Editor St. Tammany Farmer: I will try again to give you a few more locals from our thriving little community—the garden spot of St. Tammany.

The health of our community is still not very good, but we hope to see it better in the near future.

Our farmers will soon begin to make things move in the way of farming and truck raising for the Covington market and if the season is good there will be a good supply made.

Miss Idell Perreand is on the sick list for the past few days.

The forest fires have made nearly everybody get a hustle on themselves for the past two weeks; it has done some damage, but not serious.

How strange it looks to see a man going around with a sewing machine screw driver in his hand trying to load it for a pipe to get a smoke out of it.

We are very proud to say our school is moving on very nicely with a good attendance and every body well pleased.

Our school teacher, Miss Ruth Scott, has organized a nice Sunday school which is a credit to any community. Come out one and all.

We are very sorry to note the death of Mrs. Warren Willie, who died on the 12th inst. and was interred in the family cemetery. Her funeral was conducted by Rev. D. A. Booth, on the evening of the 13th. The bereaved have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Thompson and family, of Bull Branch, are visiting Mr. Wm. Jordan and family for a short time, on account of Mrs. Thompson's ill health.

Mr. Ephram Thomas is still convalescent. We hope to see him up and around soon.

Our school teacher (Miss Scott) is teaching a night school, three nights out of a week, in arithmetic and writing.

We have the pleasure of noting the wedding of Mr. Joe Curbert and Miss Nola Brown on Thursday, Jan. 16, 1901, at 4 o'clock, Rev. D. A. Booth, officiating. We wish the young couple a happy journey through life. They have the best wishes of all.

Mrs. D. A. Booth is still on the sick list.

We are sorry to note the death of our neighbor, Mr. Kibnemau, on the 12th inst. He was interred in the Covington cemetery on the 14th. The bereaved companion and family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Joel Thompson gave a log chopping Friday.

The time is close at hand to commence spring gardens.

J. W. Allison will soon commence pushing his bees for early swarms; they are doing very well so far.

Hiram Thompson was taken very sudden Friday with something like neuralgia or the grippe, perhaps both. We hope he will be alright soon.

Tell me what has become of Wild Wood, Will West, and the other correspondents? Come out my brethren, don't be ashamed of your old occupation. I am afraid you are putting in too much time with the gals. You mustn't forget your post, so come out right along. Best wishes to the FARMER, I C U

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP.

A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from E. A. Steere, of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed, every ten minutes until he "threw up," and I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth to-day. JOEL DELMONT, Inwood, Iowa. A Cure for Lumbago.

W. C. Williamson, of Amherst, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from Lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief, which all other remedies failed to do." Sold by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

A Hint on Buying Beef.

Mrs. Youngwife—How do you always manage to have such delicious beef?

Mrs. Oldwife—I select a good, honest butcher, and then stand by him.

Mrs. Youngwife—You mean that you give him all your trade?

Mrs. Oldwife—No; I mean that I stand by him while he is cutting the meat.

A GOOD RECOMMENDATION

"I have noticed that the sale of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. What better recommendation could any medicine have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite, or when troubled with constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford.
