WEATHER REPORT

Table with columns: Max, Min, Rainfall. Rows for April 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23.

District Court will convene in Covington next Monday.

The Omega Club will be entertained by Miss Annie Smith next Tuesday night.

Sealed bids are invited for the building of a new Parish Jail. See notice in another column.

There will be services in the Episcopal Church Sunday morning and evening, at the usual hours.

The gardens in and about town are looking well, and the Irish potato and tomato crops promise a big yield.

April 26 should be the date of this issue on the first page. The change was accidentally overlooked in making up the forms.

Mr. Wm. Bush caught a 25 pound catfish in Pearl River on a day last week, which he presented to Mr. Ed Jones.

Mr. J. B. Wortham has just received a full line of summer goods and invites the public to call and inspect the same, before purchasing elsewhere.

The grass throughout the parish is beginning to show itself finely, and stock of all kinds grazing thereon are beginning to look fat and sleek.

Mr. V. Frederick, druggist, will open his Soda Water Fountain tomorrow, (Sunday) He will also serve Milk Shakes. Call on him for a cool refreshing drink.

Remember the entertainment to night (Saturday) for the benefit of the fire alarm bell fund. An enjoyable time is assured to all who attend.

Furniture of all descriptions for sale or for rent, by Hickham Magee & Co. They will say more about this in their big advertisement next week.

Mr. G. W. Mason is the sales agent for the Covington and St. Tammany Land and Improvement Company. See him for bargains in real estate, in town or country.

Mr. W. H. Kroene, the well known contractor and builder has located permanently in Covington, and will give prompt attention to any business in his line. See his card in another column.

Lots in New Covington and New Clarborne can now be purchased by small payments, on the installment plan. For full particulars see advertisement of Mr. F. B. Martindale, on page four.

Mr. P. E. Theriot, formerly with Bickham, Magee & Co., has accepted a position in the store of Mr. J. B. Wortham, where he will be pleased to meet his many friends.

One of the prettiest gardens spots in the parish is the residence of Judge O. L. Duttmar, in Slidell, which is noted for its fine flower garden, which contains the rarest varieties of all kinds of flowers, which are now in full bloom.

LOST—Last Saturday, in Covington, or on the road between Covington and Madisonville, a pair of gold spectacles, on the case is the name "Socoler." The finder will please return to Miss D. Perkins, Madisonville, or E. J. Frederick, Covington, and receive reward.

Slidell Items.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer. I will once more make my appearance in your columns, with a few words for our little town. It is on the up grade all the time.

The Epworth League gave a grand entertainment last Tuesday night. After playing croquette, choice refreshments were served, and several other games were played.

Miss Ida Cowart is in Covington this week. Rev. Mr. Carter and wife are visiting friends in New Orleans this week.

Miss Louise McCause, of Wilson, La., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Mayfield.

Misses Ida and Alice Welsh left last Saturday for Bayou LaCombe where they will spend a few days.

Miss Emily Starks entertained a few friends last Saturday night.

Miss Louise Faciane and Mr. Victor Galatas were married Wednesday, April 16, at Boufouca, La.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Wichard gave a dinner at their home on the thirteenth, in honor of Mrs. Cary's eighty-fourth birthday.

If this does not fly to the waste basket, I will write more next time. With best wishes to the FANX and all the scribblers, I am ORLANDO

The strawberry festival, handkerchief bazaar and entertainment last Wednesday, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church fund, was well attended, both day and night, and was a perfect success in every respect.

The program was as follows: Piano Solo—Miss Flotte of New Orleans. Overture—Covington Symphony Orchestra.

Vocal Solo—Miss Alva Blaffer Recitation—The Children's Hour, by Miss Marguerite Cefalo. Violin Solo—Prof. Herrle. Recitation—By Hon. J. B. Lancaester.

Legerdemain Performance "The Skeleton Dance"—Dr. Vacher. Recitation "Golf"—Miss Lydia Griffin.

Vocal Duet—Miss Francis Thorne and Prof. Holmes. Selection by the Covington Symphony Orchestra.

Recitation—Prof. W. A. Dixon. Mr. Harvey E. Ellis officiated as master of ceremonies in his usual happy manner.

The Covington Symphony Orchestra rendered choice music, and I deserve special mention. It is composed of Miss Rebecca Weaver, pianist, and Messrs. Hurrin and Kornfeld, violinists; Smith, flute; Champagne, clarinet, Zuser, trombone, Planche and Terranova, cornets.

Fairview is now enclosed with five miles of wire fence, and a fine drive has been made from the public road to the cottage. Dr. J. O. Flower the enterprising proprietor, left for his home in Pittsburg, Pa., last Wednesday, but the work of improvement will continue all the same. In a short time a portion of Fairview will be opened for pasturage, at a low rate per month.

We printed a new list card for the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company this week, containing a number of new subscribers. The business of the company is constantly increasing, as the great convenience of the phone is becoming better known, and the general manager, Mr. Hugh Kirby, is attentive to the wants of the many patrons of the line. See him and have a box put in your store or residence, and you will never regret it. An interesting statement showing the growth of this great Company, will be found in another column. On March 31 there were 81,621 subscribers, and the list is constantly growing.

Notice to Builders.

MARRIED—On Thursday, April 17, the marriage of Mr. George Thomas Reber, of Covington, La., to Miss Alice Guthrie, of New Orleans was solemnized by the Rev. Father J. Widmer, in the presence of quite a number of relatives and friends of the couple, at the home of the bride's mother, in Pearl River, La.

The cozy little parlor was decorated with cut flowers, while in one corner of the room a bower of evergreens and ferns had been erected, under which the happy couple stood during the ceremony. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Maggie May Guthrie, as bridesmaid, while Mr. Istous Willis of Pearl River, La. acted as best man.

The bride wore a becoming gown of white organdy, set off by lilacs of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of bride-roses. The bridesmaid was also attired in white. Mr. and Mrs. Reber were the recipients of many costly presents. Among those who attended the reception which followed the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carpenter, Mrs. L. A. Reber, Miss Mary Reber, all of Covington; Mrs. J. H. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hegney, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frisk, Miss Adelle Crawford, Miss Lizzie Willis, the Misses Sarah and Ella Egan, Lizzie Patterson, Loretta Guthrie, Annie Schneider, Mmes. Allen, Porter, Beck, Mary O'Neill, Jane McCracken, Kate McCracken, Lorine Grayer and Mildred Emmerson; Messrs. E. S. Cobb, Jack Willis, J. Parker, Willie Stakelum, H. J. Schneider, Smith Cobb, Hugh Nelson, John Schneider, S. Frasher, Istous Willis and Joe Guthrie.

The happy couple arrived in Covington last Monday, on a visit to the groom's mother, and received the congratulations of their many friends. We acknowledge the receipt of some of the bride's cake and a bottle of wine, with the compliments of Mr. and Mrs. Reber, and wish them a joyful and prosperous future.

MARRIED—Saturday April 19, 1902, by Rev. F. G. Hocutt, at the residence of the bride's parents, Eldridge A. Ragan and Miss Ruby D. Timberlake.

The interesting ceremony was witnessed by a large number of invited guests from Covington and the surrounding country. We received a liberal share of bride's cake, in honor of the event, and join their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes. The wedding presents, from friends absent and present, were numerous and handsome.

MARRIED.—On Wednesday, April 16, a quiet wedding took place at the residence of Hon. Wynne Rogers, 131 South Derby street, New Orleans. Miss Dora Meyer, of Liberty Settlement, near Covington, was married to Mr. Bruno Boniquois, a prominent stenographer, of New Orleans. The happy couple received the congratulations of friends and relatives. Several former residents of St. Tammany were present at the ceremony.

DIED.—In Covington, La., Wednesday, morning, April 23, 1902, Rev. J. F. Scurlock, aged 87 years. His remains were taken to New Orleans Thursday morning for interment. The deceased was a member of the Louisiana Conference, M. E. Church South, for the past thirty-five years. He had resided in Covington about four years, having come here for the benefit of his health. He frequently held service in the Methodist Church, and made many friends, who regretted to hear of his death, although it was not unexpected.
