Bogue Falia Notes.

Verger, La., Feb. 20, 1902.
Editor St. Tammany Farmer:
It affords me great satisfaction to report everything moving along nicely up here.

Our farmers are rapidly preparing for planting, although the weather for the past few days has been very disagreeable.

Log rollings are the order of the day. Mr. John Stafford gave one today.

On each and every farm now you may see the sons of the soil toiling from sun to sun.

Everything, as usual, is perfectly quiet up here. We can boast of one of the most quiet and all around good communities in the parish.

We have good schools and churches and some rattle traps of mills, but we hope to have better facilities for sawing lumber and ginning cotton at an early date.

Mr. John Simmons, who is stopping at Mr. A. P. Blackwell's, says that this timber must be reached, and it is generally conceded that Mr. Simmons speaks from good authority. When our timber is reached by railroad, then our country will begin to develop.

Mr. Marion Sylvest of Richardson, who is traveling for the International Pub. Co., spent a couple of days in our midst, the guest of Messrs. Ed. and Col. Blackwell. The boys enjoyed a day of sporting Saturday and killed some birds and time to boot. Mr. Marion left for other parts on Sunday. The writer heard from him on Bogue Chitto Tuesday.

Mr. G. W. Corkern and brother, Walter, were visiting their friends on the head waters of Bogue Falia last Saturday. They also enjoyed themselves immensely on Saturday night, in company with three others, ha! ha!

A jolly crowd of boys and girls met at Mrs. Mary Core's last Saturday night and had an "O be joyful" time. They all enjoyed themselves to a great extent. Both vocal and instrumental music was furnished by Misses Vennie and Louise Verger and Miss Maud Core.

Mr. Wash Blackwell has found his horse at last; he was found at Arcola.

Martins have made their appearance.

With best wishes to all and especially to the editor.

Yours for success,
ANTI-EXPANSIONIST.

Logtown Items.

Feb. 17, 1902.

The past week has been very gay for some of the Logtown folks, although there were no dances.

Miss Marrie Koch entertained a number of her friends on Wednesday night. After playing games refreshments were served, and everybody had a very enjoyable time. It was given in honor of Miss Nora Gallagher, of Lake Charles. Those present were Misses May Koch, Amelia and Pearl Casnova, Nora and Maggie Gallagher, Eunice and May Osbourn, Marie and Hanne Koch. Messrs. John Dillard, Stanley and Christian Koch, Percy Osbourn, John and Ulmar Koch, C. D. Koch and others.

Miss Lina Lilly returned after a week's stay in Bay Louis and New Orleans, reporting she had a lovely time. Now, as she has returned, we hope she will have fine success in her music and elocution classes.

Miss Nora and Maggie Gallagher, of Lake Charles are the guests of Miss Marrie Koch.

Miss May and Eunice Osbourn visited Westonia last week.

Miss Lizzie Howe returned to her home in Logtown after spending a delightful week in Pearlinton, Miss.

Miss Lunsford, the assistant teacher Logtown High School, gave her pupils a "St. Valentine's Party" Friday evening, lasting from 4 to 5 o'clock. The little ones had an enjoyable time.

Messrs. Andrew Osbourn and Joe Farve took a flying trip to Kila, Miss., Saturday returning Sunday, and report having a fine time.

Mr. W. Whitfield moved to town last week. We are glad to have him.

A nice little surprise party took place on Friday night at Mr. Charlie Cardinae's, given by the girls. Those present were Misses Bertha Leggett, Eunice, May and Stella Osbourn, Marie and Hanne Koch, Amelia, Pearl and Anna Casnova, Nora and Maggie Gallagher, Messrs. Joe Sharp, H. Smith, Stanley, Christian and Ulmar Koch, Percy Osbourn, C. D. Koch, George Tabbot, Victor Casnova, A. Murphy and John Dillard. After playing games till a late hour all returned to their homes, having had a nice time.

We Logtown people received some delightful valentines. Keep on boys, don't forget us next year.

A nice little crowd gathered at the home of Mr. T. Osbourn Sunday night. Miss May Osbourn played some very pretty music and Misses Nora and Maggie Gallagher sang some very pretty songs. Every one enjoyed it very much.

Try again girls.

Mr. Victor Casnova and Miss Mat. Lloyd took a drive to Pearlinton Sunday evening. That's right "Vic." keep on trying.
