account of pains in his stomach, which he feared would grow worse.

Among the appropriations recommended in the River and Harbor bill, we note the following, as being of local interest:

For maintenance of improvement of Tehefunctia river and Bogue Falls, $1000.

Bogue Chitto, Louisiana, continued improvement and for maintenance, $7,000.

Says He Was Tortured.

"I suffered such pain from corns I could hardly walk," writes H. Robinson, Hillsborough, Ill., "but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured them."

A Good Cough Medicine.

[From Gazette, Toowoomba Australia] I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months, and it has effected a cure.

CONGRESS MEETS.

Congress met last Monday, and evidently mean business, as over 3600 bills were introduced on that day.

The following is a brief synopsis of his recommendations, after paying a handsome tribute to the late President McKinley.

Anarchists must be suppressed. Congratulation upon our prosperity. Publicity as to trusts the best remedy.

We need a Secretary of Commerce and Industry. Chinese immigration should be excluded.

Stronger inspection immigration laws. Let the tariff alone. Reciprocity but not hurtful to any home industry.

Laws to aid merchant marine. The bank laws are sufficient. Be economical about expenditures.

Tribute of Respect.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our Sunday School and from our homes Lucie M. Gagnet, beloved daughter of Mr and Mrs. S. P. Gagnet.

Therefore, We the committee appointed by the Superintendent of the Covington Methodist Sunday School offer the following resolutions of love and respect to our little friend, who was so suddenly and sadly taken from this world to the land of which our Savior said, "for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

First, That we bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father in this dispensation of his providence, being assured the He does all things well.

Second, That in the death of our little friend and sister, we as a school have lost one of our brightest and most faithful pupils, who by her constant attendance and cheerful disposition was a source of comfort and encouragement to all.

Third, That we tender our heartfelt sympathies to the family in their bereavement, and pray God that He may in this time of sore distress send the comforting influence of the Holy Spirit. That they be enabled to bear this dispensation of providence and say, "Thy will and not mine be done."

Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, also to the St. Tammany Farmer and Franklin Vindicator for publication.

Committee—MAY KENTZEL, LUCY WADSWORTH.

Among the Supreme Court decisions rendered last Monday, we note the following.

State of Louisiana, ex. rel. vs. Miss Ella S. Benton, et. al., vs. James M. Thompson, Judge.

Syllabus: The Supreme Court will not mandamus a district judge to proceed to the taxing of the costs incurred by a succession where, after hearing of parties upon a rule, it has been made to appear to him that the executrix of the succession has been removed from office and no successor has yet been appointed contradictory with whom the question of cost could be liquidated, and where the costs are due, but universal legatees not yet ordered to be placed in possession.

Mandamus refused at relators' cost.

Logtown Items.

December 4, 1901.

Editor St Tammany Farmer: I hear so much of your valuable paper that I thought I would make myself agreeable by sending you a few items from our town.

Logtown is situated on Pearl river, its beautiful scenery is just grand at this time of the year.

Several new houses are going up. A pretty little cottage has been built for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mitchell, in which they intend to move in a few days.

Mr. H. Weston, manager of the Weston mills paid a visit to Madisonville on business.

A crowd of young folks took a wagon ride to Napoleonville, where they visited Westonia, and attended singing school. Those present were Misses Eunice, Stella and May Osborn, Anna, Rebecca, May and Maria Koch, and the Misses House, Messrs. Percy Osborn, Tom House, Christy and Christian Koch, Willie Talley, of Shiloh, Victor Casenove and Sam Russ, of Pearlington.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mitchell.

Mr. T. Knoop, of Jaysville, is making his home here, manager of the Weston mill.

Christmas is coming real soon, and the young folks are getting anxious to see old Santa Claus' feet come down with all his toys for the good little children.

The singing school is going to have a Christmas tree in the Protestant Church.

Dr. Fountain, who has been on the sick list, is getting much better from his spell of typhoid and malarial fever.

We sympathize with Mr. Carry, who has been so ill for the past few weeks, and hope he will soon recover.

Mrs. Dan Macardly spent Saturday with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Cambel. Messrs. Perry and Crow left for their home in Texas. We wish the young men a pleasant trip and a safe return to our little village.

Say, Mr. Editor, why don't you come and pay us a visit once in a while. It would do you good to see our place. Jim Cook paid a flying visit to New Orleans last Sunday.

Mr. Knight left for his home in Houston, Texas, where he is going to spend Christmas with his folks.

Mr. Chas. Sunset, of Mobile, is here on a pleasure trip, at the Riverdale Hotel.

Well, I think I will close for this time, Your old friend, SAMBO.

Woman's Good Taste.

May be depended on to guide her in doing just the right thing at the right time. We depend upon this good taste for our candy trade. Since women have discovered that we keep high class confections, perfectly pure and always fresh, they have been most appreciative patrons of our candy counter.

Good doctors said she was so far gone with Consumption that no medicine or earthly help could save her, but a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery and persistent use of this excellent medicine saved her life."

WHY A YOUNG MAN..... SHOULD INSURE HIS LIFE. His Only Fortune.

A young man's opportunities are oftentimes his only fortune. His best opportunity is to insure his life for the benefit of himself or family. A day will come when he will no longer be insurable. Death or disease may intervene. Every year of delayed insurance increases the cost and puts farther away the completion of the Distribution or Endowment period when the benefit of foresight in early life may be reaped.

Thus to all men and women in sound health this great Company appeals. Insure your life for others if you want to, but for yourself first and surely.
