Editor St. Tammany FARMER.

We welcome the bright rays of sun this week, for the rain last week was something terrible, and cold weather is here again. We thought a few weeks ago we were going to have some warm weather, but we will just have to wait a while longer and then we will get enough of summer.

A very enjoyable party was given last Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kerch, by some of the young folks. Those present were Misses Hanne Kerch, Ruth Hursey, Sarah McCarthy, May and Stella Osbourn. Marie Koch, May and Rebecca Kerch, Bertha Legett, Nellie Howze, Verie Miller and Mrs. White, and Messrs Stanley Kerch, Hunter Howze, Sam Russ, John Dillard, George Fabbot, Gidie Holden, M. Loyd, U. Kerch, George and John Kerch, Joe Sharp, August Boyet, C. D. Kerch, Christian Koch, Henry Weston. It lasted till a late hour, and the weather looked so bad, all returned to their homes, having enjoyed themselves very much.

Miss L. Lillie gave an entertainment at Napoleon last Saturday night, but owing to the bad weather, she did not have much of a success. We are very sorry she failed and hope will do better next time.

Mrs. White, of Pearlinton, gave a very pretty little apron party on Tuesday night, in honor of Miss Hanne Koch. A very nice crowd attended. Mr. Rod Russ got the first prize and Mr. Augustine Hoover received the booby prize.

Miss L. Brady and Mr. W. Mitchell are the guests of Mr. Albert Mitchell, of Logtown.

Mrs. Seeb is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Street, of Logtown.

Messrs. Andie Martin, B. Harris and J. Bilboa were in town Sunday morning. They called around and visited our fine Sunday School. We have the finest Sunday School around.

Miss Lanie Kerch, from Montana, is visiting her folks at Logtown. It has been quite a number of years since she was here.

Quite a nice little crowd gathered at Mr. D. S. Osbourn's home last Sunday eve. After staying a while they decided to take a walk. Those present were Marie Kerch, Sam Russ, May Osbourn, Stanley Kerch, Hanne Kerch, Percy Osbourn, Eunice Osbourn, C. D. Kerch, May Kerch, Stella Osbourn, Will Koch. Taking a walk through town, all reported a fine time.

Mr. Cobe Weston and wife, of New Orleans, visited Logtown Sunday.

We are very sorry to learn that Mr. C. D. Kerch has left the store. We miss him very much. But now he is Capt. Koch. We wish him success.

Brother Sibley was in town this week. He has quit preaching and gone to selling spectacles.

Mr. Daniels had a great success in his potato peddling this season. He has found him a wife. He says he is through with the potato business.

Rev. Moss, our presiding elder, delivered some very beautiful sermons Tuesday and Wednesday night at Logtown. Rev. Galloway held services Thursday night. Best wishes. WE TWO.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Laurens, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for the weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfactory guaranteed by the City Drug Store, J. L. Watkins proprietor.

"Politics is getting in a bad way," said Senator Sorghum, indignantly; a mighty bad way? If this thing goes on there's no telling what will become of the country."

"Do you mean to say you are coming forward as a reformer?"

"That's exactly what I mean to say. It's getting so that a man will take money from both sides and then vote as he pleases. There ought to be a law to prevent a man from taking money from more than one candidate in the same election."—Washington Post.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse your stomach, improve your appetite and make you feel like a new man. They are easy to take, being sugar coated, and pleasant in effect. For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.
