He Was Laughed At.

Bellamy was laughed at for picturing a condition of society wherein the people sat at home and heard sermons, lectures and concerts by telephone, but two Chicago speakers made after-dinner speeches to banqueters in New York, 950 miles away. "The world do move."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Won't Follow Advice After Faying For It

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

Some time ago the editor of a nearby paper found an article made of black elastic web, which looked too small for a belt and too large for a sleeve holder, and advertised that the owner could have the same by calling at the office. The next Sunday a handsome young lady called and asked for the article. The editor blushed deeply, but stepped up to the wall and gingerly taking it from a nail where he had hung it, handed it to the lady. She thanked him, slipped the web over her Bible and proceeded to Sunday-school.—Ex.

CURES WHEN DOCTORS FAIL.

Mrs. Frank Chaisson, Patterson, La., writes, June 8, 1901: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I quit taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at V. H. Frederick's drug store.
